

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Gianna Cefalu

Issue Date: November 11, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 36

Pg: 1

Articles:

“Versatile Jan Peerce to Sing Saturday”

“Drew Pearson to Address Utes Tonight”: National columnist Drew Pearson will speak tonight on his syndicated column “The Washington Merry- Go-Round.” He is scheduled to speak at 8:15 pm in the Union Ballroom. The title caused controversy within the nation’s capital, as the published a sequel “More Merry-Go-Round” resulted in Pearson’s dismissal from the Baltimore Sun.

“NSA President Appears Today”: National Student Assn. President Richard Redding will hold a meeting in the Union Board Room at 2 pm. There will be delegates from five Utah colleges attending to evaluate where Time stands on the NSA’s policies and to decide if affiliation should be continued. NSA has been accused of avoiding direct concern with students, but Redding will be there to defend the national officers.

“Cosmopolitan Club Features Speaker”

“Parking Blocked”: The construction of the new bookstore causes parking east of the Geology Building to be blocked off. The Traffic Committee announced a position in it’s membership. All applications are due to Bob Bradford no later than 4 pm Monday in the ASUU office.

“Ute Defendants Acquitted in Student Court”: Defendants were cleared from a charge on Thursday that stated they were disobeying the rules under the election bill of the ASSU Constitution. Jack Shoenhals of the defense team argued that the bill is invalid because it wasn’t published within the five day limit. The elections bill approved on Jan. 28 didn’t appear in the Chronicle until about a week later. ASUU second vice president Steve Brockbank described how every eligible candidate was required to have this information.

“Browsing Room Slates Music Fare”: Music 1 has required listening selections to be played in the Union Browsing Room on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m and on Thursdays from 5 p.m to 7 p.m. The program is designed to allow students to access mandatory selections after Music Hall hours.

“Fall Festival Featured By AMS Sponsors”: On Nov. 19, the Fall Festival sponsored by AMS will be held in the Union Ballroom at 8:30 pm. Gary Madsen’s orchestra as well as AMS’s “The Most Featured Girl on Campus” will be crowned. Queen hopefuls and sponsors include a wide range of women from different sororities. The winner will be announced, and the program will be performed by the Beta Theta Pi Quartet.

“House Project to Schedule Open Viewing”: The new housing project for married students called “University Village” will be open to the public on Sunday from 2-4 pm. The contractors are building ahead of schedule, meaning there will be 56 one bedroom and 35-two bedroom units available. The project is expected to be done by June 1, 1961. Each building will have a park area as well as a play area for both children and adults.

“Veterans Concert Set for Tonight”: A Veteran’s Day Concert will be held at the Salt Lake Tabernacle at 8:15 pm. Complimentary tickets are available for pickup at the Union, Chronicle Office, or Kingsbury Hall.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 11, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 36

Pg: 2

Articles:

“A Fair Hearing”: National Student Association Pres. Richard Retting arrives on campus to talk about the future of the NSA in Utah. The main reason why students are dissatisfied with the NSA is from the lack of concern for student government and educational issues. The NSA has also withdrew from other schools, including the University of Colorado. Retting will have a fair hearing, but the third and final strike isn’t definitive.

“Letters to the Editor”: A student voiced disapproval of the ‘Sounding Board.’ The first critique was that it wasn’t an informal student get together, and it’s invalid due to the failure of keeping it to a group of university students. The lack of representation is also a major concern, with only one representative from the Union Board.

“A God or Clod?”: United States columnist Drew Pearson is scheduled to speak at 8:15 pm in Kingsbury Hall. The students and staff will be able to gain insight into a glamorize profession. There are a wide range of opinions on him, including an intellectual, a politician, or a god or cod. Despite the thoughts of university students, the makeup of Pearson is unknown, but his presence will be extremely telling.

“ASUU Execs Hear Class Officers Defend Roles”: Representatives from all four classes met with ASUU Executive Council on Thursday to talk about their roles and abolition. The general feeling was that class officers roles aren’t clearly explained. Freshmen secretary Kathryn Cannon explained how freshmen don’t know their responsibilities when elected. Mary Kay English, freshmen treasurer, also expressed concern that her opinions wouldn’t represent the freshmen class.

List of Advertisements:

1. A list of items are advertised. The slogan is “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”
2. For sale items are mostly cars that include a Chevy, Volkswagen, Fiat 600
3. Services are advertised including printing, writing, and music
4. Rooms are available to rent close to the University of Utah
5. Wanted advertisements include puppies and rooms for rent
6. Personal adds such as diamonds
7. Travel ad promotes NSA sponsored student program to Latin America and East Africa
8. Another advertisement is promoting music on campus. The slogan reads “Take Your Date After Drew to See... Si Zentner Tonight 9 p.m-1 a.m”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. The cartoon is titled “Little Man on Campus.” It shows a football player trying to tackle the head coach, while the rest of the team is on the sidelines. The caption under the cartoon reads “Nonsense, we’re all a little nervous the first time we get out there to play.”

Issue Date: November 11, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 36

Pg: 3

Articles:

“Society Keeps Whirlwind Dates”: A variety of events are happening around the weekend with sororities and fraternities across campus. Sigma Chi sweetheart will be announced, and the Kappa Sigs will throw an embassy party. Lambda Chi Alpha crowns their pledge princess on Friday night, and the SAEs will honor their initiates at the Memorial Grove dance.

