

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Ashley Espinoza

Issue Date: February 3, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 77
Page: 5

Articles:

“Campus Ski Classes Enroll Record High,” by Owen L. Saunders: The University of Utah had a spike in enrollment for their ski classes. This year over 550 students registered for the class. Instructor Doris Johnson claims that this season had the “best balanced classes they have ever had.”

“Skin Wrestlers Set to Face Western State”: Coach Marv Hess, head of the University of Utah’s wrestling team, must find someone to fill the void in the 177-pound class. This shift has affected every class above and below this ranking. Frank Hankin has done a lot to improve after his 10-pound weight gain. Doug Bingham and Mike Gonzales have each gained 7 pounds and Gonzales is yet to be defeated. Dave Robinson, arguably the best sophomore on the Utah squad, is set to compete tonight.

“Snow Conditions”

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisement for engineering, physics and science students to join Boeing Co.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of University of Utah students receiving instruction in both skiing and safety

Issue Date: February 3, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 77
Page: 6

Articles:

“Utes Topple Mighty Rams 69-58,” by Bill Waters: The University of Utah duked it out on the basketball court with Colorado State University. Guard Billy McGills played with such grace on the backcourt. “Jumpin’ Joe” Morton was fed mostly easy shots and left open most of the game. They only had one goal: make sure CSU does not score and they achieved that goal with excellence.

“Papooses Edge by Weber, Keep Undefeated Score”: The University of Utah’s freshman team shot past Weber College during the Thursday night game. Utah players Al Bozner and Sherm Kasper fend off the opposing team, leading by double digits throughout the game. The team is already hyped up for the next game on Saturday with the College of Southern Utah.

List of Advertisements:

1. Wanted advertisement physicists, engineers and mathematicians at Litton Systems
2. The Unitarian Church is advertised. The slogan: “Our Church and Our Community”
3. House of Pizza advertises quick “the most complete line of specialty food”.
4. Viggo’s Toggery is advertised for items such as mid weight suits with vests, short sleeve sweat shirts, madras sport shirts, heavy weight crew sox (all colors), short sleeve button-down dress shirts and Glen plaid & blazer sport coats
5. French Bicycles are advertised

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of Utes forward Rich Ruffell guards the ball from CSU guard Jim Olander

Issue Date: February 3, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 77

Page: 7

Articles:

“Magazine Section”

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of a woman next to a construction sight

Issue Date: February 3, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 77

Page: 8

Articles:

“Growing University Campus Many New Buildings Dot Skyline” A 4 million dollar program was approved by the University of Utah’s Board of Regents to create better buildings for the campus. Many of the present buildings such as the bookstore, gym, annex, college of medicine, college of nursing and other buildings will be torn down to make new ones. Over 35 buildings will be built and/or torn down within the next 10-15 years.

“Month’s Cover” University freshman Vicki Anderson takes a look at the construction project for the future University of Utah. This is a special issue of the chronicle due to Founder’s Day and Operation 111. Those who have suggestions for additional features to add to the magazine are advised to go to the Chrony office. The magazine will try to include new ideas in the next issue.

“The Daily Chronicle” This includes all the amazing people that make this magazine possible. The list include Julie Ford (Magazine Editor), George Mabey and Linda Hazen (Photographers), Maria Goss, DeAnn Dawes, Margie Burgon, Diane Marler (Magazine Staff).

“Spartacus- Real Ben Hur,” by Linda Hazen: In this whirlwind story about a society that kills humans for sport, Spartacus is a slave trying to protect the men around him. After being attacked by a guard for helping a fellow gold miner, he is staked to a rock to die. When a gladiator recruiter visits the mines for suitable slaves, he finds Spartacus and wants him right away. While at gladiatorial school, Spartacus learns to fight and falls in love with another slave, Jeane Simmons. When she is sold, the great slave rebellion begins. The rest of the 3½ hour production seemed to drag on, causing the audience to keep staring at their watches to see when it was over.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: February 3, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 77

Page: 9

Articles:

“Law, Business, Medicine Are Building Projects”: Martin Brixton, director of the University of Utah’s Planning and Construction, estimates that construction for the college of law and college of business buildings will begin at the end of the year. He assures readers that the black color scheme will work with the Union-Orson Spencer Hall to make it look at home. Construction for the new rehabilitation unit at the Medical Center will be completed by 1963.

