

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Liam Elkington

Issue Date: January 20, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 65

Page: 7

Articles:

“Santa & Cupid Leave Rings For Ute Coeds,” by Diane Marler: Many students became engaged over the holiday break. Names of the students as well as their fraternity or sorority of membership are listed.

“Junior Prom Slices List Of Uteville Get-Togethers”: Several weekend events are announced, including an annual Diamond Princess ball, a luncheon exchange, a pajama party, and a comedy talent show hosted in the Panorama room. Names of students involved in the festivities are Russ McClland, Vicki Andersen, Richard Maris, Margo Taylor, Jim Johnson, Sally Coltrin, Gary Coe, Bob Soleway, Jim Barber, Jim Bennet, Anamarie Enderlin, Byron Boyer, Lynn Malory, Ted Merrill, Rosie Colombo, Bob Mullan Sidney Lucas, Jack Sundberg, Carolyn Lasater, Bob Anderson, Mary Shea.

“Lady's Lover Set”: The French film “Lady Chatterley's Lover” is being screened by Famous and Foreign films Sunday and Monday in the Little Union Theater. Admission is 25 cents, and the film is shown in original French dialogue with English subtitles.

“Crime Expert Slates Talks For Credit”: Donal E. J. MacNamara, dean of The New York Institute of Criminology, will start a lecture series which takes place each evening Monday through Friday in the Spencer auditorium. Students may enroll for credit, and A.S. Cannon, chairman of the Extension Division, encourages the public to attend free of charge. A photograph of MacNamara is included.

List of Advertisements:

1. Ad for a local radio station, KWIC, with the slogan “The Album Station.” Lists names like Sinatra, Cole, and Fitzgerald as examples of types of music played on air.
2. Recruitment ad for IBM. It encourages young engineers to consider looking for an IBM representative on campus later that year if interested in job opportunities. The slogan is “You naturally have a better chance to grow with a growth company.”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 20, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 65

Page: 8

Articles:

“Kurzwengen,” by Owen L. Saunders: This editorial announces the annual senior championship ski race held in Alta by the Intermountain Ski Association. The event is anticipated to attract skiers from surrounding schools, and a great deal of participants for the two-day event over the weekend. Former Olympic competitor Marvin Melville is scheduled to set the slalom course. Additionally, this editorial examines the possibility of the Solitude ski area reopening after a lengthy closure, as well as recommending an article from Ski Life magazine to those looking to improve their ski skills and ends with a hope that February will bring more snowfall. A photograph of Marvin Melville is included.

“Cougars, Grizzlies Will Gun for Utah Upset”: The Utes basketball team is scheduled to play a sold-out game against BYU in Provo, and against Montana University at Einar Nielsen field house. The Utes have a good record in the conference, and have improved dramatically. Center Billy McGill scored 41 points in a recent game against Denver, but BYU has improved as well, thanks in part to their coach Stan Watts. Dave Eastis is also a threat on the BYU team. Montana coach Frosty Cox is having difficulty maintaining a roster, with the only named players for Montana being Duane Ruegsegger and Steve Lowry. Utah coach Jack Gardner plans to have a starting lineup of previously mentioned Billy McGill, Jim Rhead, Rich Ruffell, Joe Morton, and Ed Rowe. In reserve will be Bo Crain and Joe Aufderheide. A photograph of Bo Crain, reserve guard for the team, is included.

List of Advertisements

1. An imported dress fabric store, the ad for “Ber-Chez” bears the slogan “For women who KNOW.”
2. Salt Lake Costume advertises to capitalize on prom season, asking the viewer to “Look your best at the prom.”
3. House of Pizza advertises not only for their pizza, but also for their chicken, fried shrimp, and steak by the ounce.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 23, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 66

Page: 1

Articles:

“Campus Readies for Birthday 111 Special Month of Events Marks U Founder's Day”: Starting February 1st, several events will be held to celebrate the U's 111th birthday, starting with a reception for Iranian Ambassador His Excellency Ardeshir Zahedi held by President and Mrs. A. Ray Olpin in the Union building. A special Middle Eastern Exhibit will remain throughout the month, and other events highlighting the success of the graduate school under the director Dean Henry Eyring. A photograph of President A. Ray Olpin, Dean Henry Eyring, and Sterling M. McMurrin standing together is included.

“Development of The Scientist Topics Lecture”: A lecture will be held that night in Chem 104 by Dr. Calvin W. Taylor on what research indicates makes the qualities of a good scientist. The event is hosted by Sigma Xi as part of their annual Distinguished Faculty lectures.

