

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Meg Clasper

Issue Date: December 2, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 45

Page: 1

Articles:

“Navy to Hold Ball Tonight In Panorama”: The NROTC will hold an Autumn Ball in the Panorama Room from 8:30 to 12 p.m. In the reception line midshipmen will introduce themselves and their dates. Entertainment for the evening will be the Sigma Chi Quartet and music of the Mel-Tones.

“North Africa, Middle East Highlight Film”: A panel discussion including Dr. Jacob Geerling, professor of languages and history, Dr. Khosrow Mostofi, and assistant professor of political science, and Dr. Frederick Latimer, lecturer in history, will talk about the film “The Middle East.” The film is a documentary by Julian Bryan and labeled as unusual. This event is scheduled to take place at the University of Utah on December 5, and run until 8:15 p.m. in the Spencer Hall auditorium.

“Globe at A Glance: Kennedy Sets Timetable for Congress” by: United Press International
President-Elect John F. Kennedy set up his cabinet and his legislative programs. Him and his wife hope to have his whole family in Palm Beach during Christmas. Also, in New Orleans a court denied a school board motion to end integration.

“AWS to Host Convention”: The Associated Women students executive hosts a state convention. The convention will discuss problems of the functions of the council. About 50 delegates are expected to attend from Utah and Idaho will attend.

“AF Recruiters to Discuss Officers Plan”: Booths will be set up in the Union Building from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.. S/Sgt. Russel Kennedy, a local recruiter, gives information to those interested in training as medical specialists, judge advocates and nurses. Cadets who enroll will undergo 11 months of training and OTS individuals will receive a 90 day training prior to the commissioning.

“Surplus Stapler, Stacker is Saggin Annex Ceiling”: A new machine in the mimeograph room of the College of Business is too heavy and threatens to break through the floor. A four by four beam was used in the office of Mrs. Ruby Geerlings, on the floor below, to serve as a support brace below the machine. Mrs. Geerlings appeared unconcerned about the threat of the ceiling caving in. The machine, a collator, is used to separate and staple packets of paper. A photo of Mrs. Geerling and colleague setting up wooden beams accompanies the story.

“Symphony Debs”

“Symphony and Chorus Join in Tabernacle” by: Susan Woodland: The University of Utah’s Choral Society teams with the Utah Symphony to perform Brahms’ “German Requiem.” Tickets are free to students and faculty with activity cards. The event will take place in the Tabernacle on Dec. 3. At 8:30. A photo of the choir at the Tabernacle accompanies the article.

List of Advertisements:

Classified ad for student Housing off-campus

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 2, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 45

Page: 2

Articles:

“Letter to the Editor: Unaware” by Bob Clark: Clark talks about the issues The Chronicle has been having with USNSA. He calls the paper out for misquoting people in the student government. Clark suggest the paper should justify its actions in the future.

“Letter to the Editor: Misquoted?” by Chuck Akerlow: Chuck Akerlow wrote to the paper on the topic of the article titled “Let’s Think” from the day before. He claims the article is mis-titled because he was misquoted in it. Akerlow continues with and explanation of what his quote actually was and meant.

“Christmas Time...”: This section talks about the article “Symphony and Chorus Join in Tabernacle.” During the fall semester the Utah Symphony will offer 10 “subscription” concerts offered to students at a discounted price. The music department also sponsors music festivals with Ute musicians.

Classified Advertisements:

Ads for things like furniture, diamond wholesalers, vehicles, cameras, dryers. Ads for services such as typing, proofreading, ironing. Ads for jobs, lost items, and transportation over the Christmas break.

List of Advertisements:

1. Western Airlines advertised with the slogan: “Thrifty Air Coaches.”
2. Arthur Frank: Button Down Oxford Shirts are advertised. The slogan is “Headquarters for Gant of New Haven.”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 2, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 45

Page: 3

Articles:

“Utes Party Before Finals Begin”: The article outlines celebratory actions of the Sig Eps, the Alpha Delta Pi’s, the Tri-Delts, the Kappas and the Phi Mu’s as finals end. The Sig Eps have a formal dinner. The Alpha Delta Pi have a festive Mexican style Christmas. The Tri-Delts have a German party complete with cultural clothing and food. The Kappas have a fancy Christmas dance. The Phi Mu’s have a log cabin Christmas party. A photo of formally dressed students accompanies this article.

List of Advertisements:

1. KWIC: Album Station “Refreshing Radio”
2. Unitarian: Church “University people will find a congenial church home here.”
3. Arthur Frank: Genuine Bass Weejuns “UTah’s Leading Store for Men and Women”
4. Hires Drive In: Restaurant “The best cheeseburgers, hamburgers, fries, shakes, malks, sundaes, etc. IN TOWN.”
5. Union Movies: UUU Little Theater “Gift of Love.”

