

Finding Aid for Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Reem Ikram

Issue date: 03-29-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 102

Page: 1

Articles:

“Program Posts Offer Utes Creativity, Fun”: Doug Jensen, Union Program Advisor announces the university’s push toward student-led programs. The council team hope to embrace creativity, leadership and a new expression of ideas. Nineteen chairmanships for the following committees: Live Talent, Green Room, Game, Movie, and Married Students invite eager students to apply.

“Margaret Mead Speaks Tonight”: Dr. Margaret Mead, Secretary of the Institute of Intercultural Studies and member of the Executive Board of the World Federation and Mental Health, takes the stage at Kingsbury Hall and discusses cultural backgrounds for nationhood. A reception will be held in Union 203 hosted by the Green Room committee.

“Fool's Folly' Ducats on Sale Today”

“Meeting Slated Tuesday For Post Potentials”: With the upcoming April elections, Associated Students of the University of Utah (ASUU) President John Bennion hopes to upgrade candidates through a preliminary meeting. The meeting will include an explanation of the position and what it will entail. The event will be held in the Beehive room at the Union.

“Annual Spur's Tea Set for Frosh Woman”

“NSA 'Hopefuls' to Hold Friday Meet”: The National Convention of the National Student Association is holding a meeting to further explain the duties of the delegates. The event will be held at the University of Wisconsin in the Union IK room.

“Dr. Beidler to Lecture on Taste Today”: Fraternity Sigma Xi invites Dr. Lloyd M. Beidler to Orson Spencer Hall Auditorium. Open and free to the general public, the lecture will elaborate on the response of taste in relation to our chemical receptors.

“Travel Bureau to Aid Utes”

“Society Editor Spot Now Open to Ute”: The Chronicle is currently seeking for a new Society Editor. The spot is open to any eager writers. Duties include taking on society news and fulfilling the weekly social column. Reporter positions are also still open. Applicants should contact Chrony managing editor, Linda Covey, at the Chronicle office, union 238.

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 03-29-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 102

Page: 2

Articles:

“Now is the Time”: Linda Covey, The Chronicle’s very attractive editing manager eagerly awaits for new applicants for the upcoming spring semester. No writing experience is required and training may take up to two hours per week.

“Letters to the Editor”: University President Albert Ray Olpin decides to remove artwork from the student Union. Kenneth E. Eble and Michael W. Kain question the discontinuation and argue whether the action demonstrates censorship, bigotry and ignorance.

“The Thing”: San Jose Spartan Daily (SJSD) further elaborates on President John T. Wahlquist’s idea of training. SJSD argue the importance over education rather than blind training.

Classified Advertisements: Ads for things like rooms for rent, lost and found items, roommates, and services.

“Kenya Collegians Want to Learn - but Can't!”: Sims brings attention to the obstacles Black students face when applying to American universities, when based out of other countries, such as Kenya. Complications range from politics to financial circumstances.

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 03-29-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 102

Page: 3

Articles:

“Huddle Change to Bolster Food Service”: Director of Union Food Services, Dean C. Kofoed urges to transform student dining. The change will showcase efficient and quick service. This will be demonstrated primarily through the removal of a counter.

“Union Board Spots Open to University Students”: Junior and senior students are invited to apply towards Union Board. The position requires no prior experience, applications will be taken later in the month. ASUU will serve as a liaison between the council and board.

“Calling, ‘U’”

“Miss Jacobsen Piano Recital”

“Instruction in Bridge Offered Wednesday”

“S.E.A. Scheduled Thursday Meet”

List of Advertisements:

1. Tape recorders are up for purchase through private vendor.
2. Contact Lens Specialists advertise for a free consultation.
3. His sportswear advertises for half belts. Slogan: “Don’t envy HIS, wear them.”
4. Records are advertised through Frost’s Book and Record shop.
5. The Millionairess takes the screen at the Tower Theatres.
6. Teachers who are interested in receiving their copy of vacancy listings are advertised.
7. Accident and sickness insurance is advertised through Contiental Agency Co.
8. Schreyer’s showcases their newest product the precision typewriter.

Lists of Cartoons or Art: none

Issue date: 03-29-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 102

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utah Baseballers Eye Weber, Dixie”: Utah’s defending Skyline Champion Baseball Coach Pres Summerhays’ Redskins recaps on the players’ endurance and performance of their last couple games. Mentions were made concerning the following, Outfielders: Darryl Eisner, Larry Ray, Lee Jensen, Kent Draayer, and Denny Dunn. Infielders: Tom Lovat, Harold Warfle, Bob Swiler, Tom Kingdom, Vern Allred, Denny Bonny, Whitey Woerkom, Elmer Richards, Bion Wilcox.