“Government Advisors to Counsel Students”: Representatives from The United States Civil Service commission Allan W. Howerton (of the commission's Denver office) and Clark H. Stohl (the commissions Utah representative) will be on campus. They will be interviewing students interested in achieving employment with the federal government. Students who graduate in physical sciences such as mathematics or biology may compete for entry level positions via written examination.

“Chrony Snags Record Loss From Universe”: Distraught after the U's Redskins basketball team lost to BYU over the weekend, the writing staff of The Daily Utah Chronicle traveled to Provo to challenge the writing staff of the BYU student paper, The Universe. The Chronicle writers failed to revenge the Redskins' loss, and the final score was 53 to 13.

“Crime Institute Will Begin Today,” by Charlotte Garff: Dr. A. S. Cannon announced the beginning of a two-week lecture series on criminology to be held in the Orson Spencer Hall auditorium. Featured speakers include Donal E. J. MacNamara, criminologist, editorial writer H. F. Kretchman, Third District Juvenile Court Judge Monroe J. Paxman, and Ward C. Holbrook, Commissioner of the Utah State Welfare Department. The lectures may be attended for credit, but are also open to the public. Names of additional guests set to preside over the lectures is listed. A photograph of Dr. A. S. Cannon is included.

“Chem Confab To Feature Wheelwright”: Dr. Earl J. Wheelwright from the Richland, Washington General Electric Company will deliver a lecture today in room 104 of the chemistry building.

“‘Chrony’ Is Topic” The Chronicle itself is holding an open discussion meeting in the Union IK room at noon. Students are encouraged to attend and ask staff questions about topics like “Is The Chronicle fair and accurate in its reporting?”

“Ute NSA Committee Calls for Applications”: The NSA is currently accepting applications for committee positions, according to NSA Campus Coordinator Bob Clark.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 23, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 66

Page: 2

Articles:

“A Big Order...” This is a reaction piece to President John F. Kennedy's inaugural address, which had taken place the previous Friday. The article is somewhat skeptical of Kennedy's promises to enact more programs to aid the poor, but admits that such a feat would qualify him as an extraordinary president.

“Add to the List”: This article muses on the importance of the printed word, in light of last week being national Printing Week. The author argues that the printed word is one of America's most important mediums, and that without it humanity may still be wallowing in the Dark Ages.

“This Week We Honor”: A highlight of student Lance Gudmundsen, including some of his achievements, like being a member of the Homecoming and Library committees. Included is a photograph of Gudmundsen.

“W. Va. College Attempts Teacher Education Trial”: Dean Orlo Strunk Jr. of West Virginia Wesleyan College announced a new teacher's education program. The program will be administered through individual campuses, rather than through the state.

“Judge Has No Case; Man's Locked in Jail,” by United Post International: A compilation of humorous news stories throughout the world. The title refers to one story where a man failed to appear at his court date regarding public intoxication because he was in jail, drunk.

“Chronicle Positions Are Now Available”: Those interested in working with The Chronicle should enquirer with Linda Covey, managing-editor-designate.

“The Daily Utah Chronicle”: A credits section listing Chronicle staff, including Editor-in-Chief Lance Gudmundsen and Business Manager John Coldesina.

List of Advertisements:

1. Classified ads for things like items for sale, property for rent, and tutoring.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A cartoon by Bi Buer

Issue Date: January 23, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 66

Page: 3

Articles:

“Contemporary Festival Scheduled,” by Susan Woodward: A concert will be held at Kingsbury Hall Thursday at 8:00PM as part of the Annual Festival of Contemporary Music, hosted in conjunction with the Utah Symphony Orchestra. The performance will be directed by Maurice Abravanel. Featured soloists are Prof. Louis W. Booth on the oboe, and Douglas Craig on the bassoon. A photograph of Abravanel, Booth, and Craig together is included.

“Names in the News”: A compilation of announcements for several events regarding students and faculty. Names mentioned are Richard E. Cale, Dr. Kenneth E. Eble, El Le Roy Bellows, Prof. John H. Barrett, and Prof. William J. Coles.

“Post-Graduate Fellowships Now Available”: Nationally sponsored fellowships for post-grad students are announced for most majors, but applicants are preferred to be interested in college teaching.

“Business Fraternity Pledges Members”: Phi Chi Theta and Theta Sigma Phi recently pledged new members. A list of the new inductees is included.