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 2, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 45

Page: 4

Articles:

“Campus Coeds Cop Classiest Crystals”:

“Christmas Pix to include Chrony Staff”: A photo of Chronical photographer George Mabey accompanies the article.

“Calling ‘U’”:

List of Advertisements:

1. The Terrace: New Year’s Eve “Get Tickets Now!”
2. Halmar: Sabena’s “Simply Fabulous Flats”
3. Hibbs Sports Shop: Car Coats “Especially Recommended for the Gentleman who wants to keep warm, and look sharp while he’s going out!”

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 2, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 45

Page: 5

Articles:

“Loyola Whips Utes, 85-64”: In an away basketball game, the Utes lose to Loyola of Los Angeles, Thursday. The Utes had an initial 9-2. By the half the lead was narrowed to 25 to 22. After half-time, the Utes struggled to hit any shots. The Utes let the second string take over and lost. A photo of player Billy McGill accompanies the article.

List of Advertisements:

1. 910: Cowboy boots “You’ll get a boot out of Kall”
2. Bennett Ford: ‘61 Ford Falcons “STOP wasting shoe leather START driver a better car from Bennett Ford”
3. Dance Committee: Holly Hop “If you missed the last one, don’t miss this one!”
4. Al Hohman: Florsheim Shoe Shop “For your convenience visit the gay 90’s barber shop”
5. The “Cambridge” by Blue Lake: Short-sleeved, boat-neck, hand knit sweater “For the fashion minded TGIF’er”

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 2, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 45

Page: 6

Articles:

“Kurzwengen” by Owen L. Saunders: It is about an hour from the University to the Snow Basin Ski resort. They have a double chair lift for the beginner and intermediate runs and a 4,800 foot chair lift that serves intermediate runs. The 4,800 ski lift is the longest in the state. Snow Basin’s average snowfall rivals Alta, Aspen and Loveland Basin. A photo of a skier accompanies the article.

Weekend Skiing at Alta, Brighton, SnowBasin, Solitude

List of Advertisements:

1. Creme K Lotion: face lotion “Keep your complexion beautifully clear”
2. House of Pizza: Restaurant “Now- the most complete line of specialty foods... IN the quiet Italian atmosphere of our new State Street location”
3. Protestant Campus Center: Church “Light on the Bible from recent linguistic and archaeological studies”
4. Castletons: Department store “Did you know that even I, Dr. S. Clause, noted gift specialist and world traveler, at one time had Christmas gift problems?”

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 5, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 48

Page: 1

Articles:

“Language Dept. Produces ‘Christmas in Many Lands’”: The Language department presents this program in Kingsbury Hall on Monday at 8 p.m. All the languages in the department - French, German, Greek Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Persian, Portugese, Russian, Spanish, Norwegian, Danish, Swedish, etc. - will provide a variety of cultural and music displays. Mrs. A. Ray Olpin is scheduled to sing two compositions. Also, Hans-Karl Schade will sing several German Christmas songs. A photo of Lois Beaudoin, Dolores Rahde, and Helen Psaros in cultural costuming accompanies the article.

“String Quartet to Perform Concert Series”: The Roth Quartet performed Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at the University of Utah Music Hall. The performances began at 11 a.m. Tuesday and Thursday and 8:15 p.m. on Friday. Students and faculty members with activity cards received free admission, without tickets were $1.50.

“After-Game Dance”: After the Utah-Texas Christian basketball game, a dance called the “Holly Hop” is planned. The dance will take place in the Union from 9 p.m. to midnight. K-B Quartet will provide entertainment. Tickets are $1.75 a couple.

“Best Design to win $25 for ‘61 Class Link”: A competition for the design of class of 1961’s link for the class chain is set to end that Friday. Designs were to be submitted to the information desk in the Union Lobby and had to include a feeling of growth, measurements and a view from both the top and bottom. The class chain itself is located in the Union Publications wing display case.

“ASUU Offers Workshop in Leadership”: A campus workshop in human relations and leadership was sponsored by the ASUU Leadership Training Committee. The workshop will take place Jan. 6 through 8 at the Homestead resort in Heber City. Training sessions will be overseen by personnel from the offices of the Dean of Students and the Union Directors Office. Students must apply to attend with a $5 deposit. Committee members Stan Elmer, Jim Pappas, Suzanne Foresey, Leona Jakimiack, Steve Brockbank and Roger Romel will assist the training.

