“An Investigation...” The ASUU senate is announcing its investigation on the University’s Parking. It has been reported that there are 5,000 registered vehicles on campus and only 3,000 parking spaces. Students are upset that the Senate is focusing on other topics, not the ones to promote the daily campus life. Students only hope that they will take ownership and help with this problem.

“Letters to the Editor”: A man named Wayne Cook writes to the letter about how it was stated that the fall Pen is “new and better.” Cook states that this is not a true statement. The fall pen is supposed to be new and better in the sense of appearance, as well as respect and presumption. Cook states that the pen is using all of its funds to publish their own work as well as those who they are friends with. A man named W.T. James refutes an older letter to the editor. He states tht there are several good pieces of writing that is done in a tasteful way and there should be no reason to apologize for the writing that has been done.

“Applications for Chrony Heads are Due Today”: Six-month appointments to serve with the Chronicle are open for applications now. Those applications are due by 5:00pm today in Union 266. Positions are for editor-in-chief, managing editor, and business manager of The Chronicle. Interviews with the Publications Council will take place for those who apply.

“Kurzwegen” by Owen L. Saunders: The size of the Ute ski team is shrinking. The team will find it hard to compete against other teams that are up to three times their size. A Ute victory looks doubtful this weekend in Colorado. The annual Majestic Cup, held by the Usquebaugh National Ski club, will be held this Saturday and Sunday. Utah Ski Patrol patches are being mistaken for other occupations or being held with fraud. The honor system is expected to not impersonate Ski Patrol.

“Ute Win Breaks Century Mark” by Echard Herring: The University of Utah Runnin’ Redskins beat the century mark for the fourth time this season. There was a total of 50 personal fouls and the Utes won by 45 points to New Mexico. Both the first half and second half of the game started sloppily and slowly but managed to come back to win the game. The difference in shooting percentages played a large role in the outcome.

“Denver to Test Ute Strength”: The University’s Runnin’ Redskins will be challenged by the University of Denver team on Saturday at 8:00 p.m. at Einar Nielsen Fieldhouse. This is a “must” win for the Utah five. Students will be able to enter with the presentation of their ID card and activated winter quarter activity card.