“AWS Sponsor Drive”: The Associated Women Students will host a clothing drive Thursday and Friday for the benefit of Salvation Army. Donations are asked to be brought to the Union building.

“Ute Debaters To Host Invitational”: Several other Utah college debate teams are invited to participate in a debate event held January 26th through the 28th. Karlynn Hinman will be assistant debate coach, and Julie Ford and Steve Wood will be debate managers.

“George Shaw's 'Pygmalion' Plays for Utes,” by Merlena Chipman: “Pygmalion,” a comedy by George Bernard Shaw has been adapted into a musical and is showing Friday and Saturday in The Playbox Theater. Cast member's names are included.

“Oregon Beckons Prep Smarties,” by Intercollegiate Press: Oregon high school seniors may be accepted to Oregon State University at any time provided that they earn an average grade of B or higher. This program was announced by President A.L. Strand, and comments are provided from acting Admissions Director Dallas Norton.

“Banquet Scheduled”: Jack M. Reed, president of Kappa Tau Alpha announced their annual banquet where journalistic awards are given.

“Calling 'U'”

List of Advertisements:

1. Ad for Mikado Japanese restaurant, No slogan is present.
2. The American Institute for Foreign Trade is advertised, with the slogan “When you graduate, the world is yours.”
3. An ad for The Chronicle classifieds. A woman is pictured telling a man “I forgot to read the classified ads in The Chronicle. (Don't you forget.)”

List of Cartoons and Art

None

Issue Date: January 23, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 66

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utah Bows to Cougars, Defeats Grizzlies”: The Utes basketball team was defeated by BYU at the George Albert Smith fieldhouse in Provo on Friday. The final score was 91 to 86. Utah's Bill McGill and Provo's Dave Eastis are credited as both playing well.

“Jack Keeps SS on the Go; Record Cold Strikes U.S.,” by United Press International: A summary of national and international news stories, including one about President Kennedy visiting a friend before attending church, and a report of record-low temperatures in the eastern United States.

“Win Places 'Skins in Skyline Second Spot”: A recounting of the Utah Redskins basketball team and their victory over the Montana University Grizzlies on Saturday, with the final score being 72 to 56. Several players from both teams are mentioned, and Bill McGill is again credited as being a top-scorer for Utah.

“U.S. Technical Assistance Program Open”: The International Cooperation Administration is looking for applicants to assist in technological training for developing countries, as announced by Dr. S. G. Rich of the Institute of International Studies.

List of Advertisements:

1. The New Foundation is advertised, with the slogan “Join the new march of dimes.”
2. A sale is advertised for Hibbs clothing store.
3. NoDoz caffeine pills are advertised, with the slogan “Be perspicacious!”
4. Marvin Mellvile is selling French bicycles.
5. Tower Theaters has listings of movies being played.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 67

Page: 1

Articles:

“Publications Meet”: Announcement of a meeting for the staffs of Utah publications The Chronicle, Utonjan, and Pen in room 243 of The Union.

“Chess Champ Challenges Campsites”: Five-time U.S. Chess Champion and Grand Master Samuel Reshevsky is coming to campus February 8th to participate in an event hosted by The Union Games Committee and the YMCA chess club.

“U Fraternities To Conduct Rush Events”: School fraternities and sororities are conducting rush events. All of the 11 fraternities are participating, and the sororities participating are Alpha Delta Phi, Alpha Phi, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Phi Mu.

“Maurice Abravanel To Conduct Musical Confab”: Thursday night is scheduled for the second concert in the annual Festival of Contemporary Music. Pieces to be performed, soloists Louis Booth and Douglas Craig, and director Maurice Abravanel are all mentioned.

“NY Dean Gives Crime Institute”: Dean of the New York Institute of Criminology Donal E.J. MacNamara delivered his first lecture in a series on Monday night in Orson Spencer Huall auditorium. His topic was “Mafia and Other Criminal Societies.” Further lectures are scheduled. A photograph of MacNamara lecturing is included.

“Government Furnishes Counselors,” by Carol Peck: Two representatives of the United States Civil Service commission are on campus today, Allan W. Howerton and Clark H. Stohl. They will be interviewing those interested in seeking employment with the federal government starting at 9:00AM in the Park building.

“Chrony Posts Now Open To Applicants”: Those interested in open positions on The Chronicle staff are encouraged to contact incoming Managing Editor Linda Covey. Three positions are available, namely sports editor, feature editor, and campus editor.