“Middle-East Topics Discussion”: An all color documentary by Julian Bryan was shown in Orson Spencer Hall auditorium. Dr. Jacob Geerling, Khosrow Mostofi, and Frederick Latimer conducted a discussion after the showing of the film. The panel was moderated by Dr. William Mulder and sponsored by the Extension Division and the Center for Intercultural Studies. A photo from Julian Bryan’s documentary accompanies the article.

“Bennion Urges Student Poll on NSA Proposition: ‘Students May Undermine Whole Idea,’ Prexy Says”: President of ASUU John Benion encourages the Senate to Submit the National Student Association proposal (NSA) to a referendum. The referendum would allow students to vote on the proposal. The Senate voted on the proposal Wednesday. Accompanied by a photo of John Bennion.

“British Leader PResents TV Sequence.”: An 8-part TV series was shown on KUED hosted by Field Marshal Bernard L. Montgomery. He will cover his war campaign, the battles of Alem Halfa and Alamein in Africa and the surrender of Germany at the end of the war. Montgomery was a successful commander of British troops during the war. For American audiences, Montgomery will share his methods of command.

List of Advertisements: None

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 5, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 48

Page: 2

Articles:

“Other Classes”: This editorial compares University of Utah’s class officer problem to a similar problem in Oregon State College. Once moved into office previous candidates forgot promises and propositions. A suggestion is made to create a new system of representatives. Each class elects a male and female representative to serve.

“This Week We Honor”: Louise H. Howe was a professor of the Speech department. She came to the University with a B.A. degree and an M.A. in Speech and Theater ARts. Howe worked as a radio drama producer at KSL. She was connected to the theater department and had a Howe on KIED “Number Seven Sunny Street.” Accompanied by a picture of Louise H. Howe.

List of Advertisements:

1. Classifieds for vehicles, ski equipment, rooms for rent, help or transportation wanted, and found keys.
2. Electric Educator: A recorder with a slogan “The Amazing Electric Educator.”
3. Advertisement for the Annual Christmas open house at the University BookStore

Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus: Shows a few sorority girls at a dressing table outside. It makes fun of how girls need to check their makeup and hair before heading into a party.

Issue Date: December 5, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 48

Page: 3

Articles:

“NSF Announces Postdoctoral Fellowship”: The National Science Foundation selects 1961 program of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Postdoctoral Fellowships in science. The fellowships are in mathematical, physical, medical, biological, engineering, anthropology, psychology and social science. Applications were handed out by the Fellowship office National Academy of Science National Research Council in Washington D.C.

“McGrath HEads Ute Playbox Production”

“‘Cheating Justifiable’ is Sounding off Topic”: A discussion of cheating’s justifiable nature took place in the Union. What is considered cheating, and if it should be considered morally wrong will be covered. Diane Scheleckman invited all students.

“‘Jazz Age’ Featre at SCF House Today”: The Jazz Age is a tape recording with the narration of Fred Allen. It was played at the Student Christian Fellowship House. Following the take was a discussion about the problems in the 1920s.

“Alpine Club Change Date; Meeting Tonight”: The guest speaker, Professor Ija N Korner, was rescheduled by the Ute Alpine Club. Professor Korner specializes in psychiatry and has done a lot of mountain climbing in Africa. One of his climbs was Mt. Kilimanjaro.

“Film on Teton Area Slated for Tuesday”: A film focused on Jackson Hole and the Teton Range in Wyoming was presented in Kingsbury Hall. The Teton Range served as the background of the film at the height of 7,000 feet. The film is part of a series by the Audubon Screen Tour Films co-sponsored by the Extension Division and National Audubon Society and is presented by Charles Tyler Hotchkiss.

“Panorama’s Student Nightclub”: The Panorama room on the top floor of the Union had monthly dinner-dances. They offer a complete meal and professional and student floor shows. The Panorama presents committee and President San Zirossi tried to keep a nightclub atmosphere to the dance.

“Christmas Corsages”

List of Advertisements:

1. Holly Hop Dance: The slogan of “Don’t come you might have fun.”
2. Dell’s Phillips 66: Service station with the slogan of “Just drive in and stop on the white line, if your valve stem is perpendicular to the line you get 5 gal of gas.”
3. Bell Telephone companies: Hiring Advertisement with the slogan of “It’s here if you want to work for it.”

Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 5, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 49

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utes Lose Early Lead, bow to Indians 59-56”: In a baseball game against the Palo Alto Indians, the Utes lost by three points. Billy “the Hill” McGill was the highest scorer connecting 30 points. Jim Reed was quick to return the ball during the last half. Coach Jack Gardner wasn’t happy about a referees call that might have cost Utah the game. Bo Crain and Joe Auderheid played but did not score.

