

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Maddie Colosimo

Issue Date: December 9, 1960

Volume: 1

Number: 1

Page: 2

Articles:

“Got a Case? Then You’re Off!” By Lyne Crockett: An opinion piece by Crockett details the competitive and adrenaline-filled nature of debate tournaments. She uses comparisons to other sports and hobbies to help the audience understand her competitive feelings. The second half takes us through her and her partner’s pre-debate routine.

“Spur of the Month” by Dixie Marchant: Meg Rampton, a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority has been named Spur-of-the month for her exemplary participation in Spur activities.

“With Apologies”

“The Cover”

“The Swingin’ Combo Really Digs That Beat”

List of Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: Picture of Clara Memmott

Issue Date: December 9, 1960

Volume: 1

Number: 1

Page: 3

Articles:

“Bad News Cindy Hits Salt Lake Screens” by Linda Hazen: This is a movie review of the film “Cinderfella.” Hazen talks about each of the actors in their roles and how they contribute to the story. She also provides comparisons to the original “Cinderella” story.

List of Advertisements: Felt-Buchorn; “Adult-Concept Games” like Tactics II, Management, Gettysburg, U-Boat, Dispatcher, and Verdict;

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 9, 1960

Volume: 1

Number: 1

Page: 4

Articles:

“Nutcracker Packs for Out of City”: The entire cast and crew of the Nutcracker Suite is packing their bags for their first performance in Idaho Falls. The cast features Irine Borowska of Ballet Russe and Michael Maule of the New York City Ballet Co. The cost of the performance is around $30,000 which is higher than any year before. Salt Lake City presents The Nutcracker annually along with New York and San Francisco. Many of the performers play more than one role. The company gets new costumes and a new Christmas tree every year.

“Lucky Are Students Who Use U Service” by Adrien Foot: The U.C. Health Service hosts 14 specialists to aid students with medical needs. This includes specialists of internal medicine, a surgeon, an ear nose and throat specialist, three orthopedic specialists, an ophthalmologist, two dermatologists, and full-time nurses. Most of their business is made up of flu shots and polio shots. They are also the only agency in the intermountain area that can administer yellow fever shots for people going abroad. They also provide physical exams and psychiatric evaluations. As much as possible, they try to educate their visitors.

List of Advertisements: Jockey brand briefs

List of Cartoons and Art: Blackstone Tort

Issue Date: December 9, 1960

Volume: 1

Number: 1

Page: 5

Articles:

“Where The Boys Are”: A brief advertisement for a new MGM movie called “Where The Boys Are.” This piece gets the audience to imagine the beaches, cars, and hotels full of the “boys” in Fort Lauderdale, Florida over spring vacation chasing after “girls.” The movie stars Dolores Hart, George Hamilton, Yvette Mimieux, Jim Hutton, Barbara Nichols, Paula Prentiss, Frank Gorshin, and musical star Connie Francis.

List of Advertisements: Tampico Dinner House; Served with True Mexican Hospitality

Issue Date: December 9, 1960
Volume: 1
Number: 1
Page: 6

Articles:

“Only a White Building But it’s a Contribution”: This article talks about the addition of a new building on campus called the Center for Intercultural Studies developed to help people understand Middle Eastern culture. They advertise how important it is that staff is frequently available to assist in their Arabic studies. The center frequently hosts social hours for students to attend to and learn about various Arab cultures.

“Life’s Not Always Study, Engies Have Fun Too” by Fern Redden: This article talks about the extracurricular activities available for engineering majors. This includes an Oyster Stew, two fraternities, and a student engineering magazine called “Utechnic.” They also take an annual trip. In 1959, they got to travel to Los Angeles. They also host frequent fundraisers.

List of Advertisements: Bud’s Duds for Men, Oxford Shirts

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 9, 1960
Volume: 1
Number: 1
Page: 7

Articles:

“Senior Finds Campus Evils” by Maria Goss: In this piece Goss is writing a reflection of her time at the University of Utah now that she has become a senior. She talks about her time in Greek life and their out-of-the-box rituals. She then goes on to list some of the lessons she’s learned from being a student as well as a few lessons she’s yet to figure out.

List of Advertisements: Schreyer’s Typewriter Rentals; The Oxford Shop, the Cum Laude collection of Oxford shirts

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: December 9, 1960
Volume: 1

Number: 1
Page: 8

List of Advertisements: A reminder to include the cost of books in the price of tuition

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: January 5, 1960
Volume: 70
Number: 54
Page: 1

Articles:

“As Holidays Close, Utes Open Books, Late-Comers Pay Fee; Police Issue Citations”: This brief article talks about the students coming back from winter break registering for classes at the student union. They also talk about campus police handing out parking violations. The rest of the article detailed where to register, late registration fees, and unpaid tuition inquiry.