“Theme of Lambda Delta Ceres, Harvest Goddess”: The Institute of Religion hosts Lambda Delta under the eyes of Ceres, goddess of harvest at 8:30 pm. Musical stereo tapes will be played to project sounds to dance to. The Virginia Tanner Dancers will be dancing during intermission.

“Pinnings”: A few marriages within Greek Row have been recorded this week. Phi Mu Linda Grey got engaged to Ray Manion. Ranaee Rowan and Gloria Evans, both AD Pis, also received diamonds from two fraternity men.

Lists of Advertisements:

1. Events at The Terrace are advertised. Some slogans include “Brothers Four” and “Ksop Grand Ole Opry George Jones, Webb Pierce”
2. Tailored Jackets are advertised. The slogan reads “Mullet Kelley Presents Lynbrooke by Field + Stream”
3. Union Movies are advertised. The slogan is “The World, the Flesh, and the Devil.” The UUU Little Theatre presents “La Strada”
4. Sports Car Centre is advertised. America’s big three is included: MG’s, Austin-Healey, and Morris

Lists of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 11, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 36

Pg: 4

Articles:

“Zentner Band to Give Liltng Evening Music”: The Union Ballroom is hosting Si Zentner and his orchestra from 9 p.m to 1 a.m. Tickets are sold for $2.50 per couple at the Orson Spencer Hall lobby. Zentner started his band for fun, but then turned professional in 1959. Zentner has been musical since he was four years old when he took his first violin lessons.

“Shultz Slates Speeches on Labor Forces”: Prof. George Shultz from the University of Chicago School of Business will speak at the Union today. Shultz will talk about changing the labor force for unions and management. Faculty will add the class periods with lectures during the three day duration of meetings. The professors who are lecturing include Robert Smith and Joseph Peery of the economics department, as well as Neff Smart from journalism.

“Art Professor to Exhibit Own Paintings”: Associate professor of art V. Douglas Snow will show 15 contemporary paintings on Sunday at 2 p.m in the Union. The paintings have all been made recently, with the exception of one. Snow’s goal is to resist the temptation of a cliché solution. The reception will also be held at the Union from 2 to 4 p.m.

“Positions Open for Members of Committees”: Mr. Lewis Hayes, University Director of Housing, announced three open positions on the Student-Faculty Off-Campus Housing Committee. The positions include chairmen for Married Students, Confab, and Research and Evaluation committees. Applications can be turned into Bob Bradford in the ASUU office.

List of Advertisements:

1. “The Racquet Shop” The Grand Opening is on November 11 at 10 am.
2. A free drawing is advertised, with a chance to win a gift certificate and shoe certificate. The name, address, and phone is on a slip of paper to enter.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. None

Issue Date: November 11, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 36

Pg: 5

Articles:

“AFROTC Set Aero Space Anniversary”: The Air Force ROTC will be working alongside The Air Force Association to present the AeroSpace Anniversary. The Ball will be held at the Terrace at 9 p.m. Tickets are sold for $1, with door prizes awarding a 10 day trip to Mexico.

“Lasses Vie for Queen of Engineer Oyster Stew”: The Engineers’ annual “Oyster Stew” Saturday consists of the winners of the beard growing contest and the crowning of the Engineering Queen. There are six candidates for queen, and their sponsors including Geological Engineering, Chemical Engineering, and Civil Engineering.

“Oriental Dinner Set”:

“Greeks Await Start of Festive Week”: The theme for Greek Week is “Greeks Make News.” Some of the speakers for this event include Salt Lake Tribune editorial writer H.F Kretchman, and University Academic Vice President Paul Banham. There are special events happening throughout the week, including the all-greek Exchange, and the Lambda Chi Alpha pushcart races.

“Sunday Music to Include Varied Agenda”: Paul Banham of the University music department is holding an “At Home” concert at 3 p.m in the Union Ballroom. Some performances include singers Jewel Johnson Cutler and Jean Preston. The concert is meant to make students feel that the campus is their home.

“Anthro Professor Tells About Indians”: Dr. Leslie A. White is an anthropologist at the University of Michigan, and is speaking at the Orson Spencer Hall at 1 p.m on “Anthropology and the Science of Culture.” He is an American authority on Indians on the Rio Grande Region. He’s edited journals and volumes on the Pueblo Indian.

List of Advertisements:

1. Anything in Diamonds Wholesale Prices is advertised. Ken Anderson is bolded as a diamond importer and broker.
2. Peter Sellers is advertised. The slogan reads ‘The Battle of the Sexes’ at the Tower Theatre.
3. Congenial church is advertised. The slogan is “Unitarian” on 569 South 13th East.
4. A musical band is advertised. The slogan is “Joe Botbol Trio at the Mustard Seed”.
5. The O.S.H and U.U.U advertise music. The slogan reads “See Si Tonight”.
6. A young white woman advertises lotion. The slogan reads “Keep Your Complexion Beautifully Clear with Creme K Lotion”.
7. Shoes for Men advertises Free Bongos at the Oxford Shop.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 11, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 36

Pg: 6

Articles:

“Kurzwengen”: The sports desk at the Chronicle spent the day skiing at Brighton and Solitude. Both resorts offer beginner and expert runs, with only 10 to 15 inches of snow. Ski instructors will receive lessons on how to teach skiers under the supervision of Doris Johnson. Instructors should also keep Snow Basin into consideration because of their excellent runs and good snow conditions. The Chronicle makes it clear to readers that they aren't biased when covering winter sports.

