

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Oakley Burt

Issue Date: November 4, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 31

Page: 1

Articles:

“Chief History Reviewed By Miller”: History professor Dr. David E. Miller spoke at the University of Utah Thursday lecture series about the history of the United States Presidency. Dr. Miller spoke about every president who has held office since the 1800s, how they came to hold the office and the challenges they faced. (continued on another page)

“Utah Coordinator Opposes NSA Withdrawal”: Bob Clark, National Student Association (NSA) Coordinator, gave an opposing view that the University of Utah had not made up its mind to withdraw from the NSA. Clark discussed that officers and delegates will be attending the regional convention with an open mind. Clark stated that he does not believe the NSA has been radicalized, but is going through a transitional period.

“Poli Sci Prof to Speak on President”: Associate Professor of Political Science, Dr. J.D. Williams, will present a lecture in the Orson Spencer Hall Auditorium at noon today. Dr. Williams will be speaking about the method of selection of the President of the United States. Dr. Williams had the opportunity to attend the Democratic National Convention in New York City this summer, and will also include remarks concerning the convention and its nominating practices in his lecture.

“Ute Student Court Hears Election Rules Violations, Brockbank Prosecutes Hearing of Campsites”: The Associated Students of the University of Utah (ASUU) Student Court met on Thursday to hear the trial regarding the violation of Senate Bill 60-1, a bill on election violations. Steve Brockbank, the Vice President, headed the prosecution and charged the student violators with the following offenses: not removing campaign signs, not providing election ballot counters and use of illegally sized signs. (continued on another page)

“Chrony Section Heralds Snow Fun for Campsites, Space Travel’s Not Far Away”: The upcoming ski season is approaching. University students will have the opportunity to learn from a new ski instructor on the slopes.

“Foreign Holiday Highlights AWS Dance”: AWS Dance presents “Jamaican Holiday” at the Union Ballroom tonight from 9-12 p.m. The dance will highlight the selection of “El toqui” or “the chief,” from five finalists. The five finalists and their sponsoring organizations are: Pat

Stillman, Central Hall; Rey Johnson, Lambda Delta Sigma; Jim Sattler, Alpha Chi Omega; and Gary Drown, Delta Gamma.

“Voting Choice Takes ‘Sound Off’ Spot”

“Exec Council Meets, Discusses Research” By Susan Woodland: The Executive Council met to discuss research plans, a possible NSA withdrawal and other campus issues. Gary Shirts and Allan Dalley, two graduate students, will oversee the professional aspects of the project and will create a questionnaire to gauge student attitudes. ASUU President, John Bennion, expressed hope that this would become a continuous research project.

Issue Date: November 4, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 31

Page: 2

Articles:

“A Growing Asset”: Austrian pianist, Bodura Skoda, will perform at the Maurice Abravanel Hall with the Utah Symphony Orchestra. The Utah Symphony Orchestra has reached an all-time high record in ticket sales for the 60-61 season. Following Mr. Skoda’s concert, there will be nine concerts remaining in the season.

“Jabs... by Lance” By Lance Gudmundsen: Gudmundsen takes aim at the University of Utah parking officers misspelling ‘zone,’ a typography error at the campus store, University of Colorado fraternity brothers kidnapping sorority moms, and the upcoming presidential election.

“Spur Hassell is Recipient of Month’s Award” By Dixie Marchant: The University of Utah Spurs announced Marion Hassell as the Spur-of-the-month. Hassell graduated from East High School, and was awarded this honor for her enthusiasm and spirit. Hassell currently serves as the Chairman of the Spur Evaluation Committee.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Classified Advertisements:

1. Wanted advertisement for a “non-smoking, female” roommate.
2. Private, furnished apartment located on 13th East is advertised.
3. Deluxe, 3-bedroom apartment with washer and dryer is advertised.
4. Clean and furnished 2-bedroom house for rent on University Street.

5. Furnished, 4-bedroom house for rent on 13th East.
6. Wanted advertisement for a “non-drinking, non-smoking” girl to share apartment near the U.
7. Lost advertisement for a green sweater left in the OSH auditorium.
8. Babysitter for 1-2 children of a university family advertised.
9. Instructions for finder of lost green sweater: if found in OSH auditorium, leave in the bookstore lost and found.
10. For sale advertisement for '55 Plymouth Hardtop, call for price.
11. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Chevy, standard transmission for $350.
12. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Mercedes Benz, good condition for $600.
13. For sale advertisement for a '54 Plymouth Savoy with new rubber snow tires in excellent condition, contact seller for price.
14. Stereo system for sale advertisement.
15. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Chevy with standard transmission for $300.
16. Smith-Corona typewriter for sale advertisement.
17. For sale advertisement for a MGA 1600 priced at $2,275.
18. For sale advertisement for an Oldsmobile convertible in good condition.
19. Pre-season ski sale advertisement for 50% off apparel and equipment.
20. '59 Volkswagen for sale advertisement.
21. '57 Plymouth Belvedere for sale advertisement.
22. Advertisement for the new 1960 Volkswagen arriving from Europe priced at $1595.
23. For sale advertisement for a 4-door '55 Chevrolet.
24. Typing services advertisement.
25. Advertisement for the performing group called The Vibratones.
26. Secretarial service advertisement.
27. Proof reading service advertisement.
28. Babysitting service advertised for weekday work.
29. Child care service advertised.
30. Wanted advertisement for a “tot tender” 4 nights of the week.
31. Wanted advertisement for a 21-year or older man with a car who can work 20 hours a week.
32. Wanted advertisement for a 3 hour job 4 nights a week.
33. KUER radio schedule.
34. Wanted advertisement for a full or part-time mechanic
35. Advertisement for German lessons.
36. Help wanted advertisement for a U couple who will tend children in exchange for room and board—wife cannot be in school.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. "Little Man on Campus" cartoon, no artist listed.