“Redskin Wrestlers Ready Season” by Eckard Herrig: December 13 was the opening wrestling meet against the University of Oklahoma, the 1959 champions. Coach Marv Hess has high hopes for the three returning seniors. The team consists of Doug Bingham, Frank Hanking, Larry Nielson, Art Galves, Ben Lloyd, Dave Robinson, John Stirling, Bill King, Noland Hayward, Gordon Dotson and Murray Johnson.

List of Advertisements:

1. ROTC classes with the slogan “One of the best investments you’ll ever make.”
2. Mckay Jewelry Co. with the slogan “Diamonds are our Business.”
3. Tower Theater showing Ingmar Bergmans comedy “A Lesson in Love”
4. Olympia Typewriters: “All makes Typewriters.”

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 6, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 49

Page: 1

Articles:

“Photog Hotchkiss Presents Film, ‘Teton Trails’ to Campus tonight”: Charles Hothckiss, a naturalist photographer, will present his all color film “Teton Trail” at 8:15 p.m. The fild has the 7,000 feet tall Teton Range as a backdrop. The event is sponsored by the National Audubon Society which will sponsor three more programs. They are Edgar T. Jones’ “Alberta Outdoors,” John Taft’s “The Shandon Hills,” and Chester P. Lyons’ “The Right to Live.” Accompanied by a photo of Charles Hotchkiss.

“Pianist Cliburn to Perform in Tabernacle”: Van Cliburn was scheduled to perform a special concert with the Utah Symphony Orchestra in the Tabernacle. The concert was so well received the boxoffice sold out of tickets. Harold L. Gregory invited University students to sit in on the dress rehearsal to have a chance to hear the performance.

“KUED Portrays World War II British Battles”: Field Marshal Bernard L. Montgomery tells of his time fighting in WWII in the series “Command in Battle.” He will share strategies of his campaigns prior to each sequence. Montgomery will tell accounts of the Battles of Alem Haifa and Alamein, Africa. In the prologue he will discuss with Charles Collin wood and Richard Dimbleby, two former correspondents.

“Traveling Cast Will Stage ‘Damn Yankees’”: Kingsbury Hall hosted a University Theater production “Damn Yankees.” R. Lowell Lees was the director of the musical comedy. The original production ran four seasons starring Gwen Verden and Ray Wilson.

“String Ensemble to Present Three Concerts”: by Margie Burgon: The Roth Quartet performed in the Beethoven Festival. Members Feri Roth, Thomas Marrocco, Irvin Weinstein and Cesare Pascerelle play violin, viola and cello. The quartet is world known and has three million sales in 34 countries and have 17 awards.

“Utonian Deadline”

“Sounding Board Hears Problems; Board to meet today for Second Confab”: The newly established Sounding Board meets in the Alumni Lounge to discuss a rotation policy. This policy will ensure different people representing many groups will be invited to participate on the board. The board is comprised of students, faculty, and administration to discuss problems among the factions.

“Brian Combo Entertains U Panorama”: A dinner-dance held by the PANorama Presents Committee will be held in the Union Panorama room. Mickey Brian Combo will provide music while Mrs. Alcie Hepworth performs a comedy routine. Tickets are five dollars for the dinner and dance or a dollar fifty for the dance only. Accompanied by a picture of Mrs. Alice Hepworth.

List of Advertisements: None

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 6, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 49

Page: 2

Articles:

“John vs Dick”: ASUU President John Bennion suggests the National Student Assn proposal be placed on a student referendum. Senate President Dick Paul believes the senate is capable of handling the issue and it doesn't need to be passed to the “relatively uninformed members of the student body.” Overall the issue came down to two questions (1) Do University students have definite intelligent opinions on controversial political issues? And (2) if so, do they want them expressed at a National Student Assn. Congress?

“Excusals Listed.”: A. Ray Olpin creates a list of students who will be absent / were absent. These absences were due to University activities. President Olpin thanks instructors for their corporations.

“Letters to the Editor: ‘We Know’” By Dick Paul: Dick Paul, President of the Senate, writes about the proposed NSA students referendum. Paul believes the Student Senate is more than capable of making the decision in the best interest of the students. He thinks that the senate passing the cote to the students would be avoiding their own responsibility.

“World in Brief: Dag Raps Congo Crisis; Cuba Fires Employees” by United Press

International: U.N. Secretary General Dag HAMmarskjord believes Congolese Premiere Lumumba is held in inhumane conditions. Cuba has fired four employees of the Washington Office in the Cuban foreign ministry. John Morgan wins the game for Utah State Basketball by two free throws against the Detroit Titans.

List of Advertisements:

1. Classified for vehicles, ski equipment, roommates, typists, rooms for rent, help wanted and rides.

Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus: Two men walk by a group of college students checking out a car talking about when they were in college the only things the men had to talk about were girls.
2. Little Man on Campus: A college male appears to be on the phone with a girl telling her she must me imagining the peeping tom in her second story window but he has stilts in his room behind him.