“Panel, Artist to Liven Quarter” by Meg Rampton: This article talks about some upcoming events that winter quarter. The first one was a philosophy forum discussing the paper of Richard G. Henson. Notably, the second event is Marcel Marceau coming to Kingsbury Hall for a mime performance. Rampton also mentions the kinds of things included in his act. The final event Rampton mentions is a couple of films screenings, “Alberta Outdoors” and “India.”

“ID Snapshots Available in Spencer Hall”

“Saturday Night Concert Features Guest Artists”: In this brief piece, they are advertising ticket sales for the last six performances for the Utah Symphony Orchestra. An all-concerto performance is included and the University Choral society will also be performing.

“Applications Called For Insurance Plan”

“Fraternity Rush to Open For Students”: Fraternity Rush has begun during the 1961 winter quarter. This short section gives all the details on when Rush will begin, who is eligible to rush, and that eleven fraternities are participating.

List of Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: A photo of University students lining up to register for winter quarter classes; Photo of pantomimist Marcel Marceau who is to perform at Kingsbury Hall

Issue Date: January 5, 1960
Volume: 70
Number: 54
Page: 2

Articles:

“Letters to the Editor” Whose Seats? By Mike Kirkman: Here, Kirkman is expressing a grievance over a lack of seats in the student section in the field house. The people in charge of ticketing and the athletic department are selling off these seats to anyone who will buy them while students are fighting over seats. If people don’t show up the seats remain empty, while students fight to get in. Kirkman is asking for change and fears that in the years to come, there will be no such thing as student seats.

“Local News”: This brief piece begins by talking about a fresh start with a new year and a new winter quarter at the U. However, the writer transitions into talking about the, then, global crisis in Laos and Cuba. They shed light on the fact that people out there are going cold and hungry. Interestingly, they call upon an editorial from the Daily Utah Chronicle from 1942 talking about the global crisis going on then with WWII. They end by taking inspiration from the editorial by saying college men and women are to make “sane preparations” and not panic.

List of Advertisements: Circle a Drive-In, a brand new drive-in movie theater

List of Cartoons and Art: Cartoon called “Little Man on Campus” no artist credited.

Issue Date: January 5, 1960
Volume: 70
Number: 54
Page: 3

Articles:

“Fellowship Applications for Poland, Romania Due”: This brief piece is advertising a graduate study program in Poland and Romania. It goes on to list the benefits and requirements for both programs.

“Debate Team Cops First Place”: The University of Utah debate team was invited to the first annual Duke City Invitational Debate Tourney at the University of New Mexico. Seniors Kent Berg and Victor Bunderson came home with a first place trophy. The team was then headed out to the University of Redlands for a championship debate tournament contest. They went up against several Ivy League schools.

“TK’s Receive Ute Books in Union Exchange Mart”: This piece talks about an upcoming book exchange in which student can sell their old textbooks to students who currently need them. They also mention incentives for people to participate like discount theater tickets.

“Education Students to Receive Tests”: This is a brief notice that all students wishing to enroll in the Teacher Credential Program must take a series of psychological tests before doing so.

“Navy Newslester”

List of Advertisements: “Calling U,” Hygeia Iceland, Ice Skate for Fun; Advertisement for a tour of Europe summer of ‘61; Lawrence Radiation Laboratory, campus visit to answer questions about careers in nuclear research.

List of Cartoons and Art: Photo of Kent Berg and Victor Bunderson with their championship debate trophy, photo unattributed;

Issue Date: January 5, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 54

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utes Support Underground Mine”: This brief piece talks about the College of Mine’s underground mine on campus. The mine was a two level shaft located near the married student’s housing. It is a laboratory used to test classroom theory. Around 500 students have worked down there.

News in a Nutshell* “U.S. Staff Leaves Cuba: Hecklers Hault U.N. Talks by United Press International”: This article talks about the staffers from the U.S. embassy in Cuba leaving after thousands of women marched in Havana shouting anti-American chants. Heckler disrupted U.N. proceedings for the U.S. plans to invade Cuba. An airplane meant to pick up remaining Americans from the embassy came back to Miami came back with Cubans seeking asylum.