Issue Date: November 4, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 31

Page: 3

Articles:

"IK Pledges Conceal Identities with Mysterious Black Masks": Intercollegiate Knight members were mistaken for members of the Ku Klux Klan while parading around the Union. The Intercollegiate Knights took the following into the new pledge class: Raymond Behle, Newell Bringham, John Clark, Lonnie Cochran, David Coombe, Robert Crawley, Chad Hansen and William Howell. The Intercollegiate Knight members spend their spare time as ushers at Kingsbury Hall, attend sporting events, work with the Spurs and operate a book exchange in the Union.

"Dr. Dibble Names Mexico as Most Decided in Interest" by Nancy Price: Dr. Charles E. Dibble is the new head of the anthropology department and has a keen interest in Mexico. Dr. Dibble's work has taken him all over Mexico and parts of Central America, as he is one of the best scholars at deciphering Aztec manuscripts. During the summer, he spends most his time looking over scrolls and graphs then writing papers discussing their translations and significance.

List of Advertisements:

1. Crème K Lotion advertisement with slogan, "Keep your complexion beautifully clear with Crème K Lotion."
2. Union Movies advertisement for "The Remarkable Mister Pennypacker" in the UUU Little Theater on Friday and Saturday.
3. New York Opera Festival advertisement.
4. Queen Pin Bowling Tournament advertisement.
5. Unitarian Church advertisement.

List of Classified Advertisements:

1. Interview advertisement from Litton Industries looking to interview recent graduates for an R&D and construction position.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 4, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 31

Page: 4

Articles:

“UCCF Dates Confab”: United Campus Christian Fellowship is holding its fall conference November 4-6 in Logan, Utah. “Conscience on Campus” has been decided as this year’s theme. The conference will be held at the USU campus and the Presbyterian Church of Logan. This year’s guest speaker is Reverend Leroy King from Denver, Colorado.

“Court... (continued from page 1)”: The Court waived a motion to dismiss the first charge of the defense. However, ASUU chief justice Bud Billeter delayed judgement on Thursday’s hearing involving election rules violations. A special hearing will be held next week for more evidence to be presented.

“Bruckner, Mozart, Rossini Star in Tonight’s Concert”: A famous piece by Bruckner will be performed as the grand finale at the Utah Symphony’s concert tonight at the Tabernacle. The piece is Bruckner’s Romantic Symphony number 4 in E flat. Badura Skoda, a famous Austrian pianist, will be making his debut with the Utah Symphony tonight.

“‘Against’, Not ‘For’ Vote Chose Pres.”: Desert News Editor M. Demar Teuscher spoke about the upcoming presidential election on Wednesday. Teuscher discussed how most votes are being cast against Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy, but not for them. Teuscher said, “Many people are voting not for the issues, not for the flat form, not even for the candidates, but against one candidate.” Teuscher also discussed that the winning candidate will not win by a landslide.

List of Advertisements:

1. Diamond advertisement from Ken Anderson, Diamond Importer and Broker.
2. Adrien n’ Emilie’s advertisement for new ski apparel.
3. Caffe Continental advertisement for a Mustard Seed jazz concert tonight and Saturday.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 4, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 31

Page: 5

Articles:

“Alums Prepare Fact Book for Co-ordinating Council” by Dixie Taylor: For the first time, a Coordinating Council will be in operation to prepare the asking budgets for Utah’s universities to present them to the 1961 session of the state legislature. The University of Utah alumni created an informational brochure as a supplement to the Council’s report. The brochure contains current data on problems at the university, financial aid, educational statistics, enrollment and growth statistics and cultural life.

“U Represented at Residence Halls Confab”: The University of Utah Residence Hall Association will be sending 40 representatives to the Third Annual Residence Hall Convention of the Intermountain Residence Halls Association. The convention will be held at Utah State University on Friday and Saturday. The convention will have representatives from schools in 23 states including Utah, Nevada, Wyoming, Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Montana and New Mexico.

“Mary L. Marsh Nominee for Queen Position”: Mary Lynne Marsh is a sophomore, civil engineering student at the University of Utah. She is a member of the Chi Omega sorority, and is competing against four other engineering students for the queen title. The queen will be announced on November 12 at the Greek Hellenic Memorial Building.

“Lecture... (continued from page 1)”: Dr. Miller continued his lecture by explaining that the office of the president is shaped by the man who is currently holding the office. Dr. J. D. Williams, an associate professor of political science, spoke on the decisions the president is tasked with making. Dr. Williams believes the next president should show the nation a strong sense of leadership in the areas of civil rights, promoting economic growth both domestic and foreign and the space exploration age.

List of Advertisements:

1. KWIC radio station advertisement.
2. Saans Photography advertisement.
3. Al Heman’s Florsheim Shoe Shop advertisement with slogan, “For your convenience visit the Gay 90’s barbershop.”
4. ZCMI college section advertisement for coeds.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Mary L. Marsh

Issue Date: November 4, 1960

Volume: 70
Number: 31
Page: 6

Articles:

“People Notice Obnoxious Dates”: Women need to be well behaved around men while on dates. Women should stop their obnoxious back slapping, high heel kicking and loud laughing on dates. If women do this, men will continue to want to date them.