Issue Date: December 6, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 49

Page: 3

Articles:

“Army ROTC Corps Names Two Outstanding Cadets.”: John Provost and Richard Johnson were announced as outstanding Cadets. Col. Richard B. Kreutzer announces Col. Floyd L. Larsen as new Battle commander. Cadet Garn Christiansen appointed to executive officer, Cadet Dennis Richardson to deputy commander and Cadet Carl Mattson S-3 of battle group staff in charge of operations. All new appointments are recognized as distinguished military students. Accompanied by two photos one of John Provost and one of Richard Johnson.

“A.F. Sponsors to Receive New Uniforms”: New uniforms had been announced by Col. Julie Allen and Lt. Gayle Crandall. The new University Angel Flight, Air Force ROTC Sponsor Corps have new uniforms thanks to arrangements made by Sue Stringham. Officers for the sponsors are Judie Alder, Colleen Kelly, Marian Daynes, Barabra Woodbury, Linda Rock and Barabra Watson. The Angel Flights will usher basketball games and perform half-time drills.

“Engineer Honorary Lists Fall Initiates”: Rober J. Anderson, James R. Belliston, Terry Brown, John Derries, Dale Fowler, James Gurr, Phillip A. Lowe, Jay C. Nielson, James Nuckols, Phalp Schwarzback, Daniel Tebbs, Arthur D. Thomas, ynn T. Wells, and Howard A, Wiulkins are Tau Beta Phi’s new initiates. Stephen A. Fausett received an outstanding freshman engineer award. ARthur D. Thomas won the pledge essay competition.

“After-Game Dance”

“Selection Team to Discuss A.F. Programs”: An Air Force selection team was scheduled to visit the University. The team had a booth set up in the Union according to S.Sgt. Russell Kennedy. Members of the team explained various officer programs.

“Residence Halls Sponsors Annual Decoration Contest”: Nick Pappas and the REsidence Halls Association sponsored its fourth annual Christmas Decoration contest. The judging committee will be Prof. Donald Bergsman, Prof. Dorothy Bearson and Dale Bryner, all part of the College of Fine Arts. First place will receive $20 and a traveling trophy; second will win $10 and 3rd will win $5.

“Five Engie Students Pledge Theta Tau”

List of Advertisements:

1. Jack’s Service: A service station with the slogan “High gas prices? Sad note, man.”
2. Tower Theater presenting Ingmar Gergman’s comedy “A Lesson in Love.”
3. Calling ‘U’ list of events and deadlines.
4. Salt Lake School of Electronics with the slogan “Specialized approach to a future in electronics.”
5. Olympia Typewriters with the slogan “All makes Typewriter.”
6. American Express Travel Service Sales Division selling Student tours. The slogan is “This grand tour of Europe can be yours..next summer.”

Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 6, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 49

Page: 4

Articles:

“Sportscope” by Marcells Snow: The article talks about Billy McGills improvement form last year and how the team relies on him. Might Kentucky lost to West Virginia who was without Jerry West. Also the author talks about Fair-weather fans of the Utah athletics.

“Weekly Keg Slage Set for Playoff Matches”: The article is a list of teams who qualified for league playoffs and the dates. Most teams are from fraternities and sororities. The list also lays out who and where the teams are playing.

“Four wins: Army Shooters Assemble Good Record”: The Army ROTC rifle team and Cadet Captain Jim Kratz have a 4-1 record. They plan to compete against BYU, Idaho State and the Layton Rifle club. Members are Jeff Howard, Barr Woodruff, Kenneth Sorensen, Richard Saley, Robert R. Robinson III, IRby White, Stan Dmars and Captain Jim Kratz. The article includes a picture of the team.

List of Advertisements:

1. Hygeia Iceland ice rink with the slogan “Ice skating for fun.”
2. College Service: service station with the slogan “Huntin for excellent Automobile Service close to the Campus, Old Chap?”
3. McKay Jewelry with the slogan “Diamonds are out business.”
4. Hamilton watches with the slogan “For all the hours of a lifetime.”

Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 7, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 50

Page: 1

Articles:

“Bookstore to Sponsor open House”: The annual open house began in 1950. It is held for the purpose of aiding students, faculty, and University employees to interact. Mr. Selbert w. Mote said the event was started to show off the new store when it moves from the Park Building. The event will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

“Mrs. Hepworth to present Floorshow Act”: Mrs. Alice Hepworth will perform at the Panorama Presents dinner-dance. Tickets were available at the Union. Mickey Brian Combo will also perform.