List of Advertisements:

1. Evening Star by Artcarved is advertised from Seyson-Pearsall Co.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: February 3, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 77

Page: 10

Articles:

“Hudnuts Started Museum,” by DeAnn Dawes: It was 1949 when Mrs. Richard Hudnut traveled to Salt Lake City to donate her collection of art and was told that the state did not have the funds to properly display it. A year later, University of Utah president A. Ray Olpin went to her home in New York City to discuss taking the collection off her hands. Immediately after their meeting, arrangements were made to renovate the fourth floor of the Park Building into a small unit to house the art. After a while other donations were made. After over a decade of collecting, the museum has continued to be a huge success.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisement for Kall Radio 910

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Illustration of iconic American figures reading the Utah Daily Chronical

Issue Date: February 3, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 77

Page: 11

Articles:

“For a Pagent of the Ages,” by Diane Marler: To all who are interested, the Geology Museum at the University of Utah has many of its new fossils on display. Ancient oceanic and wildlife have been placed out for all to view. Ninety thousand pounds of rock and bones found in the Uintah Mountains have been released for others to observe.

List of Advertisements:

1. Showings at Tower Theatres
2. Ber-Chez Imported Dress Fabric is advertised. The slogan is: "For Women Who KNOW"

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of dinosaur skeleton at Geology Museum is shown
2. Photo of ancient woven artifact

Issue Date: February 3, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 77

Page: 12

Articles:

"Ease and Comfort? Come Back in a Few Years": By the end of the year, on-campus students at the University of Utah will be living with ease and comfort. At this time new housing projects will be completed and another one will be under construction. One University project that will be earning back its cost in building is the Memorial Theatre. This project will be ready for opening at the beginning of 1962. The students of 1975 will be introduced to the new library building, along with new parking areas.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisement for Kwic Refreshing Radio: The Album Station that plays Fitzgerald, Freshman, Shearing, Christy, Sinatra, Mathis, Garner, Kenton and Cole

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: February 3, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 77

Page: 13

Articles:

None

List of Advertisements:

1. The Union Dance Committee Presents "After-Game Dance" on February 4

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Map showing the future of the University of Utah

Issue Date: February 3, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 77

Page: 12

Articles:

"Maria Goss, Alias Pandub, Assures Sexy Voice," by Maria Goss: Author Maria Goss shares her experiences with her writing and her pseudonym. After speaking to one of her classmates, she finds that he refers to her alias as a PANDUB (Poor and Neurotic Dumb Ugly Beast). She herself identifies herself as a pagan uses a voodoo doll to create hexes that help her pass tests. Her main goal in writing this article is to assure her readers, especially the single male students, that her voice is actually sexy.

List of Advertisements:

1. Union Movies presents "Imitation of Life" at the UUU Little Theatre

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: February 6, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 78

Page: 1

Articles:

"Lecture Series Set for Tonight": On this night, Dr. Waldzemer P. Read, head of the philosophy department at the University of Utah, delivered a lecture at Kingsbury Hall. He discussed the how to educate students on propaganda and how they influence us. This event is held every year in honor of the former Utah educator Frederick W. Reynolds, the first director of the lecture series. Reynolds died in 1935

“Mid-East 'Spotlight' Activities Continue”: This event continues the week long forum to discuss issues in the Middle East. They will be holding panels, lectures, social events and a movie. The activity for Wednesday will be a panel discussing foreign policies in the Middle East. The film “The Egyptian” will be showing on Friday and Saturday.

“Arab-Israeli Topic Listed”

“Science Grants Received by Ute Undergrads”: The National Science Foundation has rewarded $3.2 million in grants to the University of Utah’s Undergraduate Research Program. These grants were given to Professor James M. Sugihara (Department of Chemistry), Professor Robert E. Stephenson (Department of Mechanical Engineering), Professor Angus M. Woodbury (Division of Biological Sciences), Professor Ivan B. Cutler (Department of Ceramic Engineering) and Professor Duane Bown (Department of Psychology). Dr. Alan T Waterman, Director of the National Science Foundation this is “a way to aid research.”

