

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Sophia Jeong

Issue Date: April 19, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 118
Page: 1

Articles:

“Utes Vote Today on Offices, Referendums”: Elections are going on throughout the campus to select 1960-1961 Associated Students of the University of Utah (ASUU) president, vice presidents, coordinator, secretary, and treasurer. The election also determines the retention of University membership in the National Student Association. There is also the election of officers of the Women’s Recreation Association. The image shows the presidential candidates Dellenbach and Brockbank in the debate on campaign issues and students government problems.

“Hopefuls Brockbank, Dellenbach Reveal Presidential Platforms”: Steve Brockbank, an ASUU President candidate, proposes that student senators would be appointed to serve on the student-faculty committees. The meetings would be open to the public and form more reliable communication and liaison between the student government and students. Bob Dellenbach, another candidate, announces that the Senate would form an evaluation committee to earn the respect of the faculty and the opportunity to lead out for the students.

“Thomson, Carpenter List Formal 1st Veep Stands”: Jon Carpenter, an ASUU 1st Vice President candidate, supports to maintain in National Student Association. He proposes the amendment providing Senate seats for the five class officers in each class. Carpenter also offers to formulate better foreign student programs. He would revise the ASUU budget to provide better services to the larger interest groups on campus. He believes the close coordination with the Exec Council is significant.

“2nd Vice Pres. Candidates State Views”: Steve Swindle argues that there should be better communication between the student and the student court. Swindle states that the school needs more legal advisors for the Executive Council. Jon West asserts that coordination between the Executive Council, the Senate, Student Court, student-faculty committees, administration, Chronicle, and the students is fundamental.

“Peace Corps”: The discussion on the youth peace crops will be held at noon in Orson Spencer Hall auditorium. The student body is invited. Pres. A. Ray Olpin, Harold W. Bentley, Mr. Chuck Akerlow, and Miss Martha Hales will make a speech, moderated by John Benion.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 19, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 118
Page: 2

Articles:

“On Their Merits...”: There have been issues about how elections at the University of Utah has the form of a popularity contest. To prevent that, every candidate has submitted their pledges to the Chronicle. The ASUU President candidates Steve Brockbank and Bob Dellenbach, and vice president candidates Ralph Thomson and Jon West suggested their commitments. Bob Archibald and Joy Dahlberg, candidates for treasurer, also did. The coordinator candidates Linda LeCheminant and Peggy Kunz’s beliefs are in too.

“Secretary Hopefuls Tell Duties, Responsibilities of ASUU Office”: The ASUU Secretary candidates Kay Winston and Bonnie Anderson proposed their promises. Kay Winton said that there would be more assemblies and convocations to create a more excellent conversation between students, and among the international students too. Bonnie Anderson noted that the secretary should act as a stabilizer for the group. She said that she would supervise the cultural and academic events on campus.

“Letters to the Editor”: Charlotte Cassettes, Marie Boyden, Elizabeth Anderson, Sandy Snow, and Grace Bradford would like to express their full support for Julie Herndon. Julie Herndon was the write-in candidate for Associated Womens Students’ president. According to the letter, Julie Herndon has a strong character and has experience with AWS Council.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisements for the students to use the Chronicle to leave their advertisements for sale or personal messages. The Slogan is “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 19, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 118
Page: 3

Articles:

“Dahlberg, Archibald Formulate ASUU Treasurer Statements”: Bob Archibald, the ASUU Treasurer candidate, introduced the programs he outlined. He offered a regional inter-mural athletic competition with the winners of the Utah intra-murals competing them of BYU. He also proposed student-participation committee. Joy Dahlberg, another candidate, promised hard work and sincere interest in the office of ASUU treasurer and for the good of students and student government.

“Lectures, Photos, ID, Play Set Days Campus Events”: Dr. Leo Moser will give the lecture titled “Problems on Combinational Geometry.” Utopian staff members will take their group photo in the Utonian offices. “The Deadly Game” is presented from Thursday to Saturday, directed by Robert Hyde Wilson.