“Aliens Must Report”

“Beta Bag Chosen”

List of Advertisements: Utah Symphony tickets on sale; REA E.E. Seniors job inquiry; Course of study at the Institute of Religion; University Bookstore, loose leaf notebooks $1.59

List of Cartoons and Art: Photo of Pete Campino and Glenn Orr working in the underground mine; Photo of Pat Robinson, the new Beta Bag;

Issue Date: January 5, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 54

Page: 5

Articles:

“Sportscope” by Marcellus Snow: This article is a recap of the tournament the basketball team played in over Christmas break. They lost to Ohio State but gained recognition in the national basketball standings. Snow then calls out BYU for blaming their losses their head coach by saying, how good could the team be if all his players go on missions when they turn 19?

“Arch Rivals Set Cage Battle”: This is a sports editorial talking about the basketball team’s upcoming games. They first mention their rivals, Utah State, and talk about the leading scorer, Billy McGill. It ends with a game announcement against New Mexico.

“Chestang Signs For Professional Football”

List of Advertisements: University Bookstore, scholarly paperback from all University Presses; Ashtonian, “Home of the Big Schooner”; IK book exchange discount cards, the biggest little deal on campus;

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: January 5, 1960

Volume: 70

Number: 54

Page: 6

Articles:

“Kurzwengen” by Owen L. Saunders: This article announces a ski race to be held at Alta ski resort. Many competitors from all over the country will be coming in to participate. They announce a need for 20 gatekeepers. They then discuss what it meant not to have their star skier, Jim Gaddis, out due to injury. It ends with a quip about students coming back from break with epic ski goggle tan lines.

“Solitude Ski Resort Announces Closing”

List of Advertisements: Viggo’s toggery, clearance sale; Student Insurance for sale; AC Spark plug seeks top talent;

List of Cartoons and Art: Keith Longson and Tom Spencer skiing at Alta

Issue Date: January 6, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 55

Page: 1

Articles:

“AEC Grants for Utah’s Universities Applied in Research”: The University of Utah received more than 3 million dollars in grant money for its radiation research which had been underway since 1950. The article then goes on to talk about other university’s research who also received a portion of the grant. The University of Utah received the largest chunk at around $3,552,528. The article explains that the main research that was done by the University of Utah was the study of toxicity of plutonium, radium, mesothorium, radiothorium, and strontium in dogs. The U was also loaned a nuclear materials including 690 grams of U-235. Finally, it concludes with studies being done in Nevada test sites.

“Moving Forward Symposium Title, State Leaders to Discuss State’s Future” by Elaine Krans:

This article talks about an upcoming event in which prominent Utah leaders will gather in the union ballroom to discuss important matters. Notable participants include: Gov. George D. Clyde, D. James Cannon who will talk about putting Utah’s best foot forward, Ernest Linford who will discuss making the most of Utah’s resources, William Smart who will talk about how well informed the public is of Utah’s needs, Gus Backman, Mrs. James W. Ure III. The governor will be speaking on progress and budget.

“New ID Cards Ready For Students”

“Utonian Picture Date Made For Seniors”

“A Function of Philosophy, Forum Topic”: The Forum topic is Speculation and Analysis: the function of philosophy. Richard G. Henson’s paper will also be discussed. There will be three other forums scheduled for future dates.

“Wolf, Peck, Gladstone to Play for Concerto Night” by Margie Burgon: Concerto night was held at the Salt Lake Tabernacle featuring Harold Wolf and Sally Peck on violin and viola. Gladys Gladstone was also be on piano. Tickets for students were available for pickup, the cheapest option was to purchase a season ticket.

“Jazz Festival Entrants Due”

“Utes Vague On NSA Issue, Says Bennion”: Student Body President John Bennion says most people are unfamiliar with National Student Association. Utah State’s executive council offered to counsel the U’s exec on issues students face.

List of Advertisements: None

Lists of Cartoons and Art: Photographs of Gov. George D. Clyde, William Smart, Ernest Linford, Gus Backman, Mrs, James W. Ure, and James Cannon.

Issue Date: January 6, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 55

Page: 2

“Important But”: Writer predicts a decade of science. They refers to the large grant the University received from the Atomic Energy Commision for research on radiation etc. Then, they talk about Time Magazine’s 15 U.S. scientists. It concludes with the philosophical implications of scientific advancement.

“Letters to the Editor”: Shauna Newton is expressing a grievance about general education classes at the University. Her professors, “come or else” policy has left it hard to find seating and the syllabus doesn’t give clear assignment details like duet dates. Class lectures are disappointing, neither the students nor the teachers care to be there, and there is an attendance loophole that is far too easy to use. Shauna hopes something will be done.

“It Ain’t So...”: The writers from the Chronicle are addressing a misconception. That is, you have to know someone, be a professional journalist, or take certain classes to be on the newspaper, and this isn’t the case. They welcome all kinds of people and are always looking to fill positions at the beginning of each quarter.