“Girls Take Last Word in Uteville Social World” by Diane Marler: Sorority women will have the chance to ask their favorite men to AWS’ “Jamaican Holiday” dance. The Tri-Delt women and their dates are attending a cocktail party prior to the dance. The Delta Gamma’s choice for “El toqui” is Gary Stauffer. The Alpha Chi Omega sorority hopes their nominee Jim Sattler will win. The Chi Omega’s will be throwing a “roaring twenties” themed party on Saturday night in Farmington, Utah.

“U Guys, Gals Exchange Pins”

List of Advertisements:

1. Car wash advertisement for November 5 at Sinclair gas station. Slogan is “Cute girls washing cars!!” No company listed as the sponsor.
2. The Terrace advertisement for a Guy Lombardo concert on November 4th and 5th.
3. Alan Frank Combo advertisement, available for event booking.
4. Sports Car Center advertisement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None.

Issue Date: November 7, 1960

Volume: 70
Number: 32
Page: 1

Articles:

“Drew Pearson Speaks Friday in Kingsbury Hall”: Drew Pearson, an adventurer and columnist, will speak at Kingsbury Hall on Friday November 8th at 8:15 p.m. The topic is his speech is “Washington Merry Go Round.” In addition to Pearson there will be two guest artists, Robert Traynor and Jan Peerce. Robert Traynor is an Associate Justice on the California Supreme Court and he will speak on Thursday at 8:15 p.m. in the Orson Spencer Hall. Traynor will be speaking on “Badlands in an Appellate Judge’s Realm of Reason.” Peerce, a famous Metropolitan Opera tenor, will be performing at the University Artists Series.

“Poll Places at Union, Library Posted”

“Cops Get Suspended Due to Coffee Break”

“Law-Abiding U Decreases Traffic Fines”: Parking ticket revenue for the 1959-1960 school year totaled $13, 483. This was a drop from last years $15,768 revenue. Students and faculty combined receive almost 6,000 citations per year, mostly due to parking in reserved spaces. The two officers who patrol the parking lots, officers Farnsworth and McGary, advise drivers to use caution in the parking lots due to over 27 reported this school year.

“’60 Greek Wave Theme— ‘Greeks Make News’”: The 1960 Greek Week will officially begin on November 12 and run through November 18. This year’s theme is “Greeks Make News,” and will feature news related activities and guest speakers. The events will feature a new guest speaker, Monday through Friday. The guest speakers are: H.F. Kretchman, Dr. Sterling W. McMurrin, Paul Banham, and Senator Wallace F. Bennett. On Friday, November 18, the Greek Week banquet will be held in the Union Ballroom with a dance after the banquet.

“Johnson Named “El Toqui” at Jamaican Dance”: Lambda Delta Sigma president, Rey Johnson, won the title of “el toque” or “the chief” at this year’s “Jamaican Holiday” dance. Johnson received the most votes. The dance was held in Union ballroom and was sponsored by the AWS Council.

“Zentner Musicians to Play for Dance”: Si Zentner and his orchestra will be performing at a dance sponsored by the Union dance committee on Friday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Zentner has performed with the Harry James, Les and Jimmy Dorsey orchestras. He has released two records titled, “A Thinking Man’s Band” and “Suddenly it’s Swing.”

“Campus Journalists Among Few Eligible for Contest”: University of Utah journalists are eligible to compete in the William Randolph Hearst Foundation fellowship. The fellowship awards prizes to journalists in the following areas, sports, features and editorials, and offers over $29,000 in awards. The University of Utah is one of a few universities in the Intermountain region that meets the requirements as an accredited journalism school.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Drew Pearson.
2. Photo of Jan Peerce.
3. Photo of Justice Robert J. Traynor.

Issue Date: November 7, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 32

Page: 2

Articles:

“Question: Why Should Young Voters Support Your Party in Tuesday’s Election?” by

Stephen R. Beck: Stephen Beck is the President of the Young Democratic Club at the University of Utah. Beck gives his views on why young voters should vote for the Democratic nominee, Senator John F. Kennedy, in the election. Beck discusses Democratic legislature, issues, the Democratic National Convention and the Democratic platform.

“Question: Why Should Young Voters Support Your Party in Tuesday’s Election?” by Mel

Beard: Mel Beard is the President of the Young Republican Club at the University of Utah. Beard discusses President Roosevelt and his New Deal platform as an example of a failing democratic party. Beard also discusses communism, World War I and II and the Korean War.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Classified Advertisements:

1. For sale advertisement for a '55 Plymouth Hardtop.
2. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Chevy, standard transmission, $350.
3. For sale advertisement for an electric range.
4. For sale advertisement for a 1952 Mercedes Benz, $600.
5. '54 2-door Plymouth Savoy for sale advertisement.
6. Stereo system for sale advertisement.
7. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Chevy, standard transmission, $350.
8. Smith-Corona portable typewriter for sale advertisement, $50.
9. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Oldsmobile Convertible.
10. Pre-season 50% off ski pass advertisement.
11. For sale advertisement for a 1959 Volkswagen.
12. For sale advertisement for a brand new 1960 Volkswagen, $1595.
13. For sale advertisement for a '55 four-door Chevy, $569.
14. Typing services advertised.
15. The Vibratones advertisement for event performing.
16. Manuscript typing services advertised.
17. Proof reading services advertised.
18. Wanted advertisement for transportation from Salt Lake City to San Francisco.
19. Wanted advertisement for a tot-tender on weeknights.
20. Wanted advertisement for work for young men 21 and older.
21. Roommate wanted advertisement for a non-smoking, female.
22. For rent advertisement for a 3-bedroom apartment.
23. For rent advertisement for a 3-bedroom apartment, fully furnished on Green St.
24. For rent advertisement for a furnished, private bedroom on 13th.
25. For rent advertisement for a 4-bedroom basement apartment, married adults—no children.
26. Roommate advertisement for a non-smoking and drinking girl to share room on U street.
27. Babysitting services advertised.
28. Lost advertisement for a green sweater lost in the OSH Auditorium.