“Holidays Close UB, Panorama”

“Globe at a Glance Eisenhower is ‘Available’ Harbor Birthday Today” by United Press International: President-elect Kennedy asks President Eisenhower if he is available in the future. They had an “extremely informative” discussion on world problems. Kennedy choses Congressman Stewart Udall as Secretary of the Interior. The article mentions the 19th anniversary of the Pearl Harbor attack.

“Van Cliburn Performs in Tabernacle Tonight”: Junior high, high school, and University students were allowed to attend an open dress rehearsal due to the sold out nature of the show. The Texas pianist played Tchaikovsky’s first piano concerto for the concert. Clibrun was awarded the Tchaikovsky International Piano Competition in Moscow. He was interviewed by Howard Taubman of the New York Times after the win. Accompanied by picture of Van Cliburn.

“K-B Quintet to Play for ‘Holly Hop’”:The Union ballroom hosted the “Holly Hop” with the K-B Quintet performing. The Quintet is made up of two BYU students and three University students. The dance was from 9 to 12 p.m.

“Kirkpatrick to Speak at Dinner Club”: L. H. Kirkpatrick was the featured speaker at the annual Christmas dinner meeting of the University dinner club. Kirkpatrick is a University Librarian and Professor of Library Science. His speech was titled “pagan Aspects of Christmas.” Kirkpatrick will also introduce Dr. Aziz Atiya master of ceremonies dna head of the Center for Intercultural Studies.

“Aid Requested for Families; Books Needed”: An ASUU project was set up top assist the families for the California Polytechnic Institute football players that were killed in an airplane crash. Contributions were taken in the office of the General Manager of Student Activities in the Union. Several Universities have made requests for book donations.

“Detective Story Staged by U Performers” by Mary Chapman: “Detective Story” written by Sidney Kingsley tells about the police work in New York’s 21st Precinct. It has a combination of comedy and action. Members of the cast are Marilyn Knudsen, Audrey Becker, Beverly Rowland, Pat Hunt, Barbara Baker, and Jim McDonald. Accompanied by a photo of the performers Will Lucas and George Fosgate.

List of Advertisements: None

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 7, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 50

Page: 2

Articles:

“Defense Day”: December 7, 1960 marks the 19th anniversary of the Pearl Harbor. But December 7 is also Civil Defence Day, to pay respects to those who went through the attack. Civil defence isn’t a popular notion but it serves to protect life and minimize damage.

“Letter to the Editor” by David L. Gillette, MArting K. Zachresen, Stephen A. West, Bud Billeter: The editorial asks which logic was being used in the decision to withdraw from the National Student Association. It questions the logic that says offices should be abolished due to lack of results. Lastly, it questions the logic behind the lack of respect for student government.

“Excusals Listed” by A Ray Olpin: President A. Ray Olpin excuses students absent on December 2. The students were at an officially approved University activity. He appreciates the cooperation of the instructors.

“Lumumba Release Asked; FBI checks vote laws” (Continuation from page 1): U.N. Security council meets to discuss the arrest of Congolese Premier Lumumba. A list of nine new unemployment regions is released. The FBI investigates voting irregularities in two states, Illinois and Texas.

List of Advertisements:

1. Classifieds for ski equipment, vehicles, rooms for rent, roommates, rides wanted off campus.

Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus: Two men standing in front of the Probation Officer's office with one talking about limited recreational programs.
2. Little Man on Campus: A male student tells the female student he is appreciative of the professor teaching them to think for themselves because he has decided to drop out of the class.

Issue Date: December 7, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 50

Page: 3

Articles:

“Research fellowships for ‘61 Scholars Announced”: NATO Research fellowships are offered to candidates in membership states. Candidates will work with European Countries. The program aims to promote research leading to publications.

“Engine wives meet”

“Home Journal Art shown at U Gallery”: The University Art Department sponsored an exhibit form “Ladies Home Journal.” It was in Building 441 and ran until December 20. The original pieces are from Jon Whitcomb, Bob Peak and Walter Brigs.

“Navy ROTC Offers Freshman Program”: Offered to male freshman, the program was open for application. Qualifications include a 2.0 scholastic average, good citizenship, and be in a good physical condition. Applications were turned in to the Navy Science Building.

“New York University Announces Europe Trip”: New York University works with the Netherlands University’s Foundation for International Foundation for International cooperation to offer a second summer session in Europe. Classes were taught in English. Subjects include Theory of Comparative Literature, Modern European Drama, Trends in European Thought since 1918, Seventeenth Century European Art and European Common Market, Politics and Economics. Dr. Seymour L. Flaxman of New York University was placed as the contact.