“Utes Should Beat MSU Saturday”: The Montana State Grizzlies will face off against the University of Utah Redskins on Saturday at 1:30 p.m at Ute Stadium. The Grizzlies have put up a 5-3 record thus far, and came within two points of the Utah State Aggies. Montana is unpredictable, while Utah has multiple players sidelined with injuries. Utah players that are sidelined include Jerry Overton, Eddie Kawano, and Bill Howard, forcing coach Ray Nagel to adjust his backfield. The player adjustments can increasing the passing play.

“Swim Program Planned by WRA Sponsor”: The theme of the WRA swim meet is “Knight in the Deep.” The meet will be held on Nov. 17 at 7 p.m in the women's gym. All students who are interested in swimming are encouraged to sign up. Any questions or concerns should be dealt to Ann Mckee or Connie Abegglen.

List of Advertisements:

1. Bowling is advertised, and in the shape of an owl. The slogan reads “Nite Owl Bowlers Save  $\frac{1}{3}$  at Rancho.”
2. Naughty Pine Room and Cairo's Coffee House are advertised. The description includes modern bar facilities and cozy decor.
3. A.M.S Fall Festival is advertised. It's $2.00 per couple on Nov. 19.
4. House of Pizza is advertised. Steaks, chicken, and fried shrimp are also mentioned.
5. KWIC Radio is advertised, and includes a list of the album station.
6. “Sporthaus... you know” is advertised.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 14, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 37

Pg: 1

Articles:

“Bennion Favors New Delegates”: Utah delegates have agreed to remain in the National Student Association. A “Bennion Plan” was enforced by former Utah student body president John Bennion to make sure delegates can be sent to Congress. NSA President Dick Retting said the purpose of NSA is to give a voice to the community of Universities across America. There is still concern over the NSA taking stands on political issues that disagree with the delegates.

“U Blood Drive Opens Thursday”: The fall blood drive starts on Tuesday in the Union East Junior Ballroom at 10 a.m. Drive chairman's Linda Goodyear and Linda Peterson's goal is to have 450 pints of blood donated. Blood donors must be at least 110 pounds and 18 years old. Physicians on duty will determine whether or not students with past illness or allergies are eligible to give blood. Student donors will receive blood from the Red Cross Blood Bank for free.

“AMS Dancers to Crown Professor Snarf”: One professor will be crowned as “Professor Snarf” at the AMS Fall Festival on Saturday in the Union Ballroom. His behavior is characterized as “Little Man on Campus.” There are 13 professors nominated for the award that range from all different departments. The tickets for the dance are sold for $2 per couple. Music will be provided by Gary Madsen's 17 piece orchestra.

“Anthropologist White Sets Indian Lecture”: Dr. Leslie A. White will speak on anthropology and the science of culture in Orson Spencer Hall Auditorium at 1 p.m. Dr. White is currently a Fellow at the Center for Advanced Study in Behavioral Sciences at Stanford University. He's been a visiting professor at numerous universities, including Yale and Harvard.

“Classic Artist Sets Concert”: Savitri is an Indian dancer that will perform at the Conservatory of Creative Dance on 15 East North Temple. Most dance selections will pertain to the Indian culture. Tickets will be sold by sponsors Extension Division and the Center for Intercultural Studies. The Library now displays jewelry worn by the dancers.

“Future U Bookstore Begins Construction”: Construction for the new University Bookstore will begin this week. The projected opening date will be at the beginning of next fall quarter. The Bookstore will have much larger parking areas for students than what the present bookstore has.

“Sound Off Topic”: The controversial topic for today's session for Sound Off is “Communism in Fraternities and Sororities?” The discussion will be held in the IK room at noon. Diane Schlekman, Sound Off chairman, encourages students who are interested to attend the discussion.

“Special Edition”: The University kicks off Greek Week today. The Greeks invaded the Chronicle on Friday. According to Chrony staffer Marcellus Snow, the Greeks have put out an exclusive four page Greek section.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 14, 1960*Volume: 70*No: 37*Pg: 2*Articles:

“Too Many Cooks”: The University of Utah decided to stay in the National Student Association, despite violent objections by the executive office. Student Keith Anderson argued to staying in the NSA for basic moral responsibility. The Bennion Plan has serious flaws, including selecting three delegates. The idea of having too many cooks in the kitchen applies to cooking the soup of student government.

“Olpin Announces Contemporary Music Festival”: Pres. Ray A. Olpin announced the Second Annual Festival of Contemporary Music partnered with the Utah Symphony Orchestra. There will be three concerts, with the first one on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m in Kingsbury Hall. Tickets are available at the Extension Division, Annex 107, and the Utah Symphony Office. Anyone outside the university are also invited to attend and hear the compositions.

“Pearson Talks on Incoming Kennedy Administration”: Drew Pearson spoke in Kingsbury Hall on Friday regarding his views on the presidential election and his concerns with the Kennedy Administration. He stated that Kennedy won the election because of the religious division of Catholics and Protestants. Pearson is predicting that Nixon will run for president again. Predictions of the new president were made that he will be fiscally conservative.