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 03-30-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 103

Page: 1

Articles:

“Beidler Reveals Taste Sense Perfected Early” by DeAnn Evans: Physiology Professor from Florida State University, Dr. Lloyd M. Beidler took center stage in Orson Spencer Hall auditorium last night. Dr. Beidler further elaborated on chemical sensitivity and the roles of our nerves throughout the years. The event was hosted by Sigma Xi, a national organization for the encouragement of scientific research.

“Medic’s Test Set”

“Man's History is Change of Cultures Says Dr. Mead” by Karlynn Hinnman
Dr. Margaret Mead brings attention to the history of mankind. She further discusses cultural jumps and how they have impacted and have become well suited into our identities.

“Mel Hall Jazz Quintet to Play for Folly”

“Monday is Last Day for Late Ute Registration”: Reminder for students that Monday will be the last day for late Ute registration. Once registration is complete materials should be taken to Park 110. Students will receive an “E” (for non-attendance) if they fail to bring any change in classes or withdrawal from classes to the Registrar office.

“Senate Fight Goes on with Office Question” by Linda Covey

ASUU senate struggles to find appropriate class representation, due to concerns with senators who are affiliated and unaffiliated. The two-hour controversy reached a compromise, in which resulted in a committee dedicated to representatives from both sides. The committee will be chairmanned by John West.

“Mead Relates Nationhood and Culture”: Dr. Margaret Mead emphasizes the connection between nationhood and culture during last night’s speech at Kingsbury Hall. The discussion focused on understanding the roots of identity and being able to connect those with our growing society.

“Local News”

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 03-30-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 103

Page: 2

Articles:

“Limitations”: A topic concerning America’s higher education focuses on a recent independent case study. Dr. Banesh Hoffman, author and professor of mathematics at Queens College, New York, informs how multiple choice exams seem to discourage a majority of students’ abilities to be creative. An argument takes place between multiple choice and essays.

“Letters to the Editor”: Dian Schleckman and Andrea Foote comment on the Student Senate’s views of the amendments. The discussion further elaborates on the presence of unaffiliated and affiliated student senators.

Classified Advertisements: Ads for things like rooms for rent, lost and found items, roommates, and services.

“Florida State Proposes Academic Honor System”: An academic honor system is proposed through Dr. Kellogg Hunt at Florida State University. The system will report primarily on dishonesty. Every member of the student body (through university enrollment) will then have to subscribe to the academic integrity pledge.

“Students Make with Legal Absenteeisms”: University President A Ray Olpin announces the legal absence dismissal of Merlene Brown, Joyce Carter, Kay Winston from March 27th through April 3rd and Nanette Humphery and Alice Serino for the dates April 6th through April 10th.

List of Advertisements: Ads for things like rooms for rent, lost and found items, roommates, and services.

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 03-30-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 103

Page: 3

Articles:

“Union Board, Council Now Open”: Applicants are welcome to apply for Union Board Chairman and Union Program Council. Multiple committees are eager to add new faces to their team. Committees include: Program council, This Week Honor, Square Dance, Spotlight and The Union Publicity. Applications will be collected throughout the week.

“Calling ‘U’”

“ID, S.E.A., Social Meets”: Quick briefs of university events include ID pictures for those who failed to have them taken during registration, Student Education Association’s March meeting and Sigma Pi Sigma’s presentation of a symposium.

List of Advertisements:

1. A wedding revenue is advertised by Crestwood Villa.
2. An advertisement for Old Spice stick deodorant.
3. Tower Theatres showcase “The Millionairess” this weekend.
4. Davis Jewelry Co. invite customers to shop at their store
5. Mennen Deodorant advertisement.
6. Greyhound advertises student discounts for Easter.

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 03-30-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 103

Page: 4

Articles:

“Spring Football Practice Slated”: With football now in season, an overview of the team’s expectations and up and coming performance is slated. Mentions include Ed Pine, Marvin Holmes, Joe Borich, Marv Fleming, Gordon Dotson, Bill Cravens, Gordy Lee, Jerry Overton, Gordon Frank, Jim Hoggan and the losses of Ken Peterson, Tony Polychronis, Terry Nofsinger and Stan Uyeshiro.