“Lecture Broadcast”

“Campus Chest Sets $3000 as '61 Goal,” by Charlotte Garff: According to co-chairman Rosemary Rogers and Suzanne Forsberg, February 20 will begin the annual charity drive entitled “Campus Chest.” They have set their goal for $3,000, which is $500 more than last year. Collections chairman Sharon Thomas urges each student to donate $1. The money collected will be given to the Utah Heart Association, United Fund, Utah Foreign Students, Crusade for Freedom, Emergency Fund, Utah Branch of Mental Health Association, World University Service, American Red Cross and United Negro College Fund.

“Bust of Lincoln Shown in Union”: Professor Avard Fairbanks, one of the foremost sculptors of Abraham Lincoln, and his students have put their art on display in the Union West Ballroom. Among these works is a sculpture of Carl Sandberg. It is free for students in celebration of the University’s birthday.

“‘Excellence in Education' Topics Contest”: This years Founder’s Day Oration and Essay Contest topic is “the pursuit of excellence in education.” Any freshman or sophomore who has not won in previous years is eligible to participate. The essay deadline is on February 24 at the English office, Orson Spencer Hall 330.

“Travel Club Talk Slated”

List of Advertisements:

1. Students are advised to go to the Snow Carnival. Events include giant slalom and snow shoeing.

2. The weekly calendar shows what event are happening at the University

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Picture of Dr. Waldemer P. Read, head of the philosophy department at the University of Utah
2. Photo of bust of Abraham Lincoln
3. Photo of bust of Carl Sandberg

Issue Date: February 6, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 78

Page: 2

Articles:

“Political Plan...”: Even though the elections ended three months ago politics is still causing problems at the University. According to the Executive Council, many campus groups are complaining about where to get approval to have political speakers. President Oplin announced on Thursday that all speakers must be approved by the Assemblies and Convocations committee. The author seems to argue that this is a poor decision that will lead to more problems in the future.

“Letters to the Editor” In this selected article, a concerned reader sent a letter to the editor complaining about students cheating on campus. She argues that it must be stopped on behalf of the students who actually want to learn. The penalty for cheating is expulsion and the reader doesn’t want these individuals to face that.

“The Daily Utah Chronicle”

“Making Good”: Billy McGill, star player on Utah’s basketball team, was featured in a story for Time magazine. Over the season, he has grown to be a stellar student. He average 20 points a game and maintains a 2.7 GPA.

“Full Speed”: The author is criticizing the ASSU Student Senate for shooting down a resolution to inform the state government of the student’s desire to get rid of trading stamps. They have had a reputation of overlooking students’ needs. The Senate has the potential to create some actual change but care more about themselves than the student body.

List of Advertisements:

1. Olympia is advertised at All Makes Typewriter Co.

2. Classified ads for rooms for rent, lost items, transportation, etc.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Cartoon of man flailing his arms and looks unkept. The caption says: "Ordinarily I refuse to accept students this late in the term- however, in your case, Miss Latour-"

Issue Date: February 6, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 78

Page: 3

Articles:

"Nineteen New Coeds Join AF Sponsors": Nineteen University coeds were sworn in as members of Angel Flight, Air Force ROTC Sponsor Corps. Those given the title of 2nd lieutenants include Sally Anderson, Jane Beecher, Vicki Boyack, Kathie Bradley, Kathryn Cannon, Karen Dahl, Elizabeth Hale, Judy Holt, Jill Judkins, Linda Laughlin, Pamela Macey, Judy May, Ann McKendrick, Sharon Mickelson, Susan Rich, Kay Smoot, Sally Tolman, Becke Willardsen and Linda Young. Lt. Col. Fred Johnson spoke at the ceremony and presented them with new uniforms.

"Fitzpatrick Speaks Today In Water Work Session": Joseph W. Fitzpatrick, U.S. Public Health Service engineer, spoke to students about water pollution and insecticides at the Union. The lecture was part of the 12th Annual Water and Sewage Work school sponsored by the State Department of Health, Intermountain Section of the American Water Works, the Extension Division and the Utah Water Pollution Control Association. The morning speakers included Mr. E. Arlo Richardson and John P. Reeves. Mr. A. W. Hardy, senior analysis engineer for Marquardt Corporation, spoke during lunch. Other speakers included Mr. Ralph E. Fuhrmann (executive secretary of the Water Pollution Control Federation), Calvin Sudweeks, Howard M. Hurst, Professor Grant K. Borg, Professor Paul S. Nicholes, Lynn M. Thatcher, Joseph C. Merhoff, Professor Jed F. Woolley and Professor Farnett Littlefield.