List of Advertisements:

1. Chronicle Classified Ads are listed. Ads include: cars for sale, services for proofreading, rooms for rent, wanted listings such as puppies, help wanted with part time jobs, personal such as diamonds, and traveling with NSA.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 14, 1960*Volume: 70*No: 37*Pg: 3

Articles:

“Lewis Books Arrive at Ute Library”: The University Library announced the arrival of manuscripts and papers of the B. Rowland Lewis books. Some of his manuscripts include Shakespeare, poetry, and one act plays. The Present Utah Room has no available space, but a new library would feature his work on display for the public.

“Pen Literary Magazine Appoints Eight Members”: The new eight appointed members of the Pen Literary Magazine will be published near the end of the quarter. According to editor Kay Mengers, applicants are chosen based on their ability to write critiques of manuscripts. The deadline for contributions is Nov. 25.

“Traffic Committee”:

“Med Library Receives Heart Volume”: A copy of “Diagnosis of Congenital Heart Disease” was received by the Medical Library. The gift was a memorial for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deverle Willey who was a victim of congenital heart disease. The university librarian said that they are grateful for the gift, and such a memorial is of great value.

“A.F Reveals Selection of Two Leaders”: The Air Force ROTC selected Guenther W. Kaiser as Cadet Commander and William G. Swiler as Deputy Cadet Commander. Both men have a wide range of traveling experience. Kaiser was born in Germany, and then graduated from Murray High School. Swiler went to elementary school in Denver but went to high school in Duluth, Minn.

“Soph Honorary Pledges Three Girls”: Alpha Lambda Delta is an honorary sorority that held its initiation breakfast on Sunday at 10 a.m. in Harmon’s Cafe. Girls must have a 3.5 average or above to maintain their membership. French instructor Mrs. Renee Leise was introduced as their new sponsor. According to President Linda Goodyear, ALD’s project is to Salt Lake City attain a new library.

“Tarahumar Indians Topic of Seminar”: The autumn evening seminar is extended to Wednesday in the Faculty Lounge at 8 p.m. The event is sponsored by the Division of Biological Sciences and the Phi Sigma Biological Fraternity. Dr. Campbell W. Pinnington’s talk is titled “The Tarahumar Indians of Northwestern Mexico.”

List of Advertisements:

1. ASIS European Safari is advertised. The slogan reads “3000 Summer Jobs in Europe”

2. Prudential Federal Savings is sponsored by “The Sound of Miles Davis” on the Robert Herridge Theater. KSL-TV Ch. 5 is broadcasting the event on Monday, November 14 at 10:30 p.m.
3. Different jobs at the U are advertised. The slogan reads “Calling U” and includes union staff, publicity committee, and panhellenic.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 14, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 37

Pg: 4

Articles:

“Utah Dumps Montana, Scans Aggieland”: The Redskins beat out the Montana State Grizzlies 16-6 in a gruesome weather battle. There were standout performances on Utah’s side of the ball, including reverse halfback Stan Uyeshiro, and ends Tom Jones and Marv Fleming. The Redskins struck first with a 9-0 start heading into halftime. The Grizzlies defense continued to struggle in the second half, as the Redskins put together a 40 yard drive to put the game at 16-0. The Grizzlies finally scored in the fourth quarter, but it wasn’t enough to overcome their deficit.

“Ute Greenlings Lose to Strong Cougar 11”: Utah fell short to a talented Brigham Young University football team 22-16. The depth of BYU’s bench as well as their strength gave the BYU greenlings the edge over a hard fought win.

“Jack Saved his Company $10,000 on his First Assignment”: Jack Trabert had a B.S in Business Administration at the University of Nebraska when he decided to join Northwestern Bell. He handled long distance calls at night that resulted in a $10,000 saving. Jack continues to plan and develop telephone facilities to keep up with Omaha’s high demand of long distance services.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Olympia Typewriter is advertised. The slogan reads “Check the Advantages”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 14, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 37

Pg: 5

Articles:

“Marathon Runner Proclaims Greek Week”: The official opening ceremony of Greek Week was on Saturday during halftime of the Utah-Montana football game in Ute Stadium. Three nominees for the fraternity pledge award ran a shortened marathon across the field. The All-Greek Exchange is tonight, featuring Interfraternity Conference Chairman Roland Maxwell. Maxwell will be speaking on “The Future of the Fraternity System.” The emphasis on this year’s Greek Week is improving the fraternity system as a whole and giving a fair representation of the overall greek system.

“Communication:”

“Senator, Profs to Speak at Daily Lyceums”: Five authorities in their respective fields will speak at a series of lyceums, which are held during Greek Week. One of the authorities Mr. Kretchman will talk about “Challenges of the 60’s: to the Field of Communication.” Senator Bennett will also discuss “The challenge to Government in the 60’s.”

“Fraternity Head is Dinner Orator”: Mr. Roland Maxwell will speak at the annual Greek Week Banquet on Friday evening at the Union. Mr. Maxwell shows an exceptional service record, including being the president of his fraternity Phi Kappa Tau. He was debate captain, active in campus affairs, and went to law school at USC. He also served as the president of California Junior Chamber of Commerce.

“Chronicle’s Addition Begins Greek Week”: This special section is the first time Greek Week is promoted in the Chronicle. The Greek Week committee directs it both to the independent and affiliated student.