“Drizzle by H2O”: A Redskins basketball game analysis. Game observation outlines challenges faced through the NCAA finals. Mentions include: Wyoming Basketball coach Ev Shelton, Bill Waters, Jack Eagan, McGill, and Morton.

List of Advertisements:

1. Aristo Craft advertises stainless steel appliances.
2. An ad for Frost’s Book and Record Shop.
3. Viggo’s Toggery invites customers to their Easter sale on suits.
4. Arrow ad for suits from their Cum Laude Collection.
5. Jockey Power Knit T-Shirts ad.
6. Tape Recorders for sale by private vendor.
7. Minutemen Ins. Agency advertises Auto Insurance.
8. Ashtonian bar ad. Slogan: “Home of the Big Schooner”

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 04-01-1961

Volume: 700

Number: 103

Page: 1

Articles:

“U Building Committee Plans Memorial Annex”: In this satirical article, a memorial annex is under construction through the U Building committee. The memorial will embody the beloved home of business, psychology journalism and surveying students. The outside of the memorial will include a twenty-foot foundation of falling stairs, while the inside will include an automatic floor squeaker, special furnace, and a smoke/burnt coffee aroma emitting machine. Though tentative plans are developing, the committee urge students to volunteer their pets for the animal pen furnishing. Construction of the annex will officially take place as a designated location (that is far enough away from civilization) is found.

“University States Plan to Become Women's College” by Parry D Sorenson

In the following satirical article, information is leaked that the University is to become a woman's college. Officials deny the claim. It is guessed that the change will take place in September. After hearing the news, Officers of Associated Women Students intend on leading an all woman student demonstration disapproving of the sanction, “If there aren't going to be any men here, there won't be any women either!” said Carri On, AWS president. Not only that but there has also been a flood from applicants of male professors filling administrative offices due to the up and coming change.

“U Journalism Divorces Utah Chrony”: In this satirical article the University Department of Journalism decides to split from the Daily Utah Chronicle due to the paper's lack of proper etiquette. Journalism officials believe that newspapers should have all facts checked and corrected within an instance, and the Chrony unfortunately struggles with that concept.

“This is Fer Real”: University women who want to be a part of the swim team must meet today at noon in the major room of the gym. Those unable to meet, should contact Diana Davis at DA 2-4263. With baseball season starting, mark your calendars for this Friday and Saturday. The games will start at 1 p.m.

“Torrents Howls over New Talk Series”

“Regents Review Grades, Abolish Earliest Classes”: This satirical article discusses the abolishment of 7:45 a.m. classes. The Board of Regents came to the decision after careful consideration and deep discussion. The main argument comes from the low grades that accompany the early classes due to students sleeping and/or professors who wake upset. The new starting times for classes go as follows: 8:50, 10, 11:05 a.m. and 2 p.m. Students will also be required to take a minimum of three afternoon classes.

“Presidential Hopefuls Blast Utes' Student Government”: This satirical article elaborates on the wanted abolishment of the Exec Council and the post of student body president. Chuck Quakerlow and Steve Boobbank share the statement; “The entire principle of student government is fallacious”. The two also have asked the Daily Chronicle to turn all votes over to the campus chest. Candidates for other Exec Council positions have been oddly silent since the remarks.

“Bulletin”: This satirical article shares the success story of University graduate student Dean Henry Ironing. Ironing is a Utahn astronaut who has been to space and back. His voyage took place with his very own homemade rocket and capsule. The Pentagon has not recognized Ironing's expedition since the rocket and capsule were not built under the direction of the Army Missile Program.

“Union Displays Oilpan's Water Color Paintings”: The following satirical article informs readers of Pres. A Rey Oilpan’s artwork premier. Hosted by the newly-organized University Student Art Critic Guild. The display gracefully sits in the Union. The paintings illustrate the Guild’s Board of Directors (who are coincidentally the University Board of Regents as well).

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 04-01-1961

Volume: 700

Number: 103

Page: 2

Articles:

“Student U”: The satirical article shares the University Board of Regents’ decision to give Student Government complete power to take over the University. This new and profound power distribution may possibly result in two blocs– affiliated and unaffiliated Regents, members will possess no parliamentary procedure, the President becoming more concerned with appearance, new ID card layouts, etc.