List of Advertisements:

1. Ingmar Bergman’s “The Virgin Spring” presented at the Tower Theatres
2. Advertisement on Rancho “42” Lanes Recreation Center, a coffee shop
3. Vote no on Class Officer Amendment
4. Vote yes on NSA and for the election of campus delegates

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. The campaign poster of Steve Swindle, the second Vice President candidate
2. The campaign poster of Linda LeCheminant, A.S.U.U. Personnel coordinator candidate.
3. The campaign poster of Deanne Simmons, the A.W.S Vice President Candidate
4. The campaign poster of Bob Archibald, ASUU Treasurer candidate
5. The campaign poster of Jon West, A.S.U.U. second Vice president candidate

Issue Date: April 19, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 118

Page: 4

Articles:

“Candidates Bare Promises”: Peggy Kunz and Linda LeCheminant are the candidates for Personnel Coordinator. Kunz said that she would use the data collected in the Senate Research Project to aid in evaluating existing programs. LeCheminant would work closely with the Personnel Committee to see that overlapping does not occur. She would set up definite criteria for selecting members.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisement on U Days Queen. The slogan is “Be Original... write in Judy Taylor.”
2. Advertisement on U.S. Savings Bonds. The slogan is “Share in America with U.S. Savings Bonds.”
3. The campaign message of Sue Griffin for U Days Queen.
4. The campaign message of Julie Herndon for Write-in AWS President.
5. Ad on Viggo’s Toggery, a suit sale.
6. Ad on Contact Lens. The slogan is “Thinking about Contact Lenses?”
7. Ad on Schreyer’s precision typewriters. The slogan is “Special! For home or office.”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Campaign poster of Rie Rogers, AWS Vice President candidate.

2. Campaign poster of Bob Dellenbach, A.S.U.U President candidate.
3. Campaign poster of Joy Dahlberg, ASUU Treasurer candidate.
4. Campaign poster of Ralph Thomson, 1st Vice President candidate.
5. Campaign poster of Peggy Kunz, personnel coordinator candidate.
6. Campaign poster of Steve Brockbank, ASUU President candidate.

Issue Date: April 20, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 119
Page: 1

Articles:

“Applications Due”

“‘Issues’ Campaign Shakes Quiet ASUU Campus Election Scene”: The ASUU Executive Council issued a statement which student groups can vote during the election. The election allows the class officers to keep the prestige of their present titles while assuming new duties as ASUU senators. The class officers shall perform the duties traditionally. Official procedures are already in practice. The Student Court asked to remove referendum campaign signs, and the Executive Council rejected the request. A possible “delayed action” was newly added to the constitution. Bud Billiter, court chief justice, said that it was not the court decision to put down the campaign posters or not. Brockbank noted that there should be more rules to cover referendum campaigns. Clark countered that every student and organization should have the same rights. The image shows Joyce McKay and Marion Hassel voting for ASUU elections.

“WRA Elections Continue at Campus Polls”: The election for Women’s Recreational Association is still going. To vote, a WRA member should have eight points. The WRA Candidates are Joyce Richards and Joyce Carter for the president position. Sheri Peterson and JaNae Humphrey are the assistant intramural manager candidates. Jan Norton and Connie Abegglen are the secretary position, and Judy Sheya and Nancy Segerstedt are for the treasurer. Barbara Walton and Phyllis Roundy are the historian candidates. Nancy Marriott and Nancy Hills are running for publicity chairman.

“Playbox Stages ‘Different’ Play Tonight”

“ID Photographs Slated In OSH Today Noon”

“Today Decides Fate Of Queen Candidates”: The candidates for U Days Queen is Sandy Snow, Carolyn Murdock, Sue Brienholt, Sue Griffin, and Julie Allen. Miss Snow is a junior and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Miss Murdock is a senior and the president of the Chi chapter of Lambda Delta Sigma and Tae Beta Sigma. Sigma Alpha Epsilon supports Miss Griffin. Alpha Chi Omega supports Miss Allen.

“U Receives Grant For Science Push”: The National Science Foundation award $35,500 to the University for supporting an Advanced Subject-Matter Institute. The University of Utah,

Oklahoma State University, and the University of Georgia are conducting the summer programs. Two guest lecturers are coming to the Summer Institute: Professor Lynn H. Loomis from Harvard University and Professor John C. Oxtoby from Byrn Mawr College.