“Prom Tickets Now on Sale”: Tickets to the junior prom are now sold daily in the Union from 10:00AM to 2:00PM. Andre Previn will be performing at the prom.

“Geology Museum Trades For Saber Tooth Head”: The University Geology Museum recently completed a trade with Los Angeles County Museum in which Utah offered an Allosaurus skeleton which was “fairly complete,” according to Dr. William Lee Stokes of the geology department. IN return, the Utah museum received a skull of a saber tooth tiger, the only one in the state. Curator for the geology museum Jim Madsen is pictured in an included photograph with Dr. Stokes where they are examining the skull.

“Wheelwright To Talk on Ion-Exchange”: Dr. Earl J. Wheelwright of the Richland, Washington General Electric Company will lecture in room 104 of the chemistry building tonight.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 67

Page: 2

Articles:

“Teen Age Credit...” Some stores nation-wide are electing to offer credit programs to teenagers. Some are opposed to the idea, thinking that it encourages irresponsible spending, while some view it as a valuable opportunity for maturation.

“Stolen,” by Tim Jones: A letter to the editor in which Jones describes how several paintings have gone missing from the Union building while on exhibit or otherwise shown for competition. He calls the Union “...a miserable joint anyway to hang a painting in...” and calls for the migration of art pieces from the Union to the Art Building.

“Greek Bouquet,” by Miss E. Delores Aiello: A letter to the editor in which Aiello commends the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity for their work with her association, The Salt Lake County Association for Retarded Children.

“Viva Seating,” by Bill Folland and Sue Cross: A letter to the editor in which the authors express their appreciation to the junior prom committee for making the decision to have concert attendees seated rather than standing. They argue that this will result in a better concert experience.

“Typical Solution,” by L. H. Coon: A letter to the editor in which Coon laments how campus problems are solved, comparing the issue of on-campus parking to more serious complaints like the facilities of the law school and teaching methods used for education majors.

“Abolish Taxes”: A recounting of a correspondence between then president-elect John F. Kennedy and Corrine Griffith in which Griffith implores Kennedy to back her campaign to abolish income tax.

“Meet Scheduled”: The WRA Carnival committee is meeting in room 319 of The Union. Members of other student organizations are encouraged to attend in order to plan booths and activities for the carnival. Dick Ruppel and Jim Rhead are co-chairs of the committee.

“The Daily Utah Chronicle”

List of Advertisements:

1. Classified ads for things such as help wanted for a housekeeping, services for tutoring, as well as items for sale.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A cartoon series “Little Man on Campus” by Bi Buer

Issue Date: January 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 67

Page: 3

Articles:

“Dr. Woodruff Appointed As New Education Dean,” by David Blackstone: Dr. Asahel D. Woodruff was recently appointed dean of the College of Education. He had previously served in this position at BYU, and is a member of many social and academic clubs.

“Pincipalship Training Announced” Classes for prospective school principals will be held Thursday evenings at Milton Bennion Hall by Dr. F. Robert Paulsen.

“Colonel Brindle To Inspect Military Science” The military science department will be inspected today by by Col. Harry C. Brindle, Deputy Commander of the Tenth Corps, and Lieutenant Col. Dale A. Hardisty.

“NSA Applications”: Applications for the NSA are currently being accepted, according to coordinator Bob Clark.

“Honor Roll”: A list of Honor Roll student names, continued from a previous issue.

“AIU Teaches In French And English”: The Institute for American Universities clarifies an ad it recently ran in The Chronicle for it's study abroad program that the courses taught the University of Aix-Marseilles will also be taught in English.

“Pi Mu Epsilon Features Math Head”: Department head of mathematics Dr. C. R. Wylie will lecture Thursday on the math building at a meeting of Pi Mu Epsilon.

“Salary”

List of Advertisements:

1. A list of committee meetings, the section is titled “Calling 'U”
2. Tower Theaters lists current films being shown
3. Ad for Hygeia Iceland, an ice-skating rink
4. Schreyer's advertises the “Olympia” model of typewriter
5. An ad for The Chronicle classifieds, with the slogan “Lacey and Lovely! Not unlike a Chronicle Classified ad.”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 67

Page: 4

Articles:

“Cougars Name New Grid Coach”: President of BYU Dr. Ernest L. Wilkenson named Hal Mitchell as the new head coach of BYU's football team.