“Letters to the Editors”: Greta Armstrong Jones humbly pleads for a position as society editor with the Chronicle in this satirical piece. Her experience primarily is from her highschool days at the Kennedy Jr high school Chronicle.

“Surprise”: The Chronicle laughs off the written articles in this current April Fool’s newspaper edition.

Classified Advertisements: Ads for things like rooms for rent, lost and found items, roommates, and services.

“U A S S U Prexy Lists Excusals”: A satirical announcement made by UASSU President John Bennion Hall. He announces the legal absence dismissal of Adolph Hitler, Joseph Stalin, Harry S. Truman, A. Ray Oilpan, Fidel Castro and members of the Board of Regents.

“This Week We Honor”: Beebee Lavoom is honored this week in this satirical piece. Lavoom is described as an active personality who tends to finger every pie on campus. Her activity memberships include the No Talent committee, Jingle Jangles, Students that are Bored committee and several others. It is also added that Lavoom is also the chairman of the This Week We Honor committee and the only reason why she was selected for this weekly prize.

“Chronicle Ads Free, Boob Pexton Says”: This satirical brief states that ads which are placed in the April 22nd edition of the Chronicle will run free of charge shares Boob Pexton, Chronicle business manager.

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 04-01-1961

Volume: 700

Number: 103

Page: 3

Articles:

“Calling ‘U’”

“Cloddy Nobly Burns for Student Annex”: In this satirical article, Linda Cloddy, Chronic mangling editor appears in student court today. Cloddy has been summoned due to smoking pipe in the annex. Cloddy comments that her intentions were to set the annex on fire in service to the student body. After further litigation, she was acquitted and recommended to be presented the ‘Woman of the Year’ award.

“Dean Bolsters General Ed Requirements”: In this satirical article, General Ed requirements will become more appreciated through a newly introduced program called “Further Enrichment to the General Confusion of the General Education Program”. The program will take 35 hours to complete. More information concerning the program will be published in the new tissue paper edition catalogue.

“Watch out for Man-Eating Fish in U Pool”: Union Official Vern Weener finds a man -eating fish in the U pool in this satirical article. Professor Dan Dorman of the biology department will be conducting an objective experiment with the new find. Students are discouraged to wash themselves in the pool with the fish until further notice is given.

“If You No Like”

“Living Library to Lend Homey Touch”: In this satirical article, a new lavish library is to be made in the health center. The library will embody home comfort. Beds will be available for those students who would enjoy studying in a reclining position. The atmosphere will include gray lighting, progressive jazz, friendly flies, stimulants, sedatives and free x-rays.

“Tea Gives OK on Bedroom of Trade Grant”: In this satirical article, Mare Chay Broken Tea announces their 100 percent endorsement of a $10,000 grant to Salt Lake City “Bedroom of Trade” for the print of a unique handbook about how to increase Salt Lake Traffic Toll. Other absurd mentions include grants given to Mrs. A. Ray Oilpan.

List of Advertisements:

1. Unitarian advertises their Psychiatry and Marriage counseling.
2. Eight Day Book Gallery advertises their services.
3. Hughes Burdett Floral advertises an easter sale.
4. Tower Theatres debuts “Hiroshima Mon Amour” and “Othello”
5. Union Movies present Arsenic and Old Lace.
6. Rancho Lanes advertises their recreation center.

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 04-01-1961

Volume: 700

Number: 103

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utah's Footballers Begin Rough Workouts”: In this satirical article, Coach Ray Noodle shares insight concerning the Ute Football. He is seriously considering adding Homo Sapien species this year due to players focusing more on books. The team has taken some losses this past season and Noodle is trying his best to be hopeful.

“Local News”

“Tally Ho”: In this satirical article, fellows from Ute Land adventure to the ski areas in hopes of bagging the prized clad “Femaleuskiusbunny”. It has been several months of forced hibernation and the species is avoiding capture with every strength in their body. It is warned that the “Femaleuskiusbunny” is difficult to snag and one should approach with caution when near the ski lodge bar.

List of Advertisements:

1. Tape Recorders are advertised through a private vendor.
2. British Walker Pants are advertised through Rook men’s shop.

3. Frost's Book and Record shop advertises their services.
4. Bennett's Downtown Fordland advertises an easter sale for students.
5. House of Pizza advertises their services.
6. An ad for Fitch Leading Man's Shampoo.