"Names in the News"

List of Advertisements:

1. Faim Co. advertises clearance sale on skis, boots and pants
2. The University of Utah advertises activities around campus, including square dancing, WRA Exec Board Meeting, Sound Off, etc.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Angel Flight Lt. Col. Gayle Crandall and Col. Julie Allen inducting new members Sally Tolman, Liz Hale and Sharon Mickelson

Issue Date: February 6, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 78

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utes Win Over Cowboys, Regain Lead,” by Eckhard Herrig: As to be expected, the Utah basketball team comes back from their game with another victory, this time against the Wyoming Coyboys. Star player Billy “the Hill” McGill did not come to slack off this game. Along with his teammate Earl Nau, they both collected 23 points. Utah coach Moris Buckwalter could not be prouder of his team.

“Ute Mat Quad Slips Past Western Crew”: Wrestler Henry Ashby made his team proud last Friday in the meet against Western States College. After being down in the first have by three points, Ashby came through with pin within the last three minutes. Up until then there had not been any pins.

List of Advertisements:

1. Tampico Dinner House advertises Mexican and American dishes serves with Mexican hospitality
2. Advertisement for engineering, physics and science students to join Boeing Co.
3. The University of Utah Book Store promotes valentines that can be sent to sisters, wives and mothers
4. The Taylor-Made Shoe Store advertises men’s oxfords for the “style leader”
5. Bennion Boyd Park advertises wedding rings
6. Tower Theatres announces showings for “Never on Sunday” and The “Carry on Nurse” Gang

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Wyoming Cowboys player Jimerson leaps up to block the basketball from Utah’s Jim Rhead
2. Photo of Utah player Jim Rhead dunking at Saturday’s game

Issue Date: February 7, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 79

Page: 1

Articles:

“Images V. Reality’ Themes Panel on Mid-East Religions”: The “Spotlight on the Middle East” panel held at the Union Little Theatre took a sudden religious turn. Dr. Thomas O’Dea of the Sociology department moderated the event alongside Dr. Laverne Bane of the University Speech Department and Dr. Lewis M. Rogers, a philosophy professor. The panel discussed the historical relevance of the three major religions, Judaism, Christianity and Islam.

“Executive Council Plans Poll on Student Attitude”: Plans have been made to hold a research project concerning student opinions on ASUU activities. The study consisted of 375 randomly selected students. Each student was contacted via telephone and in groups. The data collected was used to figure out what activities to hold during the next semester

“Pledge Pix”

“Knowledge Requisite For Good Life-Read,” by Jackie Back: Dr. Waldemar D. Read, professor and head of the philosophy department, delivered the Twenty-fifth annual Frederck William Reynolds lecture at Kingsbury Hall. He spoke on the topic of “Knowledge and Goodness.” The professor focused specifically on the work of Greek philosopher Socrates.

“Art Department to Present Edith Halpert”: Renowned director of the Downtown Art Gallery Edith Gregor Halpert is scheduled to speak at the Orson Spencer Hall Auditorium. The College of Fine Arts will be presenting a lecture by Mrs. Halpert for Founders Day. Her topic will be “Behind the Canvas Curtain.”

“U Singing Valentines On Sale by Spurs”

“Today’s Noon Movie”

“South American Adventure Film Slated for Kingsbury”: Hector Acebes will be narrating his film “Vanished Primitives in South America.” The films displays the art, dances, cuisine and tribal rites of the Guaicas people. Students can get ticket for 50 cents by presenting their activity cards at the University Extension Division.