“Displays in Ballroom to be Shown Friday”: Sub-chairman Nancy Folland announces displays of fraternity and sorority life in the Union Ballroom on Friday afternoon. The purpose of the displays are to educate those who aren’t affiliated with the greek system by including details and ideals of fraternity life.

“Challenges”:

List of Advertisements:

1. A list of the “Week’s Schedule” is advertised. Events include All-Greek Exchange, and the numerous lyceum’s throughout the week.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 14, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 37

Pg: 6

Articles:

“Greek-Centered ‘Great Debate’- IFC Chieftain Defends System”: The advantages of fraternity men can only be described by those who experience the true value of brotherhood. One advantage of brotherhood is that a man will accept and appreciate different values and ideas from his brothers. Another value is handling adversity and problems within the chapter, which helps a student’s academic training. The two biggest misconceptions with fraternity life is exclusiveness and preoccupation with social affairs. With all things considered, no fraternity can defend itself it’s judged more my failings than accomplishments.

“Greeks Edge Independents in Campus Grad Figures”: Fraternities and sororities at the University of Utah have higher average scholarships than their independent counterparts. The Interfraternity Council are recently making it more difficult for unpromising students to go through fraternity rush, and pleading or becoming active in a fraternity. Freshmen who wish to rush now need a 2.5 high school average. In addition, the Greek community encourages high scholastic standing from their members.

List of Advertisements:

1. “The Fisher” radio is advertised. The slogan reads “Buy it at the House of Music.”
2. Collections of classical records are advertised, including hard to get masterpieces and paperback books. Readers can buy them at Frost’s Book & Record Shop.
3. Paperback books are listed and advertised, including science, history, and mathematics. Readers can buy them at Zion’s Book Store.
4. McKay Jewelry Co. is advertised. The slogan is “Remounting our Speciality Headquarters for Fraternity Jewelry.”

List of Cartoons & Art:

1. The cartoon is titled “Little Man on Campus.” It shows two girls standing and looking out to a man who appears to be in a carriage. Underneath the cartoon, it reads: “Why, Freda, you didn’t tell you had a date with a fraternity man!”

Issue Date: November 14, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 37

Pg: 7

Articles:

“Greeks to Frolic Tonight in Special Union Exchange”: The All-Greek exchange is run by Greek Week sub-chairmen Pat Beane and Ed Heyes. The exchange takes place at the Union Ballroom at 7:30 p.m. Fraternities will pick up sororities and escort them to the event. The sub-chairman announced that the ballroom will be decorated in large Greek letters. Outstanding pledge finalists from three sororities and fraternities will be introduced during intermission.

“Affiliated Grads Make Marks on Wide World”: The purpose of Greek Week is to shatter stereotypes of being a social club and beerdrinking societies. A number of prominent individuals have been affiliated with greek life during their college days. The current president of the United States, Dwight Eisenhower, was a pledge of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Richard L. Evans, a prophet of the LDS Church, is an active member of Pi Kappa Alpha.

“Greek Week Officials Kindle Midnight Oil”: Greek Week is made possible by the hundreds of hours put in by the Greek Week committee over the past several months. Co-chairmen Ross Anderson was selected to be Interfraternity Council and Suzanne Forsberg as Panhellenic. The daily lyceums are under the responsibility of co-chairmen Sharon Thomas and Ralph Thompson. Publicity for Greek Week is run by Phil Pugsley.

“University Program to Scan Fraternities”: University of Utah program KUED titled “Retrospect” is a weekly feature on Channel 7 directed to the student body. The program will be presented on Wednesday featuring Greek Week. The topic will be “Greek Situation and Problems.”

“Want More?”:

List of Advertisements:

1. Al Holman’s Florsheim Shoe Shop is advertised. The slogan reads “Largest Selection of Fine Florsheim Shoes in the Nation.”
2. “This Week in the Union” is advertised. Listed events include Square Dance, Folk Song, and Sound Off.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 14, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 37

Pg: 8

“Rush Week, Pledge Time Important for Fraternities”: The scholastic standing of rushees are checked prior to going through rush. Then he goes through an orientation with Interfraternity Council officials and goes through all the houses on campus. The intensity of rush increases when rushees narrow their lists down. A vote is taken by the houses, and those who pass are invited to their bid dinners. The pledgship period lasts about a quarter, and is introduced to the standards and traditions of his fraternity.

“Six Selected as Finalists for Pledge Award”: Each Greek chapter on campus submitted their votes for the Outstanding Pledge Award. The six finalists are: Roger Pool, Pi Kappa Alpha; Mike Allem, Kappa Sigma; Jim Moss, Sigma Chi; Margo Taylor, Alpha Chi Omega; Christine D’are, Delta Gamma; Diane Robards, Alpha Delta Pi. The award is based on high school accomplishments, including activities and grades.

“Friday Bridge Tourney Open to All Entrants”: The Greek Week Bridge Tournament will be held on Friday at 2 p.m. in the Union Board Room. There is no limit for the amount of teams, but there will be play-offs so that the best teams are entered. Entry fee is $1 and needs to be paid to Connie Rodman at the Phi Mu house, 1415 Butler Ave by tomorrow. The purpose of the tournament is to give the greek houses a rare opportunity to play bridge with each other.

“Reception to Honor Greek Week Speaker”: Ronald Maxwell will be honored at a reception prior to his Greek Banquet address. The reception starts at 5:30 p.m on Friday in Union 203. Co-chairmen Ralph Marsh Jonette Hales will host the reception of Mr. Maxwell.