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 04-03-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 104

Page: 1

Articles:

“Scholarship Applications Now Available”: Scholarship applications for the following are now available; Minute Woman's Award, Mu Phi Epsilon Award, Chi Omega Award, Mortar Board Alumnae, Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae Scholarship, Salt Lake City Panhellenic Award, Phi Mu Scholarship and the Cwean Award.

“Germany Reports Crash Victims Possibly Shot”: Quick briefs concerning international politics. Topics range from a German plane crash, Washington's proposal of a strict security program and the abolishment of their federal farm price support system, Moscow's views towards Loas, Seoul's case study on matchmaking, and a murder trial taking place in Los Angeles.

“Kingsbury Set to Produce "Lear”: Shakespears' work takes stage at Kingsbury Hall. The University Theatre will showcase “King Lear” starting Tuesday and which will then continue through Saturday. Student seats are free in the upper balcony and half price elsewhere during wednesday and thursday. The cast will include: Joseph F. Catmull, Dean Lundberg, Marvin Boyer, Therald Todd, Glen Camomile, Robert Miller, Harold Folland, Neil G. Barclay, Rashad Kamal, Ken Shuey, Hal Hickman, Audrey Becker, Helen Horn, Joyce Dotson, Tom Drury, Gordon Johnson, Jim Mcdonald, Stuart Dye, Robert Gordon, Victor Gordon, Alvin Kieffer and Jim Hunter.

“100 Lauded Photos Displayed in Union”: The Union Art Exhibitions committee and the art department hosts over 100 international high honor winning photographs. Each piece is to be hung within the Union Building, on the fourth floor. The pieces will be on display through April 15th.

“Mathematics, History Set Comprehensive Exams”: A math comprehensive is taking place in Physical Science 104 this month. Date and time for the assessment is April 8th between 8:30 and 11:30 a.m. There is a four dollar fee. The history comprehensive will take place April 25th from 1 to 4 p.m in Orson Spencer Hall 342.

“Cwean Presents Application Tea on Wednesday”

“Sound off Theme: Liquor over Bar”

“ASUU Groups Taking Forms for Members”

“Union Board Head”

“Christian Unity Sets Theme for SCF Talk?”: Orson Spencer Hall invites speakers: Dr. J. Robert Nelson to present his views on chirstian unity: Reality or Illusion. Dr. Nelson is a professor of Ecumenical Theological Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary. The event is open to the public and free of charge.

“ID Pixs Ready”

“Today Deadline for Tardy Ute Registrants”: Announcement for those registering late to the university. Students will need permission from their deans in order to register after today. The Registrar office, Park 110, will be processing changes or withdrawals from classes.

“Honorary Frat Groups Open to Application”

“Applicant Deadline Today for Beehive”

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 04-03-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 104

Page: 2

Articles:

“Purposeful”: ASUU announce their spring elections. The student government welcomes those to apply who want to create the change they envision. A meeting will take place for students who are interested. The meeting will give insight into the positions available and what duties they possess. A pre-election will also aid in scouting the best fitted for the seats available.

“Bedrolling Fad Hits Texas U”: A new Canadian and British college gimmick is introduced to Texas U. Students are mounting mattresses to three bicycle wheels and rolling them down busy streets. Originally, the fad was used to raise funds for the World University Service and similar campus drives.

“Beneficial”: This spring, students are invited to attend many student based productions. Activities include: King Lear, the spring ballet, Coppelia, Songfest, U Revue and the Orchesis.

Classified Advertisements: Ads for things like rooms for rent, lost and found items, roommates, and services.

“This Week We Honor”: The Chronicle honors the Union Program Council and the following individuals, Chairman Rosemary Jensen; Secretary, Linda Nielsen; Union Program advisor, Doug Jensen and his secretary, Carol Schleckman. The group is recognized for their often-under-estimated efforts.

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 04-03-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 104

Page: 3

Articles:

“Debs to Show Fashions at Luncheon”: Symphony Debs annual fashion show and luncheon will be held at 1 p.m in the Prudential Auditorium, 3261 South State. Theme: A Symphony of Color. The outfits of choice will be modeled by Rie Rogers Mitchell, Mary Beth Moll, Sue Clawson, Marilyn Mandarino, Julia Smith, Connie Rodman and Julia Hansen. Tickets are priced at $2.50.

“Foreign Student Summer Program Set for Colorado”: International students who are majoring in economics/agricultural economics within the U.S are invited to a special summer training program. The event will take place at the University of Colorado in Boulder on June 30th through August 30. The training will cover micro-economic theory, supplementary training, concentrated training, practice in oral and written English and a general introduction to the U.S economy and society.