“Deadline Nears” The deadline for the Founders Day historical essay contest is set for Kingsbury Hall on the following Wednesday. This year’s topic is “The Pursuit of Excellence.” All freshman and sophomores who have not won previously may enter. Preliminary judging will be held February 16.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Spotlight Calendar displays every event happening this week

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Professors Lewis M. Rogers, Thomas F. O'Dea and Lavern C. Bane moderating the "Religions of the Middle East" panel

Issue Date: February 7, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 79

Page: 2

Articles:

"Student Seats": This article is a critique on the number of seats at the University games. Most of the problem comes from faculty members who utilize their "2 for 1 tickets," which creates an overcrowding for other spectators. President Oplin claim that they do this sale because the students "priced the faculty out of the market." The students hope that the administration will keep them in consideration in future decisions.

"This Week We Honor" Maurine Haltiner has been chosen as this week's honorary person. She is an English major with a minor in music and has a stellar 3.8 GPA. She is a member of the Future Teachers of America club and was a former orchestra violinist. Only a bright future is ahead of her.

"The Daily Utah Chronicle"

"Greeks Take 84 Pledges In Rushing" The Dean of Students has announced that 84 men have pledged fraternities during winter rush. Richard Williams, Interfraternity Council president, said that "nearly 90 percent of men who rushed joined a fraternity." The main requirement for this position is a $5 release fee and a 2.0 GPA. Those inducted goes as follows: Beta Theta Pi- Victor Bullock, Dan Clark, Paul Fox Goddard, Stephen Jones, Malcolm LeSeur, Mike McCormick, Mike Preece, Bob Robinson, Richard Staples and Alan Wilson. Kappa Sigma- Alan Branch, Craig Bigler, Robert Flegal, Jerry Hugentobler, Jon Johnson, Dave Kirk, Stephen Neff, Byron Powell, James Robertson, Dennis Thalman; Stephen Thomas David Wagstaff and Lowell Young. Lamda Chi Alpha- Dave Dahler. Phi Delta Theta- Joe Aufderheide, Louis Ball, Gary Clarke, Michael Edwards, Larry Egan, Steven Garrett, Thomas Horne and Blaine Lindgren.

“Letters to the Editor”: A resolution has finally been made with the cheating epidemic mentioned in the last issue. The writer of this letter suggests that the school implement an honor system, the same one upheld at Stanford University. Those caught cheating will be expelled immediately. The writer also accuses sororities and fraternities of cheating using test files.

List of Advertisements:

1. Chronicle advertises for their classified ads

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Maurine Haltiner, this week’s honorary person

Issue Date: February 7, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 79

Page: 3

Articles:

“U Informs State in Economics Review,” by Karlynn Hinman: Each month the Bureau of Economic and Business Research, puts out a pamphlet known as the Utah Economic and Business Review, edited by Dr. Osmand L Harline, Associate Professor of Economics. The pamphlet makes predictions about economic growth within the next year. Their research found that construction is a questionable venture but the market for home will go up.

“Oregon Prof. Castell to Address Campus,” by Margie Burgon: Dr. Aubrey Castell, chairman of the Department of Philosophy at the University of Oregon, is set to speak on the Newman Club Forum. He will be answering the questions “Is there a self, and if there is, what is its nature? Is there responsibility for human activity?”

“Alpine Club to Screen Movies”

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisement for French bicycles
2. The Utah Symphony be welcoming guest conductor Monteux for their performance the next day
3. Paramount Murray will be offering 59 cent sweaters and skirts
4. Tower Theatres will be offering performances of “Never on Sunday” and “Carry On Sergeant”
5. Viggo’s Toggery will be offering $10 in merchandise to those who guess the correct score of tonight’s basketball game

6. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration Flight Research Center invites applications from students with advanced degrees in: physics, aeronautical engineering, electrical engineering, mechanical engineering and mathematics
7. Calling "U" offers activities held all over the University campus

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Dr. Alburey Castell, a philosophy professor at the University of Oregon presenting a lecture

Issue Date: February 7, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 79

Page: 4

Articles:

"Ute Swimmers Splash Past Oregon Schools":

"Two Utes Score High Marks in Billiards Play" This marks the first year that freshman have been eligible to compete in varsity competitions. Swimmers Rodger Baer, Roswell Seare and Larry Zechiel have all set new records in the 200-yard individual medley. Coach Don Reddish could not be prouder.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisement for engineering, physics and science students to join Boeing Co.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Redskin swimmers Roswell Seare, Roger Baer and Larry Zechiel get ready for Air Force meet