29. Lost advertisement for a blue textbook and romantic poetry prose.
30. Lost advertisement for a handmade Indian sweater.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Political “pre ballot box” cartoon.

Issue Date: November 7, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 32

Page: 3

Articles:

“Mechanical Engies Pick Joy Erickson as Queen”: Joy Erickson, a freshman in the mechanical engineering program, was announced as the mechanical engineering nominee for queen. In addition to Erickson, there are five other women competing from each engineering division. The contest will be held at the Hellenic Memorial Building on Saturday night.

“Features About Home Living Center Told”: The Sterling W. Sill Home Living Center is a 6-week housing facility for young women who want to learn practical homemaking skills. The center, located on the east side of the University of Utah, has five, 2-bedroom apartments. The young women learn to cook, housekeeping skills and table etiquette.

“Lambda Delts Show Increase”: The LDS fraternity increased its numbers at the closing pledge ceremony last week. The Greeks added 286 new members combined. The Lambda men added 85 of the 286 with the women’s sororities accounted for 201 of the new members.

“Browning Room Music One to Collaborate”

List of Advertisements:

1. Ski fever advertisement, no company listed.
2. Bell Telephone Companies advertisement.
3. KALL radio advertisement.
4. “Calling ‘U’” advertisement.
5. “Vote for Nixon” advertisement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Joy Erickson
2. Photo of John Hulse

Issue Date: November 7, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 32

Page: 4

Articles:

“Easy! ’Skins Beat Rams in Ft. Collins, 27-6”: The University of Utah beat the Colorado State Rams on Saturday afternoon, 27-6. This win puts the Utes in a position for the Skyline Conference. The Rams played great during the first half, but began to falter in the second half when the Utes pulled ahead. The Utes have two conference games left to play on November 12 and November 19.

“Ags Defeat Wyoming but TV Doesn’t Care” by Marcellus Snow: The Utah State Aggies, who stand 8-0 after eight games, were not televised playing Wyoming last night. The Denver v. Air force game was televised instead. The Aggies are the highest ranked team going into the Skyline Conference.

List of Advertisements:

1. Olympia Typewriter advertisement.
2. Jockey brand briefs advertisement.
3. Blue Denim advertisement.
4. The Terrace advertisement for Brothers Four, Max Engman, George Jones and Webb Price.
5. “Litton Logic” advertisement from Litton Industries.
6. New York Opera Festival advertisement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Campus character: Black Tort cartoon

Issue Date: November 8, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 33

Page: 1

Articles:

“Student Voters”

“Participants Call for Prompt Delegates”

“Chemistry Seminar”

“University Enrollment Figures Released”: During the 1959-1960 academic year, 28,809 students were enrolled at the University of Utah. This report was provided by the registrar’s office and provided new statistics on grade point averages, men vs. women’s enrollment and the college/department enrollment figures. The registrar’s office reported higher grade point averages in the winter quarter for students. Also, there were more male than female students in this year. The Colleges of Letters and Science had the highest number of students while, Social Work had the smallest.

“U Engineering Magazine to be Sold”: The University of Utah’s engineering magazine “Utechnic” will be available for purchase tomorrow for 25 cents. The articles in “Utechnic” have been written by the chemical, civil, mechanical and electrical engineering departments, some students have contributed to the articles. The editor-in-chief for “Utechnic” is Larry Lockwood, Tom Johnson as editor, John Payne as business manager and H.K Glidden as the faculty advisor. The magazine will be available for purchase at all engineering seminars and in the mechanical engineering building 1001.

“AFROTC Ball to Give Free Trip Tickets”: The Arrow Space Anniversary Ball will be held at the Terrace on Friday at 9 p.m. The Ball is sponsored by the AFROTC in association with The Air Force Association. Trips to Acapulco and Las Vegas will be given away to some lucky winners who attend the dance.

“Student, Faculty Discussion Set, Initial ‘Sounding Board’ Meet Will Be Today”: A new student, faculty and administration group, Sounding Board, will have its first meeting on Tuesday at 4 p.m. in the Union Alumni Lounge. This first meeting will have no agenda, but will explore the purposes, structure and procedures of Sounding Board. Tuesday’s Sounding Board meeting will include these participants: Dr. A. Ray Olphin, University President; Neal A. Maxwell, assistant to the president; Paul W. Hodson, Business Vice President; Dr. Sterling W. McMurrin, Academic Vice President; Dr. William W. Blaesser, Dean of Students and Dr. Virginia P. Frobos, Dean of Women.

“3 Fellowship Programs Announced”: The National Science Foundation announced three, new fellowship programs for 1960-61. This includes one graduate, post-doctoral and senior visiting fellowships. These will be awarded in a variety of scientific fields and will only be awarded to U.S. citizens. The application deadline to be considered for a fellowship or grant is January 6.

“Final Tryouts Today for Song Leaders”: The final tryouts for song leader will take place today in Union room 321. Song leaders participate in football and basketball games. Students with last name A-M will have tryouts at 3:00 p.m. Those with last names N-Z will have tryouts at 4:00 p.m.