“Calling ‘U’”

“U Law School Graduate Nabs U. S. Post”: Mrs. Reva Beck Bosone, a former University Law School student swore into her new judicial officer position for the post office last week. The swear in was administered by Postmaster General J. Edward Day. Mrs. Bosone’s duties will include sitting on hearings associated with obscene literature, and in cases involved with fraud and misuse of mail.

“NROTC Visits California Marine Base”: Multiple NROTC students from the university and Washington University visit El Toro Marine Corps Air Station and facility in California for orientation. The Utah group was accompanied by Major Robert A. Smith, J. Fred Gough.

“Model UN Help Called”

“SS College Test Date Scheduled”: The Selective Service Board is now accepting applications for the College Qualification Test. The exam will take place April 27th. Applications should be sent to Selective Service Examining Section, Educational Testing Service, PO Box 586, Princeton, New Jersey.

List of Advertisements:

1. Tape Recorders for sale by private vender.
2. Teachers who are interested in receiving their copy of vacancy listings are advertised.
3. Tampico dinner house advertises their services.
4. An advertisement of Eight Day Book Gallery.
5. Old Spice advertisement for After Shave Lotion.
6. Tower Theatres debuts “Hiroshima Mon Amour” and “Othello”
7. All Makes Typewriter advertises Olympia typewriter.
8. Minutemen Ins. Agency advertises auto insurance.
9. An advertisement for Christian Unity: Reality or Illusion.

List of Cartoons or Art: none

Issue date: 04-03-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 104

Page: 4

Articles:

“Skin Baseballers Sweep Two from Hapless Dixie Team”: Utah’s Skyline Championship baseball team goes against St. George’s Dixie College. The team played two home games and won both. Mentions include: Coach Pres Summerhays, Harold Warfle, Darryl Eisner, Vern Allred, Denny Bonny, Whitey Vanwoerkom, Bion Wilcox, Gary anderson and Tom Lovat.

“Ute Places in NCAA Grappleships”: Weighing 167 pounds Skyline champion, Frank Hankin, captain of the Ute wrestling team, placed fourth in NCAA finals. Hankin has been noted as one of the most successful grapplers to ever wrestle for the Utes. He has won the Skyline Championship in his weight for three years straight.

“Nofsinger Inks Pact with Pittsburgh”: Former Ute quarterback, Terry Nofsinger was selected for NFL’s 17th draft round. Nofsinger will be accompanying Ute teammate Gary Chestang. Both will be under training at the Steeler training camp this summer.

List of Advertisements:

1. An ad for Frost’s Book and Record Shop.
2. Diamond Import and Brokerage Company advertises their services.
3. Advertisement for Shelly Berman and Cumberland Three.
4. The U.S Air Force advertises requirement.

List of Cartoons or Art: none

Issue date: 04-04-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 107

Page: 1

Articles:

“Tuition Grants Set for U Hall of Fame”: Applications for the scholarships that are to be shown at the AWS Hall of fame is deadline for April 15th. Scholarships that are being awarded are named as follows: the Myrtle Austin Scholarship, Dean’s Meritorious Scholarship, The Pet-Cloverleaf Scholarship, Arden Meadowgold Scholarship, Sterling W. Sill Scholarship, The ZCMI Fabrics Award and The Deseret Book Company Award. For applications and further information concerning the scholarships visit the Dean of Women’s Office, Park 209.

“Robertson's Oratorio Slated for Recording”: Vanguard Recording Society, Inc., of New York City is arriving to Salt Lake City to record “Scarlatti Mass,” which will be conducted with the University Opera Chorus. Seymour Soloman, recording company head, will be supervising the recording. Mentions include: Dr. Alexander Schreiner, Dr. LeRoy Robertson, Maurice Abravanel, Dr. David A. Shand and John Marlowe Nielson.

“ASUU 'Hopefuls' Set Meet Today”: ASUU government applicants gather today for further insight on their potential duties. President John Bennion intends to scout out those who are best fitted for the roles through breaking the masses into smaller groups and examining each applicant individually.

“Shakespeare's 'King Lear' Opens Tonight on Campus”: Kingsbury Hall showcases the King Lear. The event is open to the public. Joseph F. Catmull will embody the king for the second time at the university. Tickets may be purchased at Kingsbury Hall 210 and the Tribune office.