“Final Voting to Reveal Many Election Winners”: Gaylord Paulson, the Election Committee chairman, announced that all candidates in both primary and final elections must turn in expense accounts to ASUU office. He also said that he would count cotes at 4 p.m. in Union 304A. The election results will be announced tonight at 7 in Union 278.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 20, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 119

Page: 2

Articles:

“We Get Letters from Our Readers”: Ralph Thomson, the ASUU 1st Vice President Candidate, promised that he would get a full-time foreign student advisor with a secretary to make better international student programs. Grayson S. Wright, Sub-Chairman, Students from Abroad Committee with Morton D. Mendelsolm, Judy Murdock, and Ross Anderson said that they would work to form the better Abroad committee for the foreign students. Bob Dellenbach, ASUU President candidate, proposed that Senate Evaluations committee he was planning was to be an absorbing cloth to collect the complaints of the students on campus and to handle them. Bob Sperry, Stu Dye, Ann Taylor, Nance Merrill, Jane Thody, Bion Wilcox, and Linda Derrick said that the ASUU Treasurer promised the allocation of more than $60,000 of student money. Steve Brockbank, ASUU President candidate, persuaded to vote ‘yes’ to the class officer amendment.

“Senate Passes Resolution on Art Display”: The Senate noted that they would put the screens in the Union for display, not to distract from the architecture.

“Mature Execs...”: There have been conflicts between the University’s Executive Council and class officers. A group of “Students for Good Government” encouraged the students to vote against class officers and for NSA. The posters were ripped down, and there have been controversies on whether to put the signs up or down.

List of Advertisements:

1. The advertisement to encourage using the Chronicle for personal statements or sale and rent. The slogan is “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 20, 1961Volume: 70Number: 119Page: 3Articles:

“Kennedy ‘Peace Corps’ Panel-Forum in Offing”: John Bennion, ASUU President, encouraged all students to attend in the panel discussion. The discussion is about the new youth peace corps. Harold W. Bentley, dean of the Extension Division and the University students Martha Hales and Chuck Akerlow participated in the discussion. They would discuss the recent announcement by president Olin and the campus committee for the National Student Association. The image shows the participation of John Benin, Dean Harold W. Bentley, and NSA Executive Don Clifford in a panel discussion concerning the Youth Peace Corps.

“What Makes Jazz Jazz?” Sets Lecture”: Dr. William Fowler has the lecture about Jazz in the Union. He is the professor of music at the University. Shelly Hyde’s jazz ensemble will demonstrate the various stages in the history of jazz.

“Army ROTC Drill Team Receives Winning Honors”: The Army ROTC cadet drill team would demonstrate their precise and complicated tactics. The army’s demonstration is under the evaluation of Captain Mark Roads, professor of military science and tactics of the Salt Lake City high schools. The image shows Captain Mark Roads in practice.

“Cadaver Carvers Gather Saturday”: Pre-med students from the intermountain states will attend the Ninth Annual Pre-Medical Conference. It will be held at the Union on Saturday. Irvine McQuarrie, president of the Utah Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta, encouraged all student interested in medicine to attend.

“Utes Must Register For English Romp”*List of Advertisements:

1. Invitation to ceramic engineering seminar. The slogan is “Calling ‘u’”
2. The ad of “H.C. Haight and Sons”
3. The ad of Ingmar Bergman’s “The Virgin Spring” show at the Tower Theatres.
4. The ad of Minuteman Ins. Agency. The slogan is, “Can’t get auto insurance?”
5. The ad of Bowling Tournament
6. Campaign statement of Julie Herndon, Write-in AWS President
7. Campaign statement of Sue Griffin for U Days Queen
8. The advertisement of Davis Jewelry Co. The slogan is “We Guarantee a Better Deal on all Discount Cards.”
9. The advertisement of “Touch of the Twenties” dance.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Campaign poster of Steve Swindle, second Vice President candidate.
2. Campaign poster of Linda LeCheminant, ASUU Personnel Coordinator candidate.