“Redskin Matmen Win 3 Meets,” by Eckhard Herrig: The Utah Redskins wrestling team won several meets, most notably against BYU. Other schools they faced were Portland State and Oregon University. Coach Marv Hess was pleased with the performance of his athletes, some of which are Frank Hanklin and Doug Bingham, who are pictured in a photograph included in the article.

List of Advertisements:

1. A schedule for co-recreation sports like bowling, swimming and volleyball
2. An advertisement for The New Foundation, with the slogan "Join the new march of dimes"
3. Old Spice advertises for its stick deodorant with the slogan "When things get too close for comfort"

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 68

Page: 1

Articles:

"Staffs to Party": The staffs of the school publications The Chronicle, Pen, and Utonian are holding their quarterly social today in room 243 of the Union. Dick Aadmodt, editor for Utonian says the public is welcome.

"McMurrin May Get Top Education Post": Academic Vice President Dr. Sterling M. McMurrin is being considered for the position of U.S. Commissioner of Education. Dr. McMurrin flew to Washington Monday morning and met with Abraham Ribicoff of the Health, Education and Welfare department. The article contains endorsements for McMurrin from state Senator Frank E. Moss (D-UT) and Representative David S. King (D-UT.)

"Olpin Discusses Foreign Student President Says Foreign Groups Do The Job": President A. Ray Olpin met with members of the ASUU to discuss how to better integrate foreign students into the school body. Dr. Olpin has faith that student groups perform this task well, but may need more direction. This meeting was spurred by comments made by ASUU President John Bennion, who expressed concern for the welfare of foreign students.

"Prom Ducats On Sale At Huddle": The junior prom is scheduled for Friday, and tickets will remain on sale throughout the week at the Huddle Room booth in the Union. The prom will feature a performance by Andre Previn. A photograph of students Jackie Back, Bea Holmes and Gordon Jennings is included.

"T.V. Mathematics Course Open For Campus Credit": A televised math course is available for credit through the Extension Division Home Study Department in conjunction with the math department. The lectures will be present by Prof. Fredrick Mosteller of Harvard University and Prof Paul C. Clifford of Montclair State College.

"Modern Music Confab Set For Thursday," by Celia Alston: Maurice Abravanel with featured soloists Louis Booth and Douglas Craig will be participating in the annual Festival of Contemporary Music in conjunction with the Utah Symphony Orchestra. The event will be Thursday evening at Kingsbury Hall.

“Crime Institute Continues This Week”: Donal E. J. MacNamara, Dean of the New York Institute of Criminology will continue his lecture series. Several other guest speakers are listed.

“AWS Clothing Drive to Help Needy”: AWS is hosting a clothing drive Thursday and Friday as a service to Salvation Army. Chairman Diane Chase stated that warm clothing is needed. A photograph is included of students Judy Carlisle and Anita Lentz examining donation items.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 68

Page: 2

Articles:

“A Serious Problem”: This article contains a quote from Charles D. Clark, in which he bemoans the state of crime in America, and in part blames lack of education in areas like criminology. The University of Utah has recently expanded it's courses offered in criminology, and is doing it's part for the country in battling this problem.

“NSA Comprises 390 Colleges”: The United States National Student Association is now made up of 390 colleges nationwide. The purpose of the association as well as some of its policies are outlined.

“The City Below”: While not many U of U students will know poverty, there are many in Salt Lake City who will. The AWS clothing drive is a great opportunity to enact the Christian values of helping one another.

“More Absences...”

List of Advertisements:

1. Classified ads for such things as items for sale, properties for rent, and a lost-and-found section.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. An edition of cartoon “Little Man On Campus” by Bi Buer

Issue Date: January 25, 1961

Volume: 70
Number: 68
Page: 3

Articles:

“Travel 'Experiment' Meet Set for Interested Utes”: Miss Barbara Dirks and Mr. Otis Wickenhauser from the San Francisco office of The Experiment in International Living will be on campus on Thursday in the Union building to answer questions about traveling and living abroad. Participants in their program are placed in host families in various locations and given the opportunity to learn foreign culture first hand.

“Dr. Frederick, Astronomer, Slates Lecture”: Dr. Laurence W. Frederick of the Flagstaff, Arizona Lowell Observatory will deliver two lectures as a guest of the physics department. One will be held Thursday in the Union, and the other will be held Friday in Orson Spencer Hall auditorium.