Issue Date: February 8, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 79

Page: 1

Articles:

"Panel to Give Critical Appraisal of Read's Paper in OSH Tonight": Critical appraisal of Fredrick william Reynolds lectures will be done tonight in the Spencer Hall Auditorium. This year the sponsor for these activities was the Extension Division and the Philosophy Club. The members of the panel included Dr. Robert Anderson (associate professor of anthropology), Dr. Lowell Bennion (director of the LDS Institute of Religion), Dr. h. Henry Frost (professor and head of the sociology department) and Dr. Richard G Henson (assistant professor of philosophy). Lewis Max Rogers, assistant professor of philosophy, moderated the event.

“Sounding Board”

“Mid-East Spotlight Turns on Records and Policies,” by Margie Burgon: Dr. Jacob Geerlings, professor of languages and history, will be presenting a lecture on “Recent Biblical Discoveries- The Dead Sea Scrolls and Others.” He will also be discussing the discoveries made in Biblical times in Egypt and Palastine.

“U.N. Calls Halt in Congo; Castro Regime Defied,” by United Press International: The United Nations has seceded from the Congo crisis. This was to allow the other countries to receive instruction from their governments. In a form of defiance, thousands of Cuban students stayed home to fight Castro’s government. In Washington, President Kennedy decided to add an extra quarter to the minimum wage. In addition, House Speaker Sam Rayburn the possibility for tax cuts was small unless they stilumated business expansion.

“French Artist Monteux to Lead Tonight,” by Celia Alston: 85-year-old Pierre Monteux returned to the Salt Lake City as a guest conductor for the Utah Symphony Orchestra. He presented his rendition of Debussy’s “La Mer.” According to Herold L. Gregory, the Symphony manager, tickets for concerts are still available.

“Ute Broadcasters to Meet Today”

“MacDougall, Mrs. Halpert List University Lectures”: Two guest speakers are set to deliver lectures this week. The first speaker is Edith Halpert, director of the Downtown Art Gallery in New York City. Her topic will be “Behind the Canvas Curtain.” The second speaker is Dr. Curtis D. MacDougall, professor of journalism from Northwestern University. He will be speaking on “Manipulation of Public Opinion and the Present Concern for Education.”

“Speech Contest Deadline Set For Applicants”: Freshman and sophomores interested in will the $100 first prize or the $50 second prize will have to turn in their Founders’ Day essays by the end of the day. All entries will be accepted at Kingsbury Hall. The preliminaries will be held on February 16 and the finals will be held February 23.

“Snow Queen Entries Due” Today is the last day to apply for Snow Carnival Queen. All application must be turned in at the ASUU office by 4. Co-chairman of the event Dick Ruppel and Jim Rhead have announced that the carnival will be held on February 15 and 16. A sweepstakes trophy will be given to the group with the most participation points.

“Woman’s Role Topics Social”

“Foreign Policy Themes Panel Today in Union”: The foreign policy panel, moderated by D. S. Grover Rich, will be a part of the “Spotlight on the Middle East.” Dr. Rich is the director of the Institute of International Studies and professor of political science at the University. The panel also includes Dr. Ernest Randa (assistant professor of economics at the University), Dr. Frederick Latimer (a history lecturer at the University) and Colonel Richard B. Kreutzer (chairman of the department of military science).

List of Advertisements:

1. Spotlight Calendar lists all the activities going on around campus

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Dr. Jacob Geerling, professor of languages and history
2. Photo of Edith Halpert, director of the Downtown Art Gallery in New York City

Issue Date: February 8, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 79

Page: 2

Articles:

“For Snow Carnival”: Many are concerned due to the lack of snow but the Snow Carnival committee are here to lift everyone’s spirits. All the traditional activities are still planned. They even offered to get snow imported if they have to. Here is to hoping the weatherman brings a cold storm through Salt Lake.

“NSA” on the Home Front Includes Programs, Resolution, Activities”: The Southern Student Human Relations Seminar is held in each Summer in the South. They also hold the Student-body President’s conference, Student Editor’s conference and a Human Relations seminar.