“Record Voting Expected; Hopefuls Finish Oratory” by United Press International: Brief news of the world. Monday night marked the final campaign activities for Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy as they prepared for the election on Tuesday. The New York bomber claimed the life of a 15-year-old girl and injured 18 others. Polls are expecting 65-69 million voters for the United States presidential election.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of John Bennion and Theron S. Parmalee.

Issue Date: November 8, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 33

Page: 2

Articles:

“Dead! Dead! Dead!”: Students have been wondering where the Chronicle has been in the wake of the presidential election. The Chronicle maintains a neutral stance because, the Chronicle is a student newspaper and voice of the campus so, its views should reflect campus opinion. This is why the Chronicle has not taken a stance during the 1960 presidential election.

“Letters to the Editor—Dick’s the Man!” by Linda Hazon: Hazon, in a letter to the editor, stated her belief that Mr. Nixon would make the better president. Hazon believes that Nixon is the leader to lead the United States through the Cold War. Hazon also stated that Nixon is qualified in domestic and foreign affairs which make him qualified for the presidency.

“Letters to the Editor—Hooray for JFK!” by Jerry Liston: Liston believes Kennedy is the best man for the presidency. Liston claims that Kennedy is more knowledgeable in international affairs and history. He believes Kennedy will correct the worsening relationship in our international affairs.

“This Week We Honor” by Julie Christensen: Marilyn Gillespie is this week’s student honoree. She is a senior at the University of Utah majoring in English and Minor in History. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Gillespie is a Salt Lake City native who also graduated from East High School in 1957.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Classified Advertisements:

1. For sale advertisement for a 1955 Plymouth Hardtop.
2. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Chevy, standard transmission, $350.
3. For sale advertisement for a used, electric range. Call for price.
4. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Oldsmobile Convertible.
5. For sale advertisement for a 1959 Volkswagen.
6. 1953 Chevy for sale advertisement with four doors and standard transmission for $569.
7. For sale advertisement for a brand new 1961 Webeer stereo recorder.

8. Typing services advertisement.
9. The Vibratones advertisement for event performance.
10. Manuscript typing, secretarial service advertisement.
11. Proof reading services advertisement.
12. Typing services advertised for graduate and undergraduate students.
13. Typing services advertised for theses, dissertations, research papers, manuscripts, etc.
14. Wanted advertisement for transportation to and from San Francisco for Thanksgiving.
15. Wanted advertisement for a sharp, young man 21-years-old or older for work.
16. Wanted advertisement for a mechanical draftsman to work during fall.
17. For rent advertisement for a housekeeping room close to campus.
18. For rent advertisement for a 3-bedroom apartment for $100 a month on Green St.
19. For rent advertisement for a private, furnished student apartment on 13th East.
20. Lost advertisement for a green sweater lost in the Orson Spencer Hall.
21. Lost advertisement for a handmade Indian sweater.
22. Help wanted advertisement for a young U couple to care for children in exchange for room and board.
23. German tutoring lessons advertisement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus cartoon.

Issue Date: November 8, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 33

Page: 3

Articles:

“Sociology Club Meet”

“India Dances to be Featured”: The Intercultural Arts Program studying the classical Indian dance, “Bharatanatyam of India,” will be performed on Wednesday. Savitri, a classical Indian dancer, will be performing various dance selections. Her public concert will be held on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Tanner Conservatory.

“Miss Anderson Nominee for Queen Position”: Bonnie Anderson, a junior in the Chemical Engineering department, has been chosen as their nominee for queen. Anderson is majoring in Elementary Education, and is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority. The winner will be announced on Saturday night.

“New Members Listed for Aquamaids”: The new members of the Aquamaids were initiated on Thursday. The initiates include: Nancy Bosse, Sherry Mullen, Barbara Walton, Lynne Walden, Cammy Cole, Mary Brewer, Terry Combe, Sydney Osterloh, Elaine Rich, Carolyn Sharp, Kristen Thomson and Donna Johnson. Additional new members include: Ingrid Hainke, Kathy Boggs, Joanne Harris, Colleen Sullivan, Jo Marie Christensen, Alice Olsen, Margie Arnold, Alice Gilbert, Kay Sullivan, Barbara Brown, Merl Taylor and Lynne Daniels.

“Employment Possibilities Offered by Border Patrol”: The U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Services will be holding an information session today at 9 a.m. in Park 106. The open position is immigration patrol inspector at the border. Applicants must be 20-years-old, have a valid driver’s license and a U.S. citizen.

“Concert Tickets”: Complimentary tickets to the sixth annual Veterans Day Concert are available at the Union desk. The concert is sponsored by the Utah National Guard. The concert will feature music from the 23rd Army Band.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Paris Alley advertisement for “Ivy League” white, corduroy pants.
2. The Paris Alley advertisement for “always in season” coat.
3. Hygeia Iceland advertisement.
4. “Dancing in the Union” advertisement.
5. New York Opera Festival Advertisement.
6. Calling ‘U’ advertisement.
7. Nixon and Lodge voting advertisement

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Bonnie Anderson.
2. Photo of Savitri.

Issue Date: November 8, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 33

Page: 4

Articles:

“Nofsinger is ‘Player of the Week’”: Terry Nofsinger, the first-string Utes quarterback, has been awarded player of the week. Nofsinger broke the Utes mediocre first-half performance against Fort Collins on Saturday when he threw a 17-yard pass to Joe Borich. Nofsinger’s passes were responsible for two of the four touchdowns against Fort Collins.

“F’Ball Tonight; Bowling List Shows Battles”: A championship football game was rescheduled on Monday night between Sigma Chi and Pi Kappa Alpha fraternities due to bad weather. Instead, the game will be held today at 4:30 p.m. The intramural bowling schedule was also released today.