“Lambda Chis Stage Annual Pushcart Races”: The Lambda Chi pushcart races will be held on Thursday at 2 p.m in the Union parking lot. Residence halls and other fraternities are encouraged to participate, and the entry fee is $3. The first award will be for the fastest cart, and the second one is the most originally designed pushcart.

List of Advertisements:

1. Viggo’s Toggery Dress Shop is advertised. The slogan reads “New Campus Fashion Headquarters.”
2. Tampico Dinner House is advertised. The slogan is “Superb Mexican & American Dishes.” Take home orders are offered, and is open on weekdays, Saturday, and Sunday.

Issue Date: November 15, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 38

Pg: 1

Articles:

“Press Conference”: Pres. A. Ray Olpin will hold a press conference on Wednesday at noon in the Union Ballroom. The purpose of the conference is for students to ask questions and become better adjusted with the University’s plans, decisions, and policies.

“‘Tangier to Istanbul’ U Travel Club Film”: The University Travel Club presents its second series tonight in Kingsbury Hall at 8:15 p.m. The new film “Tangier to Istanbul” by traveler photographer Clifford Kamen tells the story of three Mediterranean gateways. The audience will see memorable sites such as the ancient Roman temple of Baalbek, the ruins of Homer’s Troy, and the Cedars of Lebanon.

“Regents Give Green Light on Ute Building Project”: The Board of Regents gave the go ahead on Monday for over $2 million of new construction on campus. Pres. Ray A. Olpin announced a 21 member Fraternity Study Committee that will focus on the past and present of sorority and fraternity life, as well as their future role in keeping educational objectives. Regent Robert Cutler asked if the students requested the formation of the committee, but Olpin responded that it had been initiated by the president.

“Auto Collision is Fatal to Utah Student”: University of Utah student Douglas R. Schoenhals was killed when thrown from an automobile on Friday heading to a Pi Beta Phi party. Funeral services were held for the student on Monday. Two other students had minor injuries.

“Ball Features Snarf and Preferred Girl”: Tickets are now available at the Huddle Ticket booth for the fall festival crowning “Professor Snarf” and “Most Preferred Woman on Campus.” The fall festival will be held at the Union Ballroom at 8:30 p.m. The tickets are $2 per couple and $2.25 at the door. The Union Emeritus Room will host the “Most Preferred Woman” judging tonight at 6:30.

“Dr. McMurrin to Address Greek Lyceum”: Dr. Sterling M. McMurrin will hold a lyceum titled “The University’s Challenge in the 60’s” today at noon in the Union Little Theater. Dr. McMurrin served as the dean of the College of Letters of Science for six years before he was appointed academic vice president of the University. He also served as president of the Utah Conference on Higher Education.

Issue Date: November 15, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 38

Pg: 2

Articles:

“An Attempt...”: The president and the students will get together for the first time for a “heart to heart” talk. The administration is often criticized for being unfriendly with students, so they are now they are attempting to become more familiar with students. The administration hopes that all students attend and have some intelligent questions prepared.

“Letters to the Editor”: USNSA Coordinator Robert S. Clark wrote to the editor about how the facts brought up don’t coincide with the conclusion. Chairman Charles Akerlow emphasizes how all objections came from the 13th National Congress. Akerlow claims one of the biggest issues from the Utah Region pulling out of the Association is that Congress doesn’t represent the college student. Although there are many flaws in the NSA, Akerlow believes it deserves a final hearing.

“This Week We Honor”: University senior Martha Hales is honored this week for her academic excellence and on campus involvement. Hales emphasizes the importance of having a well balanced campus life as well as scholastic ability. She has maintained a 3.5 GPA while also serving as president of Cwean, co chairman of “U” days, and a pledge trainer for Alpha Chi Omega during her junior year.

List of Advertisements:

1. Chronicle Classified Ads are advertised. Ads include for sale items, services, apartments for rent, help wanted, personal, and travel.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A cartoon is titled “Little Man on Campus.” It shows eggs being thrown at the professor by students. The caption under the cartoon reads “If you’ll think back a few lectures-I said you’d get your chance to evaluate this course at the end of the term!”

Issue Date: November 15, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 38

Pg: 3

Articles:

“Savitri Presents Classical Dance Program Tonight”: Savitri opens up a program at the Tanner Conservatory of Creative Dance. Dance selections will include traditional Indian cultures. Tickets can be bought at the Extension Division office. A collection of jewelry and costumes from native dancers will be on display in the Library.

“Grad Student Fellowships Deadline Dec. 9”: Graduate students interested in being a teaching assistant offered by the National Science Foundation should apply by Dec. 9. Eligible students include those who have one year's experience and are employed full time in a field of study covered by the program.

“Panorama Room to Present Indian Summer”: Panorama Presents is producing an ‘Indian Summer’ dinner dance in the Panorama Room at 8 p.m. The first half of the show opens up with Dev Jennings Combo. Intermission will be performed by Ron Daum, who is most known for his musical productions. Tickets can be found at the Huddle ticket booth for $5.00 per couple, and $1.50 alone.

“European Tour”: College of Fine Arts directors Dr. Lowell M. Durham and Louis W. Booth have announced the University of Utah European Study Tour. Students can take up to five credits of University work or they can go for fun. Further information can be acquired by either professor.