“Forms due Thursday for Mortar Board”

“Dutch Geologist to Visit Ute Campus”: Prominent Dutch geologist Professor Rein van Bemmelen intends on making an appearance this week at the University. Bemmelen will be discussing “Relations between Volcanism and Human History in Central Java”, Wednesday at the Orson Spencer Hall auditorium at 8 p.m.. Thursday at noon, in the Union Little Theatre, the topic will shift to “theory on Gravity - Tectonic”.

“Show Seeks Lead for 'Promenade'”: A student production composed by Ron Daum, directed by Ann Marie Boyden, and choreographed by Joan Francis called U Review is currently seeking a female lead. The three-act musical comedy will include over 200 Utes and will be featured during U Days.

“Id Photo Date Set”

“ASUU Committees Need 3 Chairmen”

“Application Tea Set by Cwean”

“Pictures Taken”

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none

Issue date: 04-04-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 107

Page: 2

Articles:

“Go Slow”: President A. Ray Olpin warns students of possible booby traps that take place within the Peace Corps. Though the Kennedy Administration highly advocates the program to help defeat communism and to aid those in need, there is still a concern whether or not the program holds true validity.

“Campus Editors Across America Express Peace Corps Opinions”: As the Kennedy Administration introduces the Peace Corps., various opinions concerning the program is raised. Campus Editors from BYU, Lebanon Valley College, University of Kansas, Syracuse University, University of Minnesota, and Antioch College share their views on the impact and discovery the organization will introduce.

“Weathermen Forcasted Windy Easter!”

List of Advertisements: Ads for things like rooms for rent, lost and found items, roommates, and services.

List of Cartoons or Art:

1. Little Man on Campus. Caption: “Nice day for flying Professor, I notice th’sundecks around th’ campus are just covered with girls”

Issue date: 04-04-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 107

Page: 3

Articles:

“U Committee Chairmen Forms Due”: Those interested in Chairman positions must submit applications Friday. Nineteen seats are available. Applications may be picked up at the Union Information front desk.

“Economics Institute Slated for Boulder, Colorado”: International students who are majoring in economics/agricultural economics within the U.S are invited to a special summer training program. The event will take place at the University of Colorado in Boulder on June 30th through August 30. The training will cover micro-economic theory, supplementary training, concentrated training, practice in oral and written English and a general introduction to the U.S economy and society.

“Frosh Coeds to Rally for Sports”: Freshmen girls are welcomed to a special afternoon of sports sponsored by the new WRA Freshmen Council. The council themes include: Come out and play with WRA and Sports Spectacular. Sports range from volleyball to trampoline activities.

“Calling ‘U’”

“Test Date Set for Selective Service Board”

“Rush Begins Monday”

“Chrony Spot Filled”

“Special Class Set”: A non-credit course on “Developing Your Personal Resources” is underway and taught by Dr. Herbert A. Otto, professor of social work. The class is listed as Adult Education 45.

“Quick Change”

List of Advertisements:

1. Hygeia Swimland advertises their services.
2. Mikado advertises their restaurant.
3. Macy’s advertises their Executive Training Program towards Graduates.
4. Tower Theatres showcases “Hiroshima Mon Amour” and “Othello”
5. French bicycles are for sale through private vender.

List of Cartoons or Art: none

Issue date: 04-04-1961

Volume: 70

Number: 107

Page: 4

Articles:

“Redskin Linksters Anticipate Cats” by Owen L. Saunders

Golfing season has begun and Utah's Redskin golf team will feature five returning players. Each player has been trained under the professional leadership of Coach Vinnie Mcguire. During the team's spring training trip, they managed to win five matches, lose six and tied one. The Utes have an incredible team and are well prepared for the season. Mentions include: Jim Ellsworth, Dave Benbow, Bob Irvine and John Gaskill.

“Baseball Team Looks to League Opener”: The Utes prepare themselves for their first conference game on Friday. The team will meet BYU in Provo. The Cougars will try their best to displace Utah as Western Division representative for the Skyline Championship. Coach Summerhays notes on Utes improvement as the season continues. Mentions include: Darryl Eisner, vern Allred, Tom Lovat, harold Warfle, Bill Bohn, Bruce Parry, Bob Swiler, Tom Kingdon, Denny Bonny, Bion Wilcox, Larry Ray, Kent Draayer and Howard Van Woerkom.

List of Advertisements: none

List of Cartoons and Art: none