“Coed Bowls 186, Captures Prize in Keg Tourney”: University senior Joyce Wanta won the Queen Pin Bowling Tournament in the Union last Saturday. She won two division trophies for her 186 score. Overall, she bowled a 445 series to win the tournament.

“Top Bowlers Plan Campus Show”: A special bowling exhibition will be held between November 14-15, featuring Buzz Fazio at the Union lanes. Fazio is one of the nation’s top-ten bowlers, and has played in various all-star tournaments. He was the captain of the Detroit Strohs and led them to three consecutive national team wins.

List of Advertisements:

1. Vote Sherman P. Lloyd advertisement.
2. Vaseline hair tonic advertisement, “two heads are better than one.”
3. Dancing in the Union advertisement.
4. Ski fever advertisement.

List of Classified Advertisements:

1. For sale advertisement for a brand new , 1958 Isetta.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Terry Nofsinger.

Issue Date: November 9, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 34

Page: 1

Articles:

“Clyde Gets Governorship; Other Races in Doubt”: In the wake of elections, the Democrats have the majority in Congress. John F. Kennedy is now the President-Elect of the United States. Governor George D. Clyde won the election in Utah by 30,000 votes.

“Supreme Court Justice to Talk Thursday” by Susan Woodland: California Associate Supreme Court Justice, Roger J. Traynor, will be giving the first William H. Leary lecture on Thursday at 8:15 p.m. in the Orson Spencer Hall auditorium. The theme of his lecture is “Badlands in an Appellate Judge’s Realm of Reason.” Traynor is a Utah native who studied at the University of California.

“Drew Pearson, Columnist to Address Students”: Drew Pearson, a news columnist, will be speaking to students on Friday at 8:15 p.m. in the Union Ballroom. His column, “Merry-Go-Round,” will be the theme of his lecture. Tickets can be obtained in the Orson Spencer Hall.

“Concert Ducats on Campus; In Chrony”: This year’s Veterans Day will be on Friday, and a special concert will be held at the Salt Lake Tabernacle. The concert is sponsored by the Utah National Guard. Tickets can be picked up at the Union Information Desk.

“Arafa Campus Foreign Student”: Gamal Arafa, Student Body President at the University of Cairo, is representing the Foreign Student Leadership Project at the University of Utah. The objective of the Foreign Student Leadership Project is to bring student leaders from foreign countries to participate in student government activities. University President John Bennion is excited to have Arafa here to participate in Executive Council meetings and student conferences.

“Culture Trends to Spotlight Africa Talks”: This week’s Thursday lecture will be held at 11 a.m. in Kingsbury Hall on the current state of Africa. The panelists will include: Warren Azevedo, visiting professor of Anthropology; Albert Fisher, professor of geography; and William Nutting, professor of education; and William Mudler associate professor of English. They will speak on cultural and educational aspects of Africa.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of President-Elect John F. Kennedy.
2. Photo of Gamal Arafa.
3. Photo of Governor Clyde.

Issue Date: November 9, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 34

Page: 2

Articles:

“Hail to the Chief...”: John F. Kennedy was elected as President of the United States last night. President Kennedy has a tough road ahead of him, but has asked for support during these trying times. The Chronicle wishes him success.

“Classic Comments...”: Ohio State University’s Lantern polled students on their knowledge of classic books. The poll found that Charles Darwin’s “The Origin of Species” was the most popular. This shows the focus on scientific education in schools.

“Worse?...”: The Chronicle issued an apology for switching the photos of Marilyn Gillespie and Bonnie Anderson.

“Michigan Calls for College Identification”: Michigan State University has called for students to identify with the college of their choosing at once, instead of waiting until enrollment. This would be considered early college enrollment. Michigan State University considers this to be an advantage for incoming college students.

“History Examination”

“Letters to the Editor—Rule Breakers” by Mahonri Faber: Faber wrote to the editor about a parking violation reserved for the maintenance division at the University of Utah. The car in question has been illegally parked for the last week. Faber has complained to the university, but has had no luck getting the car removed.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Classified Advertisements:

1. For sale advertisement for a 1955 Plymouth Hardtop.
2. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Chevy with standard transmission, $350.
3. For sale advertisement for a 1959 Volkswagen.
4. 1953 Chevy for sale advertisement with four doors and standard transmission for $569.
5. For sale advertisement for a brand new 1961 Webeer stereo recorder.
6. Typing services advertisement.
7. For sale advertisement for a gray, two-piece living room set.
8. For sale advertisement for a girls ski suit.
9. Anything in Diamonds whole sale advertisement.
10. The Vibratones advertisement for event performance.
11. Manuscript typing, secretarial service advertisement.
12. Proof reading services advertisement.
13. Babysitting services for two children advertised.
14. Typing services advertised for graduate and undergraduate students.
15. Typing services advertised for theses, dissertations, research papers, manuscripts, etc.
16. Wanted advertisement for a mechanical draftsman to work during fall.
17. For rent advertisement for a housekeeping room close to campus.
18. For rent advertisement for 2 ½ bedroom apartment.
19. For rent advertisement for a 3-bedroom apartment for $100 a month on Green St.
20. For rent advertisement for a private, furnished student apartment on 13th East.
21. Lost advertisement for a green sweater lost in the Orson Spencer Hall.
22. Lost advertisement for a handmade Indian sweater.
23. Help wanted advertisement for a young U couple to care for children in exchange for room and board.
24. German tutoring lessons advertised.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus cartoon.