“Names in the News”: University graduate David L. Bean has won the Socony Mobil Scholarship in Geophysics. The scholarship awards $400 including tuition and regular fees. Dr. John D. Spikes is head of the experimental biology department and just returned from a two year leave of absence. During his two years, he worked in Washington D.C under the Atomic Energy Commission.

“Engies’ Wives, U Faculty to Hold Meets”: The Chemical Engineering wives will hold their November meeting at their home of President Connie Johns. The meeting will include ideas for Christmas. College of Letters and Science staff will hold a meeting today in Room 104 of the Chemistry Building.

“Local News”:

List of Advertisements:

1. Old Spice Smooth Shave is advertised. The slogan reads “Stays moist and firm to the end of your shave...”
2. Hygeia Iceland is advertised. The slogan is “Plan now to register for Ice Skating Classes winter quarter. P.E credit given.”
3. Peter Sellers... in James Thurber’s “Battle of the Sexes” at the Tower Theatre.

4. Professor Snarf is advertised. The slogan reads “The Undersigned are Supporting for Dr. Sam Rich.”

Issue Date: November 15, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 38

Pg: 4

Articles:

“Sportscope”: The first place Utah State Aggies will take on the Utah Redskins on Saturday in Salt Lake City. It is expected that the attendance record be broken with over 30,000 people watching. The lines in the Union alley ways for bowling takes up to two and a half hours, plus the regular expenses of bowling make it the priciest intramural sport there is. With basketball around the corner, the Redskins are seeing new faces and lineup changes, with the fifth starter still unknown.

“Redskin Guard Tony Polychronis Snares “Player of the Week” Award”: Redskins starting right guard Tony Polychronis was deemed “player of the week” by the Utah Chronicle. Tony is a vital component of the Utah line, and is one of the toughest ever assembled in Utah. Tony appeared last year on the drafts of the New York Giants and Oakland Raiders. He was also All-Conference ranking and the national Pi Kappa Alpha American Squad.

“Game May Net New Record in Attendance”: Utah ticket manager reports that few tickets are left in general admission for the Utah-Utah State football match. Students should come as early as possible to claim their seats with the ID cards.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Paris Alley presents the “white stag” look. A man is sketched in the ad, and is wearing a reversible, water repellent nylon-parka jacket.
2. Three “professor snarfs” are advertised. The undersigned are supporting for: Dr. S.D Durant, Wachtang A. Djobadze, and Paul Banham.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A cartoon of two men are drawn who are in astronaut gear, and one says “Take me to your esterbrook dealer!” The beginning statement reads “Attention earthlings!” Esterbrook pens are sold for only $2.95 with a variety of six colors.

Issue Date: November 16, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 38

Pg: 1

Articles:

“Honor Scholar Stegner to Address U Students”: Pi Beta Kappa Visiting Scholar Wallace Stegner will give a speech about “Us Christians Got No Lion” in Orson Spencer Hall on Friday at 8:30 p.m. Stegner will hold an informal meeting with faculty and students sponsored by the English department. Stegner is of the Creative Writing Center at Stanford, where he has written over a dozen books and many short stories.

“130 U Students Donate Blood”: The first day of the blood drive came to a close with 130 pints already donated out of their 450 pint goal. Trophies will be given out to campus organizations that give the biggest blood donations. Workers, nurses, and physicians for Red Cross will handle all the donations. If there has been no blood given within the past eight weeks, students can still donate blood.

“Paul Banham to Lecture at Greek Week Lyceum”: Music instructor Paul Banham will speak at the third lyceum of the series in the Little Union Theater at noon. The topic Banham will speak about is “Music of the Future.” Banham has a wide range of experience, including being a Rhodes Scholar prior coming to the University of Utah. The wide range of lyceums are designed to expand Greek Week activities.

“Regents Vote to Shorten School During Summer”: The Board of Sanctions have announced that summer school is being cut from 10 weeks to eight weeks. The shortened schedule allows students from out of state and teachers to attend more classes. Classes will be 65 minutes long, but students can’t take a full quarter’s worth of school. Olpin said that it’s possible for funding of a testing laboratory, costing over a million dollars.

“Music Festival to Feature Modern Trend”: The University’s Second Annual Festival of Contemporary Music will be presented in Kingsbury Hall tonight at 8:30. The first of three concerts are being given by the Utah Symphony Orchestra. Maurice Abravanel will be directing tonight’s program. The last concert features local and regional composers, and President Olpin encourages everyone to attend.

“Dinner Dance at Panorama Room Friday”: The Panorama Room is hosting the dinner dance “Indian Summer” on Friday at 8 p.m. A typical thanksgiving dinner will be served, followed by music at 9 p.m by Dev Jennings and his combo. Tickets are on sale today, Thursday, and Friday at the Union information desk at $5 per couple. The attire is dressy, and the public is invited to attend.

“Olpin to Speak Before Noon Confab Today”: Pres. Ray. A Olpin is holding a press conference in the Beehive Room today at noon. Olpin wants to give this opportunity to students to ask any questions regarding any concerns of the University. Some topics that will be discussed are policies, decisions, and future plans for the University. Students are encouraged to go into the conference with a constructive attitude.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Week’s Calendar is advertised. Events include Paul Banham’s lyceum and KUED-TV’s “Retrospect”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 16, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 38

Pg: 2

Articles:

“Where it Stops...”: Dr. Ray A. Olpin is reason why the University grew in the 60s, and is eligible for a “Bucks Stop Here” sign. Olpin appears today in an inaugural Student Press Conference, which can significantly impact how he and his administrators make decisions. The occasion today is serious, because it requires thoughtful answers and a give and take atmosphere. This conference is an opportunity for students to find out what “buck's” stop at Dr. Olpin’s desk.