“Riding Club Meets”: The riding club elected new members, namely Fred Lawry, president, Ross Kohler, vice-president, and Arlene Colton, secretary. The club will meet today at noon in the Union.

“Honor Roll”: List of Honor Roll students continued from a previous issue.

“Math Talk Set”: Dr. C. R. Wylie will deliver a lecture Thursday in the math building. All students are encouraged to attend, but a basic grasp of algebra is recommended.

List of Advertisements:

1. “Calling 'U” list of committee meetings
2. Ad for Chronicle classifieds
3. Walker Bank advertising its special student checking account option
4. Ad for Wasatch Dry Cleaners
5. Ad for Universal Travel Service, touting low prices for student tours of Europe.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 25, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 68
Page: 4

Articles:

“Sportscope,” by Marcellus Snow: Basketball is markedly more popular than football in inter-mountain schools, as seen by fierce competition within the Skyline Conference. Utah favorite Bill

McGill is compared to several other players from various schools like BYU and Wyoming.

“Cougar Contest Films Shown At Noon Today:” A film of Utah's defeat against the BYU basketball team will be shown in the Union Little Theater today at noon. Similar films of Utah's basketball games will be shown each Wednesday for the rest of the season.

“Redskins to Battle Santa Clara Bronc Defensive Could Prove Troublesome”: The Redskins' next game will be Saturday against the Santa Clara Broncos at the Einar Nielsen fieldhouse. Utah coach Jack Garner may need to nuance his approach, as the Broncos are the best defensive team in the nation. A photograph of Redskins starting guard Joe Morton is included.

List of Advertisements:

1. All Makes Typewriter advertises an Olympia model
2. IBM advertises for on-campus interviews for those interested in employment with the company

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 69

Page: 1

Articles:

“Ribicoff OK's McMurrin Appointment As U.S. Education Commission Head”: Academic Vice-President Sterling M. McMurrin was nominated for the position of U.S. Commissioner of Education per the recommendation of Secretary Abraham Ribicoff of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. McMurrin also finds support from Utah's congressional delegates Sen. Frank E. Moss (D-Utah), Sen. Wallace F. Bennett(R-Utah), Rep. David S. King (D-Utah), as well as from President A. Ray Olpin. A photograph of President Olpin is included.

“Utah Leaders Voice Yes on Appointment,” by Meg Rampton: Academic Vice-President Sterling M. McMurrin receives support from President A. Ray Olpin in regards to McMurrin's recent nomination for the position of U.S. Commissioner of Education. Pres. Olpin is quoted extensively. Dr. McMurrin is featured in an included photograph.

“NSA, Election Rule Bill Reach Legislation Floor,” by Susan Woodland: Two bills were submitted to the Student Senate by ASUU Second Vice-President Steve Brockbank. The bills, if passed, will affect how elections take place within the university, as well as calling for the establishment of an NSA committee.

“Modern Sound To Eminate From Festival”: The Festival of Contemporary Music, directed by Maurice Abravanel, will host a concert tonight in Kingsbury Hall. Featured soloists are Prof. Louis Booth, and Douglas Craig. Other performers and planned pieces are also listed.

“Lectures To Honor Grad Service”: Starting in February, a lecture series designed to honor the advancement in graduate education will take place three times weekly. An opening reception will take place in the Union of February first. Planned speakers and their topics are listed. Names of speakers include Waldemer P. Read, Edith Gregor Halpert, and Curtis D. MacDougal.

“Decorations Readied”: Decorations are being prepared for the junior prom of Friday, which will have a “French” theme. A photograph of students Carolyn Moore, Karen Newman, Nan Gully, and Dixie Taylor preparing decorations for the dance is included.

“Ute Broadcasters”: The staff of KUER plan to meet today at noon. Their programming this week will include Utah's basketball game against the Hill Field Air Force Base team this Saturday, as well as a rebroadcast of the Festival of Contemporary Music concert for Sunday.

Issue Date: January 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 69

Page: 2

Articles:

“Education's Gain...”: Dr. Sterling M. McMurrin is a man of authority and character, and will do very well in his new position as U.S. Commissioner of Education. President John F. Kennedy is quoted, asking all servants of the state to consider how they will be judged by future generations.

“Reverend King, Set for Ute Talk, Becomes 'Reluctant Race Leader'”: Reverend Martin Luther King is set to speak in the Union Ballroom on January 31st. All students are invited to attend. This article extensively quotes James Baldwin, who recently published a piece after spending some time with Rev. King. Baldwin praises King for his preaching style, and how he gave his people a reason to struggle, rather than a simple sermon.