Issue Date: April 20, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 119

Page: 4

Articles:

“Ute Linksters, Netters Blank Montana Foes”: Steve Morgan and Mike Hogarty are the university of Utah tennis team under Coach Theron Parmeless. They strengthened their hold on the Skyline Western Division lead by blanking Montana state by 7 to 0. The weather was terrible, but it did not affect their perfect condition. They did not drop one single set throughout the seven matches. Their next game is against Utah State University team.

“Hole ’n One” by Owen L. Saunders: Utah’s golfing Redskins won their second conference match by 18 to 0. The Redskins made one spectacular scene, hole in one. Then Larry Stowe dropped the ball in the cup, which was followed by Jim Bryngelson of Montana. The image shows Jerry Howells, Utah golfer, in Wednesday’s greens match.

“Publications Applications Due Friday”: The deadline for applying for the 1961-62 publications is Friday. Grant Calder, chairman of the Publications Council, said that the applicants should have a 2.0 overall average with 12 credit hours this semester. Chronicle positions are for the first half of the school year.

“Panorama Presents Dinner, ‘Twenties”: Panorama Presents and the Union Dance Committee presents the dinner and dance. Dinner will be at 7:30 and dancing will start at 9 p.m. There will be performances by Charleston Black Bottom and Lame Duck dancers. Linda Ericsson, Union dance chairman, encourages everyone to come dressed formally.

List of Advertisements:

1. The advertisement for Ashtonian. The slogan is “Meet your friends.”
2. The ad of Glenwood Lounge and their happy times

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Campaign poster of Steve Brockbank, ASUU President candidate.
2. Campaign poster of Peggy Kunz, personnel coordinator candidate.
3. Campaign poster of Bob Dellenbach, ASUU President candidate.
4. Campaign poster of Deanne Simmons, A.W.S Vice presidential candidate.
5. Campaign poster of Ralph Thomson, 1st vice president candidate.
6. Campaign poster of Bonnie Anderson, ASUU Secretary candidate.
7. Campaign poster of Jon West, A.S.U.U. second Vice President candidate.

Issue Date: April 21, 1961

Volume: 70
Number: 120
Page: 1

Articles:

“Brockbank, Thomson, West Winners; U Days Finalists, Issue Result Told”: More than 1800 students participated in the voting of the University of Utah student body. Steve Brockbank was elected as the new president 1,110 to 753. Ralph Thomson was elected as the 1st vice president. Jon West was selected as the second vice president. Bonnie Anderson was chosen as the secretary. Bob Archibald was elected as the treasurer. Linda LeCheminant was elected as personnel coordinator. There are images of each elected winners.

“Victories Seem Likely for ‘Issues’ Bills”: The voting for University of Utah’s maintenance in National Student Association got the results. The University decided to remain in the NSA. The students voted on choosing the delegates by the students' election.

“Djobadze Talks Sunday in Park Museum”: Dr. Wachtang Z. Djobadze, an art historian of the College of Fine Arts, will have a lecture on Sunday. The speech is going to be about early Coptic art. He will specifically discuss Olsen Foundation Exhibition of Early Coptic Christian Art in Egypt. His visit is the second since 1959.

“A Touch of the Twenties’ Set Saturday in Panorama”: Panorama Presents and Union Dance committees present an event called “A Tough of the Twenties.” Singers and dancers are going to have some performances. Tickets are on sale at the Union Information dest. Participants need to wear formally.

“Register Today”

“U Sleeves Up! It’s Blood Time”: The annual Spring Blood Drive will begin. It is sponsored by Army and Air Force Sponsors. Donors may contribute anytime during the event. Participants should be over the age of 18 and in a good health condition.

“Cosmopolitans, Students From Abroad Parley”: There was the information session for the people who want to join the Cosmopolitan Club. Cosmopolitan Club is associated with Abroad Committee that its purpose is to form better communication with international students. Abroad Committee is planning various programs and events for foreign students.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 21, 1961
Volume: 70

Number: 120
Page: 2

Articles:

“Waiting, Watching...”: More than 20 University students were elected as a member of ASUU. Steve Brockbank, Ralph Thomson, Jon West, Bonnie Anderson, Bob Archibald, and Linda LeCheminant are the fortunate ones. More students were selected to be a part of AMS and AWS. Congratulations on all of them, but they must be aware of that they are expected to work hard for the University.