“Letters to the Editor”: Stephen L. Davies claims that the editor’s segment about bowling has numerous misconceptions. For example, the article doesn't mention that the price to bowl is 10 cents cheaper than anywhere else, and that 15 cents a pair instead of free. In terms of the long lines, Davies emphasizes that it’s the bowlers fault that they take two and a half hours to bowl. One never complains about the prices downtown, which are $2.25.

“Ute Spiritual”: Martin Berstein mentions the poor school spirit, especially at football games. The Utah football team boasts a 6-2 record, but why win when there are no students to cheer them on? Berstein mentions how Utah only had a few hundred students cheering them on from the sidelines. He argues that either college football or the student body. Bernstein encourages more students to cheer on the team, as they dedicate their lives to the sport.

“Utah Symphony to Feature Zara Nelsova”: Known cellist Zara Nelsova will be a guest soloist with the Utah Symphony Orchestra. Nelsova will play “Schelomo for Cello and Orchestra.” Nelsova made her debut at 11 years old with the London Philharmonic, where she devotes her entire career to the concert stage.

“Wormuth Discusses U.S Foreign Policy”: Political science professor Francis D. Wormuth was the first speaker of the International Relations Club series on Thursday evening. Wormuth explains American foreign policy, and how the U.S wants to export capital and support friendly governments.

List of Advertisements:

1. Chronicle Classified Ads are advertised. Items include for sale items, apartments for rent, printing services, traveling, and personal.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. “Little Man on Campus” shows a man painting a house that reads “Drink Coca-Cola” while two other men are watching. The slogan reads “I wish there was some other way Prof. Snarf could afford to have this house painted.”

Issue Date: November 16, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 38

Pg: 3

Articles:

“Roads, Collisions Cause Worry to Campus Cops”: There were five different accidents reported to the police on Tuesday by noon. Two cars faced serious damage in front of the Union Building. The Oldsmobile, driven by Agnes Hartman, suffered $600 in damage while the Chevrolet driven by Mary Lynne Marsh had $200 in damage. There were three minor accidents in the parking lot west of the stadium according to traffic supervisor E.C McGarry.

“Oyster Stew Picks Queen, Beard Victors”: Engineering queen and nursing major Deanne Tanner was the nominee of the electrical engineering department. Tanner was elected from a group of six candidates representing each department of the College of Engineering. She was joined by five bearded engineers. There were prizes for the longest beard, most unique beard, most colorful beard and most grotesque beard.

“Notice Given on Utonian Picture Proofs”: According to editor Dick Aamodt, the Utonian Staff may have to select a picture for the student if they don’t hand in their picture proofs within five days of receiving them. The photographer is only here this week to take pictures, and those who don’t take their pictures have to go to the studio downtown at Saan’s photography.

“Engies’ Wives Meet”:

“List of Advertisements”:

1. The Chalk Garden and their Holiday Sale is advertised. The slogan reads “A very special sale of fabulous spring & fall shoes.”
2. Panorama Presents Dinner-Dance Nov. 18, 8-12
3. Engineers and Scientists advertises NAA’s On Campus Interviews.
4. Varsity Record Club is advertised. The slogan reads “Save 1/4 on All Records Invades U of U Campus Save Time! Save Money”

Issue Date: November 16, 1960

Volume: 70

No: 38

Pg: 4

Articles:

“Men’s Locker Official Bemoans Space Lack”: Wilford Marwedel distributes clothing to the men taking physical education classes in the gym. All student equipment is stored in “the cage” due to the lack of locker room space. Wilf explains the challenge of the rush between classes, where he has to handle 280 baskets within the span of 20 minutes. There is only space for 700 baskets, but with the traffic jam they need 700 more. Wilf emphasized the shortage by the swimmers who check in their baskets.

“WRA Plans Swimming Meet”: The annual WRA swim meet will be held on Thursday at 7 p.m. The theme is “Knight in the Deep” and women are encouraged to participate with their sororities or an independent team. Those who are interested should be sure to sign up today. Events include a penny hunt, saving, and synchronized swimming.

“Redskins Third in Conference After Weekend”: Besides the battle between BYU and Montana State for fifth place, the Skyline conference is solidified. Utah State is currently having a perfect season with a 9-0 record. The Redskins are hanging on to third place in the conference after a 16-6 win against Montana State. Ute Stan Uyeshiro is now the second best kick returner, averaging 34.8 yards per return.

List of Advertisements:

1. Calling “U” is advertised. Events include Greek Week and the ASUU Blood Drive.
2. Professor Snarf is advertised. The Undersigned are Supporting for Mayor Paul Rowan and Dr. Lewellyn McKay.

3. The Terrace is advertised. Events include “The Brothers Four,” “Broadway Music Teen Dance,” “Platters The,” and “Max Engman.”
4. Boeing company is advertised, and is targeted towards engineers and scientists. The slogan reads “We’re Looking Forward to Meeting You!”