“Before You Sob,” by Ben Mortensen: In this letter to the editor, the author identifies himself as a journalism student and defends the integrity of The Chronicle. He notes that while the publication may occasionally print mistakes, it is, at the end of the day, a student publication printed by people who are learning, and that The Chronicle provides an incredibly valuable service to the school.

List of Advertisements:

1. An ad for Junior Prom tickets, with the slogan “Everybody's fighting for Jr. Prom Tickets.”
2. Classified ads for things such as items for sale, properties and apartments for rent, tutoring and other services.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A cartoon by Bi Buer

Issue Date: January 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 69

Page: 3

Articles:

“Practical Experience: The Key To Effective Social Work,” by Jackie Back: Students in the School of Social Work gain practical experience through various work opportunities in the Salt Lake and Provo area. Faculty members Dr. Herbert A. Otto and Kenneth Griffiths are working on a new program that will teach people to focus on their individual strengths rather than their weaknesses. A photograph is included of Wes Restad, a social worker, interviewing a student.

“U Audio Visual Plans Film Screening,” by Anita Lentz: The Audio Visual Bureau is showing a series of educational films in Orson Spencer Hall on Thursday. Those interested in education are encouraged to attend.

“Race Positions Open; Art Exhibit Set”: An exhibit featuring the work of architecture students will be in the Fine Arts building until Saturday. The exhibit was prepared by Paul Ellingson, a student. Additionally, drawings for available positions in the upcoming Snow Carnival snow shoe and ski races will be held Thursday, and Dr. C.R. Wylie speak in the math building today.

“Reaction...”: A continuation of “Utah Leaders Voice Yes On Appointment” from page one.

List of Advertisements:

1. “Calling 'U,’” A list of upcoming committee meetings
2. Utah Allied Florists are advertised, featuring a list of supported locations and the slogan “Choose an allied florist to be sure”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 69

Page: 4

Articles:

“Jack Gardner: 'McGill Is Basketball's Best'”: On Saturday, Utah is slated to play against Santa Clara, the best defensive team in the country. However, Utah has a very good offensive record, thanks in part to Bill McGill, McGill is praised for his scoring ability, and coach Jack Gardner is quoted with sentiments of high regard for McGill. The game will take place at Einar Nielsen field house. A photograph of coach Jack Gardner is included.

“Bowling Tournament Set for University Students”: The NCAA will begin a bowling tournament on the 28th and 29th. Entrants will play a qualifying round then, with a final round scheduled for February 18th. The two top event winners will receive a trip to Detroit to compete in the national championship.

List of Advertisements:

1. Salt Lake Costume is advertised, with the slogan "Utah's Largest Selection of Formal Dress"
2. Brown Floral is advertised, telling readers "Don't Be Without a Corsage"
3. Paramount Murray Laundry and Dry Cleaning is advertised with no slogan.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 27, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 70

Page: 1

Articles:

"AWS Clothing Drive to End Today": A clothing drive sponsored by the AWS to benefit the Salvation Army is ending today. Drop donations at the Union.

"Previn Treats Prom at 8 p.m.": Junior prom is being held tonight in the Union ballroom. Pianist Andre Previn will perform and 8 PM. The names of the Prom Princess candidates are listed, the names are Bonnie Anderson (Delta Phi,) Judie Alder (Pi Kappa Alpha,) Sue Cross (Sigma Chi,) Ruth Ann Fisher (Phi Delta Theta,) and Sandy Snow (Kappa Kappa Gamma.) A photograph of these candidates is included.

"Ute Debators Will Host Junior Meet": An annual debate tournament begins Thursday. Schools represented included Westminster, Utah State, Weber, Carbon College and BYU. George Aramson, Utah debate coach, says judging will be assisted by Karlynn Hinman, Julie Ford, and Steve Wood.

"Arts College Festival Sets Chamber Music": The thirteenth annual Chamber Music Festival begins Sunday, and will include three concerts. All will be directed by Prof. Louis W. Booth, and performed by the Utah String Quartet. One piece being performed features an arrangement by Dr. Leroy Robertson, head of the music department. Photographs of Booth and Robertson are included.

"Flower Ban Lifted": Flowers and Corsages are no longer banned at ASUU dances. John Bennion states his faith in students to exercise judgment.