“Newman Club Party”

“Names in the News”: Dennis H. Taylor received a $2000 scholarship in Ceramic Engineering. Dr. J., Vern Hales was under the sponsorship of American Meteorological Society visiting scientist program. Tomiya Ishimatsu attended a Nursing Conference at the University of Washington.

List of Advertisements:

1. McKay Jewelry with the slogan “Diamonds are our business.”
2. Electronic Educator recorder with the slogan “The Amazing Electronic Educator.”
3. Salt Lake School of Electronics with the slogan “Specialized approach to future in electronics.”
4. Holly Hop happening after the game.
5. Dell’s Phillips 66: Service station with the slogan of “Just drive in and stop on the white line, if your valve stem is perpendicular to the line you get 5 gal of gas.”
6. Advertisement for the Annual Book store Christmas open house.

Cartoons and Art: Picture of Margaret Holter Star of Kappa Sigma not connected to an article.

Issue Date: December 7, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 50

Page: 4

Articles:

“Pi Kapas, Sigs to Battle for Volleyball wins”: At 6 p.m. is the playoffs for Intramural volleyball. Pia Kappa Alpha was in 3rd in the division, losing to Sigma chi in 1st. Three teams are competing for the top three spots in the B division.

“Sooner Matmen Set Meet”: University wrestlers started their season on December 13 at 8 p.m., against Oklahoma. Top Oklahoma competitor Dale Lewis was the 1959 National Collegiate Champion. Other Oklahoma wrestlers are George Goodner, David Campbell, Wayne Baughman, Joe Gregg, Joe Chamberlain, Gerald Whitfield, Tony Macias, Reagan Wright and Jerry Tanner. Their coach was Tommy Evans. Accompanied by a photo of Wayne Baughman.

“Utes Meet Evansville in First Home Game”: The basketball team’s first home game was at 8p.m. Against Evansville. Evansville won the NCAA championship in 1959, with their coach Arad McCutchan. Ute coach Jack Gardner started Billy McGill, Rich Ruffle, Jim Rhead, Joe Morton, and Ed Row.

List of Advertisements:

1. Tower Theater promoting Ingmar Bergman’s “A Lesson in Love”
2. A U.S. Air Force Advertisement with the question “Yours?” Over the photo of a plane.
3. Coca-Cola Advertisement with the tagline “Know the answer?”
4. Steve Burton, a diamond store with the promise “I guarantee you’ll be satisfied.”
5. Arthur Frank shoes with the tagline “Campus Classics.”

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 8, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 51

Page: 1

Articles:

“Next Quarter ID Photos will be taken”: Faculty and Employees who want to sue student activity books must have an ID photo taken. ID cards are required to use the activity books at events. The Controller’s Office will have the finished IDs by December 21.

“Reservations for Panorama Still on Sale:” Tickets for the Panorama Presents dinner-dance are still available. The prices have lowered to $4 a couple for the whole event. Dinner reservations were required to be made by noon. Mickey Brian Combo will provided music and Mrs. Alice Hepworth performed a comedy routine.

“Roth Quartet concert to Play Beethoven Works”: The Roth Quartet had performed at 11 a.m. Tickets with activity cards were a dollar-fifty. Quartet members are Feri Rother, Irving Weinstein, Thomas Marrocco and Cesare Pascarella. Accompanied but a photo of Roth and Pascarella.

“University T.V. To Teach Geography I”: Dr. H. Bowman Hawkes televises the Geography I course. Dr. Sherman T. Martin helped with visuals such as slides, graphs and photos. The course aired on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

“WRA Applications”

“Lofouacade to Tell Trends of Chilean Novels”

“Union Study Rooms”

“Senate Kills NSA Referendum; Senators Approve Bill but not Student Poll”: ASUU Senate passed the NSA proposal. PResident Bob Sperry of the senior class was quoted about the event, as well as Keith Olson, Steve Holbrook and Vic Bunderson. According to Steve Brockbank the ballot for the NSA elections will be helps in the spring. (Continued on pg. 2)

“U Actors Stage Kingsley’s Detective Story”: The Playbox by the University advanced acting class performed Sidney Kingsley’s Detective Story. Cast members are Will Lucas, Marilyn Knudsen, Audrey Becker, Beverly Rowland, Pat Hunt, Barbara Baker, and Jim McDonald. The help of the Salt Lake City Police Department was enlisted for accuracy.

“NY Dean MacNamura to Give Crime Institute”: Donal E. J. MacNamura was the Dean of the New York Institute of Criminology. He performed a series of lecture son crime, delinquency, and law enforcement. The Institute wave a two hour credit course with the series.

Issue Date: December 8, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 51

Page: 2

Articles:

“A Poor Show”: The decision of the ASUU Senators was deemed as a poor judgement in this article. The rest of this article lays out the detailed account of the decision and meeting. Steve Holbrook, Steve Brockbank, Larry Anderson, and John Bennion, are all quoted on their opinions.