Issue Date: November 9, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 34

Page: 3

Articles:

“Seminar Meet to Feature Tri-Program”: Three seminars will be held today for engineering students. The Chemical Engineering Graduate seminar, “Mass Transfer in Particulate Systems,” will be held in the Merrill Engineering Building room 1002, and will be conducted by Mr. Greeb. The Chemistry seminar will be conducted by Dr. Ralph Hill, the topic is “Butadiene as a Chemical Raw Material,” in room 104 of the Chemistry Building. The Meteorology Graduate seminar is going to be held in room 110 in Building 406. This seminar will be conducted by Dean Frey, and the topic is “The Effect of Insolation Upon the Dissipation of Stratus Clouds.”

“Food Machines Replace Snack Bar at Annex” by Dixie Taylor: The snack bar in the Annex has been replaced by 10 vending machines to provide additional space for the Biology department. A machine to change dollars to coins will also be installed soon. The installation of the vending machines is the universities way of keeping up with the vending cafeteria trend.

“Prof. Wormuth International Club Speaker”

“Engies Meet to Present Dr. Horsley”: The local chapter of the Institute of Radio Engineers, Sigma XI, will be traveling to Logan for a meeting on November 10. The meeting will be held at Utah State University Union Building room 226. Dr. Smoot Horsley will be speaking at the meeting on “Semiconductor Development and Devices”

“Madsen’s Orchestra to Entertain Ball”: The AMS-sponsored Fall Festival will feature Gary Madsen’s 17-piece orchestra. It will be held on November 19 at 8:30 p.m. in the Union Ballroom. The winner of “Most Preferred Women on Campus” will reign over this event.

“Electrical Engineers List Deanne Tanner as Queen”: Deanne Tanner, a junior at the University of Utah, has been selected as the Electrical Engineering departments queen nominee. Tanner is a nursing major and member of the Chi Omega sorority. The queen will be announced this Saturday.

List of Advertisements:

1. Calling ‘U’ advertisement.
2. Old Spice advertisement for a smooth shave, “Stays moist and firm to the end of your shave.”
3. Institute for American Universities advertisement for study abroad in France.
4. Sheraton Hotels advertisement for student discounts.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Deanne Tanner.
2. Photo of the new vending machines in the Annex.

Issue Date: November 9, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 34

Page: 4

Articles:

“Massive ‘Mural Pong Match Lists Revealed”

“I-M Bowling”

“Football Flick Ready for Showing Today”: Film from the Utes vs. Colorado game will be shown today in the Union Little Theater at 12:05 p.m. Ray Nagel will show and comment on the football film. Football film is shown every Wednesday afternoon following a weekend football game.

“Solitude, Brighton Lifts to Open”: Solitude and Brighton ski resorts have announced the opening of some lifts today. Zane Doyle of Brighton Resort announced he would operate his number two chairlift starting today. The owner of Solitude Resort, Bob Barrett, will operate the Poma-lift starting today as well.

List of Advertisements:

1. Coca-Cola advertisement.
2. Advertisement for the cum laude collection by Arrow.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Utes reserve quarterback Bill Cravens.

Issue Date: November 10, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 35

Page: 1

Articles:

“Press Conference”: A conference for the entire university student body was announced today. The conference is a joint endeavor between university President A. Ray Olphin and ASUU President John Bennion. They hope the conference will promote a better understanding between faculty and students.

“Traynor Will Deliver First Leary Lecture”: Associate Justice Roger J. Traynor of the Supreme Court of California will speak at the first William H. Leary lecture. The lecture is sponsored by the Utah chapter of the Order of Coif. The College of Law Dean, Dr. Daniel J. Dykstra, will bring in a prominent lawyer or jurist to speak at the lecture annually.

“Drew Pearson to Speak in Kingsbury”: Newspaper columnist Drew Pearson will be speaking to university students on Friday at 8:15 p.m. in Kingsbury Hall. A few weeks prior Pearson made a prediction in Salt Lake City that Senator John F. Kennedy would in fact win the presidency. Pearson is viewed as a controversial reporter.

“Zentner’s Band Provides Dance Music”: Si Zentner and his orchestra will providing the music for a dance in the Union Ballroom on Friday. Zentner is considered one of the top trombonists in the business. For the last two years he has been playing in a rehearsal band for pure enjoyment.

“ID Card Photos”

“Corps Ready Edition of Blood Drive”: The annual fall blood drive will be held Tuesday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The blood drive will be in the East Junior Ballroom in the Union. The blood drive is sponsored by the Army ROTC and Angel Flight.

“Apportionment Board Increases University’s Activity Budgets”: The apportionment board voted on Wednesday to increase the University’s activity budget to $162,565, a $6,965 increase from last year. However, $4,486 of those funds came from the reserve of last year’s budget. ASUU treasurer Gary Brockbank stated the reason for a decrease in funds is from a slight increase in enrollment, but a decrease in faculty purchasing event tickets.

“Class Officer Proposal Investigated”: The ASUU Executive Council proposed the abolition of class officers. Due to differing opinions on the matter it was not presented at Wednesday’s Senate hearing. Class officers will be meeting with the Executive Council today to discuss their roles.

“Thursday Talk Puts Africa in Educational Spotlight”: Dr. William Mulder, Director of the Center for Intercultural Studies, will be moderating a discussion titled, “Africa’s Winds of Change.” This program will feature multiple panelists discussing cultural and educational aspects of change in Africa. Additional panelists include: Warren Azevedo, visiting professor of Anthropology; Albert Fisher, professor of geography; and William Nutting, professor of education.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Gary Brockbank.
2. Photo of Si Zentner.
3. Photo of Dr. William Mulder.