"Current Exhibit Shows Baskin, Utrillo Works," by Susan Woodland: An exhibit located in the Union building showcases the art of Leonard Baskin and Maurice Utrillo. A bio of each artist is included. A photograph of student Ramon Combs viewing the Baskin exhibit is included.

"Crime Institute to Conclude this Evening": The lecture series hosted by Donal E.J. MacNamara will conclude today with the final lecture in Orson Spencer Hall auditorium. The names and topics of previous lecturers are listed.

"Pygmalion Played": George Bernard Shaw's play "Pygmalion" directed by Ralph Margetts will have its final performance on Saturday in the Playbox Theater. Names of various cast members is included.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 27, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 70

Page: 2

Articles:

“Tell A Senator”: A “Tell Your Senator” event was recently announced by Oregon State University. The event entailed question boxes and visits by state senators. Such an event was attempted two years ago in Utah, but an apathetic student body failed to make it effective. Hosting another event of the kind is being considered.

“University, Other Utah Schools Form a Separate NSA Region”: This story examines the history of how the university became affiliated with the National Student Association. Names and schools of various committee members and chairmen are listed.

“Not the Vogue”: This weekend's junior prom has a French theme for the decorations. Even though showing up late may be fashionable, punctuality is encouraged because the sooner attendees may be seated for the Andre Previn concert, the sooner the dancing may begin.

“India Film Honors 12th Republic Day”: Bairid MuKherjee of the India Student Association announced the screening of a film produced in honor of the Twelfth Republic Day of India. The film, “Naya Daur,” will be shown in the South High Auditorium tonight.

List of Advertisements

1. Ber-Chez fabric store is advertised with the slogan “For women who KNOW”
2. The radio station KALL 910 is advertised with the slogan “good music is back”
3. UUU Little Theater lists the films it is screening.
4. Classified ads for things such as items for sale, rooms for rent, and services like tutoring or housekeeping.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 27, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 70

Page: 3

Articles:

“Rush Parties Set for Saturday,” by Diane Marler: Fraternities are hosting various parties this weekend, events and names of fraternity members are listed. A photograph of students Paul Goddard, Leon Dever, Gary Calder, Farrell Bennett is included.

“University Guys and Dolls To Enjoy 'Loveliest Night'”: The junior prom is set to be a spectacular night, with overtly formal wear included. Names of students planning to attend are listed.

“Debs to Meet M. Abravanel”: The Utah Symphony Debs are an organization designed to better acquaint themselves with classical music. They are set to meet Maestro Maurice Abravanel at Hotel Utah during the annual Symphony Ball.

“Spell Out Jobs?” by Bob Clark: In this letter to the article, Clark calls for a reformation of programs designed to aid foreign students, calling to mind the recent meeting between the ASUU and President Olpin on the matter. He sites how better programs are needed to teach English to these students, and that most scholarships awarded to them only allow them funds for the most unsuitable housing.

List of Advertisements:

1. Walker Bank advertises their special student checking account option.
2. Unitarian church advertises upcoming services, stating “University people will find a congenial church home here”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 27, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 70

Page: 4

Articles:

“Civil Service to Administer Salt Lake Test,” by Dixie Taylor: The U.S. Civil Service Commission added an additional date for their Federal Service Entrance Examination. The exam is designed for those seeking federal jobs post-graduation. The process of registration is described.

“Santa Clara Defense Will Test Utes,” by Marcellus Snow: The Utah Redskins will play against the Santa Clara Broncos this Saturday. The Broncos are known for their strong defense, which will prove difficult for Utah's generally offensive-based strategy. Utah did however defeat Santa Clara last year, with a final score of 89 to 81. The starting lineup for Utah is described.

“Immigrants Must Tell Vital Statistics”: Joe D. Lowrie of the Immigration and Naturalization Service encourages all foreign students to report to the organization before the end of January to provide demographic information.

“Hawaii's University: No More Football”: Dr. Lawrence Snyder, President of the University of Hawaii announced that they would no longer play inter-collegiate football, citing the excessive cost of the program.

List of Advertisements:

1. Bennett Ford dealership advertises, stating “A Bennett Ford buy is a BETTER buy!”
2. Radio station KWIC is advertised.
3. Tower Theaters lists the films it is screening.
4. Andy's Smorgasbord and Prime Rib advertises with the slogan “Just the place to meet your friends”
5. Calling 'U' section lists times and locations for committee meetings.
6. House of Pizza is advertised with no slogan.

List of Cartoons and Art

None