“Letters to the Editor”: In the last issue, a reader reached out and disclosed that fraternities and sororities are using test files to cheat on test. In this weeks issue, members of fraternities have written back to address these concerns. While they do agree with most of what this individual said, they don't view the test files as cheating. The file is comprised of old tests and notes. They claim that if a professor chooses to give that test again, it is not their fault.

“Grants Given Professors”: The National Science Foundation has rewarded $3.2 million in grants to the University of Utah's Undergraduate Research Program. These grants were given to Professor James M. Sugihara (Department of Chemistry), Professor Robert E. Stephenson (Department of Mechanical Engineering), Professor Angus M. Woodbury (Division of Biological Sciences), Professor Ivan B. Cutler (Department of Ceramic Engineering) and Professor Duane Bown (Department of Psychology). Dr. Alan T Waterman, Director of the National Science Foundation this is “a way to aid research.”

List of Advertisements:

1. Chronicle advertises for their classified ads

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Cartoon depicting a scientist in a lab with a party in the background. The caption says, As a matter of fact-we don't expect Professor Snarf back in th' lab for th' rest of th' afternoon.”

Issue Date: February 8, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 79

Page: 3

Articles:

“Song Valentines On Sale at Huddle Today”

“Mental Society Hosts Utes; Chess Champ Challenges”: The American Association for Metal is hosting the annual “Student's Night.” University graduates Leo A. Rodgers and Jean M. Quets will be hosting this event. Samuel Reshevsky, five-time United States chess champion and international master of chess, will be going around campus looking for worthy opponents.

“Betas, Pi Phi's Release New Officers Elect”: Pi Beta Phi and Beta Theta Pi have elected new officers. The elected officers for Pi Beta Phi are: Nancy Folland (President), Karen Rosenbaum (Vice President), Joanne Perkins (Treasurer), Georgianna Burton (Recording Secretary), Nancy Miller (Corresponding Secretary), Sue Stevens (Pledge Supervisor) and Roberta Coletti (Scholarship Chairman). The officers elected to Beta Theta Pi are: Norm Brockbank (President), Steve Swindle (First Vice President), Gary Lolab (Second Vice President), Jay Eldredge (Social Chairman), Kay Benson (Recorder), John Dinwoody (Secretary), Richard Carstensen (Scholarships), Dave Benbow (Treasurer), Jim Gaddis (Intramural Representative) and Roger Wood (Alumni Secretary).

“We Want Snow-It’s Winter Cry Debaters Convincingly”: The true test of a successful winter is the large amount of snow. This became true when University students Vic Bunderson and Kent Berg became temporarily snowbound on their way to a debate tournament in Cambridge Massachusetts.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisement for Mikado Suki-Yaki House
2. Litton Industries is looking for electrical engineers, chemists and physicists
3. Perceptual Learning Inc. is offering speed reading classes
4. Tower Theatres will be offering performances of “Never on Sunday” and “Carry On Sergeant”
5. Viggo’s Toggery will be offering $10 in merchandise to those who guess the correct score of tonight’s basketball game
6. Calling “U” offers activities held all over the University campus

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Spur Marion Hassell delivers singing valentine to Marilyn Poulson

Issue Date: February 8, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 79

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utah Baseball Team Intensive Practice”: In six weeks the University of Utah baseball team will begin their intensive workout schedule. With some of their former players gone, there is a void that has to be filled. Coach Pres will have to work them extra to make sure they are ready for the upcoming season, especially when they lost so heavily in the previous one.

“Ute Five Ready for Montana Bears”: The game against the Grizzlies may be harder that the Utes were counting on but they don’t let that bother them. Coach Jack Gardner is keeping his team on their toe and nothing can stop them. Luckily they have their star player Billy McGill to keep the team going.

“Movies Today”

List of Advertisements:

1. The Utah Symphony be welcoming guest conductor Monteux for their performance the next day
2. Bennion Boyd Park advertises wedding rings
3. Advertisement for Vaseline Hair Tonic. The slogan is: "It's clear, it's clean, it's Vaseline Hair Tonic."
4. Schreyer's is having a special on their Olympia typewriters

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Photo of Larry Ray and Tom Lovat, University baseball players
2. Photo of Ute Roundballers Ed Rowe and Rich Ruffell getting ready for their upcoming game against the Grizzlies