Issue Date: November 10, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 35

Page: 2

Articles:

“A Closer Look...”: An editorial writing student voiced criticism for the new Sounding Board, who held its first meeting Tuesday. The student believes there is still a gap between the University and its students. The student also criticized the Sounding Board’s members which include: faculty, ASUU, the Greeks and publications.

“Policy Change Seen by Papers” by United Press International: Newspapers across the world have been headlining the recent election of United States President John F. Kennedy. A Roman Catholic spokesman stated the election results show a religious tolerance in the United States. The Japanese major political parties viewed the election as a “good omen” for them. The West German Social Democratic Party saw Kennedy’s win as a “rejuvenation of American policy.”

“Letters to the Editor”

“Excusals Listed by Pres. Olphin”

“Ike Wires J.F.K.”: President Eisenhower sent his congratulations to newly elected President John F. Kennedy via telegram on Wednesday. The telegram said, “My congratulations to you for the victory you just won at the polls.” Earlier that day President Eisenhower held a cabinet meeting to discuss turning things over to the Kennedy administration.

List of Advertisements:

1. KUER radio schedule.

List of Classified Advertisements:

1. For sale advertisement for a 1955 Plymouth Hardtop.
2. For sale advertisement for a 1953 Chevy with standard transmission, $350.
3. For sale advertisement for a 1959 Volkswagen.
4. 1953 Chevy for sale advertisement with four doors and standard transmission for $569.
5. For sale advertisement for a brand new 1961 Webcar stereo recorder.
6. For sale advertisement for a '53 TR3, red with black top. Call with offer.
7. Typing services advertisement.
8. For sale advertisement for a gray, two-piece living room set.
9. For sale advertisement for a girls ski suit.
10. For sale advertisement for a '59 Karmann Ghia.
11. For sale advertisement for '51 Ford in excellent condition.
12. Anything in Diamonds whole sale advertisement.

13. The Vibratones advertisement for event performance.
14. Manuscript typing, secretarial service advertisement.
15. Proof reading services advertisement.
16. Babysitting services for two children advertised.
17. Typing services advertised for graduate and undergraduate students.
18. Typing services advertised for theses, dissertations, research papers, manuscripts, etc.
19. Wanted advertisement for a mechanical draftsman to work during fall.
20. For rent advertisement for a housekeeping room close to campus.
21. For rent advertisement for 2 ½ bedroom apartment.
22. For rent advertisement for a 3-bedroom apartment for $100 a month on Green St.
23. For rent advertisement for a private, furnished student apartment on 13th East.
24. Lost advertisement for a green sweater lost in the Orson Spencer Hall.
25. Lost advertisement for a handmade Indian sweater.
26. Help wanted advertisement for a part-time service attendant on Foothill Drive.
27. German tutoring lessons advertised.
28. Personal advertisement from a woman seeking a 6'3" man, 23-years-old and having a professional position at work.
29. Personal advertisement addressed to "Cute Blond."

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus cartoon.

Issue Date: November 10, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 35

Page: 3

Articles:

"Nina Mugleston Chosen By Ceramic Engineers": Nina Mugleston is sophomore at the University of Utah majoring in fashion merchandising. Mugleston is also a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mugleston has been chosen by the ceramic engineers as their nominee for queen. The queen will be announced on Saturday.

"Postdoctoral Fellowships Announced": Postdoctoral fellowship opportunities have been announced by the National Academy of Sciences. These fellowships are offered to promising students that will have the opportunity to work with highly qualified scientists. Applicants will be evaluated by a committee of scientists.

"Discussion Slated by Fellowship"

"Chinese Film Shown"

"Mayor Lee to Speak"

“Contemporary Music Styles Star in Banham Concert”: Paul Banham will be performing on Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Union Ballroom. This performance is sponsored by At Home, a student organization with the purpose of making students feel “at home.” Banham will examine contemporary phases of today’s music in Sunday’s performance.

“Math and Missile Seminars Today”: Two seminars will be held today for students interested in math and missiles. Assistant professor of mathematics, Dr. Ronald Bzoch, will be speaking on “Sigma-mean Steiltjes Integral,” in the mathematics colloquium room 212 from 4-5 p.m. The second seminar will be presented by Dr. John Clegg from Autonetics Inc. and will feature a film about missiles. This seminar will be held in the Mechanical Engineering Building room 2039 at 3:30 p.m. today.

“Commercial Art Show at Art Center”: The art department will feature an exhibit of commercial illustrations by Leonard Wisegard beginning on Saturday until November 26. The exhibition will be held in the Art Center and can be seen daily from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Wisegard is most known for his illustrations for children’s books.

“Cosmopolitan Club”

List of Advertisements:

1. Calling ‘U’ advertisement.
2. Chrony classifieds advertisement.
3. Ashtonian advertisement, “Home of the big Schooner.”
4. Advertisement for the new Circle A Drive-In on the Hyland Strip.
5. United States Air Force advertisement, “There’s a place for tomorrow’s leaders on the Aerospace Team.”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Nina Muggleston.
2. Photo of Paul Banham.

Issue Date: November 10, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 35

Page: 4

Articles:

“Intramural Pong List, Continued”

“Skyline Summary”

“MSU Game Outcome Stays Question Mark”: The University of Utah football team is set to play the Montana State University Grizzlies this Saturday. Fresh off a win against Colorado state, the Utes are unsure about their upcoming teams strength. The Grizzlies recently lost to BYU and Wyoming, but beat Colorado and Idaho State.

List of Advertisements:

1. Mednick’s advertisement to meet Playboy playmate Susan Scott.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Susan Scott.