“Day Opposes Congo Withdrawal” by United Press International: Secretary General Hammerskjord said that the problem with the Congo a decision must be made on the functions of the U.N. Air Force Scientists leave the Discoverer Satellite in orbit. Russian affairs show that the Communist Manifesto has won a voice in China. President-elect Kennedy scheduled appointments with two possible candidates for Secretary of State: Adlai Stevenson and Dean Dusk.

“Senate” (continued from pg 1): This is a continuation of the NSA decision article. The Senate approved the appointment of Lee Case to replace John Colbun. Rick Wunderli replaced Keith Poelman.

List of Advertisements:

1. Classified advertisements for roommates, found keys, part time help, vehicles and ski equipment.

Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus: One college student stressing over a formal dance telling his roommate that since it is a formal dance it wasn't okay to wear your own clothes.

Issue Date: December 8, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 51

Page: 3

Articles:

“KUER Slates Christmas Radio Production Tryouts”: Of a series of 13 shows written by Norman Corbin, “The Plot to Overthrow Christmas” will be the first. Harold Hickman has permission to produce the programs. Tryouts for the holiday products are open and happening at Kingsbury Hall. Accompanied by a picture of Gordon Whiting, Ann Marie Bowden, Richard Borstadt.

“Brando on Agenda”

“Lambda Delts to Hold Chris-Bus Caroling.

“Artists to Display Original Painting”: Paintings by “Ladies Home Journal” were on exhibit in Building 441 until December 20th. The exhibit is sponsored by the Art Department. Mediums used were oil, casein, pen & ink and watercolor.

“Dr. Geerlings to Attend Bible Confab”: Professor of Languages and History Dr. Jacob Geerlings represented the University at the Biblical Literature Society in New York. He will present his paper “New Fragments of Biblical Literature and their importance to the New Testament.” The impact of this paper may be similar to those of Dr. Morten Smith.

“Rifle Pistol Club to Hold Shooting Match.”: The match took place at 7:30 p.m. After was party is scheduled at the Army Firing Range. Pistol shooters needed to report to the Naval ROTC range.

“Resident Utes to Publish Campus News”: The Residence Halls newspaper was “Redskin’s Tepee.” It was published by Dan Raven and Co-edited by Nick Harrison and Monty Hunter. Staff Writers were Allen Austin, Ron Davis, Kris Embry, Jill Anderson, Jack Aamlin and Jim Kaiser.

“New Delta Phi Dream Girl Miss Anderson” Accompanied by a picture of Bonnie Anderson.

List of Advertisements:

1. Calling U with a list of events and deadlines.
2. Holly Hop with the slogan “Won’t be held if you’re not there”
3. Taylor Made Shoes, the oxford shop.
4. Ashtonian with the slogan “Home of the Big Schooner.”
5. Circle A Drive-in with the slogan “Salt Lakes Finest Drive-in”
6. Steve Burton Diamonds with the tagline “I guarantee you’ll be satisfied.
7. The Paris Alley with the tagline “Fashion right clothes priced right down your alley.”

Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 8, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 51

Page: 4

Articles:

“Phi Delts PikA Wasatch Uintah Net V-ball Wins” Accompanied by a photo of the team.

“Faculty Wife Ducats are Still Available”: Ted Jacobson reports that tickets for University Student spouses were still available for games. $14 for 14 home games, which was roughly half the season, and $7 for 7 games. A limited number of faculty season tickets were available as well.

“Watch for Giant Chrony Issue for Christmas”: The large Christmas edition was an annual occurrence. Four pages were dedicated to sports news. A full page was for Ski features by Owen Saunders.

“Utah Smashes Records, Beat Aces 132-79” by Owen Saunders: Utes win over Evansville 132-79. The score of 132 points broke a record for the University. Billy “The Hill” McGill scored a total of 33 points on the floor and 25 rebounds. Accompanied by a photo of the basketball team.

“Ski Lift Altered”

List of Advertisements:

1. Two Taylor Made Shoe Advertisements with the slogan “The Oxford Shop.”
2. McKay Jewelry with the tagline “Diamonds are our business.”
3. Tower Theater promoting Ingmar Berman’s “A Lesson in Love.”
4. Salt Lake School of Electronics with the tagline “Specialized approach to future education.”
5. An advertisement for Chrony Classifieds with the tagline “Hit the Mark.”
6. A remind for Winter quarter tuition
7. An Advertisement for the annual Bookstore open house Christmas party.
8. Graffiti Jones Accident Insurance Agency with the tag “All forms of Insurance.”

Cartoons and Art: None