“No New Guns”

List of Advertisements: Union Movie’s Presents, “Tea and Sympathy”; The Terrace, Johnny Preston; You’ll Get a Boot Out of Kall.

List of Classified Ads: Help Wanted; Seeking Roommate; Transportation; Personal; For Rent; Lost

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: January 6, 1961

Volume: 70
Number: 55
Page: 3

Articles:

“Students Pick Building to Blow Down and Build Up”: The Annex is too far away from the main campus that it discourages students from taking classes there. Nancy Lou Jones wishes for the annex to be built across from Orson Spencer Hall. Bob Pexton also want the Annex to be rebuilt and does not want it to be the Pioneer Theater. The Athletic Fieldhouse was also mentioned, so they can expand seating. Paul Ward would like more parking spaces so he’s not always late to class looking for a spot. Michael Hilton and Pat Minke want the buildings in President’s Circle to be rebuilt.

“Some Fashion Resolutions for ‘61” by Diane Marler: Marler offers the idea to make a New Year’s fashion resolution list. She recommends a flattering new suit, a basic colored hat, good pairing jewelry, a packet dress, a waist flattering dress, non-white or pale shade of gloves, wear bright colors, a neutral suit or two piece, vivid prints for summer, hamonious accessories, one gorgeous pair of shoes, and finally maintain good grooming habits.

“Moneylessness Accounts for Datelessness”: Many men find themselves with empty piggy banks this new year, but the Phi Delts are hosting a welcome back after the holiday party. Sigma Pi will also be hitting the Brighton slopes.

List of Advertisements: Viggo’s Toggery, Year End Sale; Unitarian Church with service times; Andy’s Smorgasbord and Prime Rib.

List of Cartoons and Ads: Political Cartoon, scientific commentary.

Issue Date: January 6, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 55
Page: 4

Articles:

“Exchange Group to See Europe”: Eight groups of 20 American college students will explore a European city. They will take a seminar in area studies while living in either, Germany, Austria, France, or Spain. They will have several cultural exchange opportunities like social events, lectures and museum visits. Frank D. Hirschbach believes this program will teach students more than if they were to learn a language in a classroom.

“TK Textbook Exchange Now Open”: Used textbooks can be put up for sale at the textbook exchange between 9 am and 5 pm. Many of the books at the exchange are no longer in use by professors and they ask that the owners pick them up. Fox Theater will also be there handing out coupons.

“Testing for Education Student’s Scheduled”

“Medical Insurance”

List of Advertisements: Bennett Ford, “A Bennett Ford car is a better buy!”; Plan your future with a leader in space science; Now showing at the Tower Theater, Lawrence Olivier as “The Entertainer”; Calling “U” textbook exchange

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: January 6, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 55

Page: 5

Articles:

“Bomb Explodes in La Paz; Church Opposed in Cuba”: A bomb exploded near U.S. Ambassador Carl Strom’s car last night in La Paz, Bolivia. Cuban militia has seized two Catholic seminaries in Havana. Representative Victor Anfuso says Cuban premier plans to let Russia build missiles on their land. The senate has accepted a three-fifths vote instead of a two-thirds vote. Actress June Allyson and producer Dick Powell have come to domestic relations court unsure if they are headed for legal separation or divorce.

“Limited Number of BYU Ducats will be Peddled”

“Hess Calls Thinclads to New Meeting”

“Spots Still Open for Gatekeeping Chores”

List of Advertisements: Utah Symphony; Bell Telephone Companies, “Give a man a tough job and a chance to go somewhere...and he’ll break his neck to do it.”; KWIC 1570 daytime radio

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: January 6, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 55

Page: 6

Articles:

“Utes Battle Aggies at Logan Saturday”: This article talks about the upcoming basketball match up against two powerhouses in the Skyline conference; Utah and Utah State. The U will rely heavily on Center and leading scorer Billy McGill. They will be played for the highly coveted spot in the NCAA championship. The game is at Utah State which could leave the Utes disadvantaged. The starting lineup for the Utes will be Joe Morton, Ed Rowe, Jim Rhead, Rich Ruffell, and Billy McGill.

“Swimmers, Matmen To Stage Crucial Meets”: Along with the basketball game this week are a swim meet and a wrestling match. The wrestling team just beat the Oklahoma Sooners and the Swim team is the defending Skyline champion. Wrestling will face off against other rocky mountain teams.

List of Advertisements: Old Spice stick deodorant, “By land or sea, you need this social security”;
House of Pizza

List of Cartoons and Art: None