“Tidbits from the Chronicle Files of Long, Long Ago”: On April 12, 1929, before the assembly in the Assembly Hall, P.B. Garret showed a “Televox” machine, which is the electric fan nowadays. On April 16, 1936, the Chronicle became the twice-weekly newspaper again. On April 18, 1946, when Bill Jarvis and Jack Birk was running for ASUU President, Dr. Olpin announced that they would increase the activity fees from 10 to 13 dollars a year. During the week of April 16, 1951, 57 petitions were submitted from the students.

“Foreign Students...”: The students from Abroad committee, Cosmopolitan club, and ASUU are working to solve foreign student conflicts. They are designing various foreign student activities. John and Ralph Thomson from Abroad committee, Bob Clark and John Spronk from Cosmopolitan worked hard.

List of Advertisements:

1. The advertisement to encourage using the Chronicle for personal statements or sale and rent. The slogan is “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. “Little Man on Campus”: The cartoon shows the satisfied father holding the degree and bored son wearing a graduation cap.
2. Besides the title of an article, show the cartoons of old time life style such as riding horse and using classical telephone

Issue Date: April 21, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 120
Page: 3

“Calling U”

“Crony Heads Ford, Pexton Earns Scholarships”: Ernest Ford was awarded the annual Desert News internship. He was a junior majoring in journalism education. Robert Pexton was awarded the annual advertising scholarship from the Salt Lake Advertising Club. The two images show each of their faces.

“Chamber Music Schedules For Sunday”: The College of Fine Arts is presenting a chamber music concert. It is led by Professor Lous W. Booth. Ricks Knudsen, a graduate student in music, will be the featured piano soloist.

“Alpha Epsilon Delta to Meet”

List of Advertisements:

1. Ad on Floral Hughes Burdett to prepare for the Mother’s Day present. The slogan is “Don’t forget mother on mother’s day”
2. The ad of Ingmar Bergman’s “The Virgin Spring” show at the Tower Theatres.
3. The ad on a session with Charles Laughton. It is presented by Eugene Jolesnik.
4. The ad for a Bowling Tournament which was open to faculty, students, employees, and alumni.
5. The ad of a Bennett Buy. The sale on used car for the students. The slogan is “It’s Spring Value Time at Bennett Ford”
6. The ad of Sports Car Hair. The shop is in Manos Foot Pals by Wall Streeter.
7. The ad on a free Boats Display show. The slogan is “Hundreds of Boats at Display”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 21, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 120

Page: 4

Articles:

“University to Host Confab Of Science Instructors”: The university is planning to host the conference of biology and chemistry instructors from National Science Foundation. The purpose of the conference is to make cooperation. The first session will begin with Dr. William J. Burke (chairman of the University of Utah)’s lecture. The coordinators of the event are Donald A. Buckling of the University of Wisconsin, J. F. Hazel of the Penn, E.C. Markham from the University of North Carolina.

“Phi Delta Theta Reveals Project”: Phi Delta Theta fraternity announced that they were planning an event to clean up the Salt Lake Blind Centre. The purpose was for celebrating the traditional Community Service Day. According to Jack Haymond, president of the group, 62 men will participate.

“Campus Frats Make with Parties,” by Susan Scofield: The members of Phi Delta Theta are having their annual spring dinner dance. They will gather to the Oakridge Country Club with their dates. Kappa Sigs will have a tropical paradise for their annual South Sea Island Party. The Delta Gammas are planning to celebrate their annual Hannah day. The image shows a Greek organization's social activity.

“Officers Elected”

“BYU will Host Pre-Educators”: The Utah Student Education Association's annual convention is at the Brigham Young University campus. The most important schedule is the voting on newly-proposed state constitution and officers. The purpose of the convention is to discuss about educational hopes for the future will.

List of Advertisements:

1. The ad on Chronicle classified ads. The slogan is “Your Best Buy”
2. The ad of a learning abroad program. It is the Round-trip flights to Europe during the summer for 320 dollars.
3. The invitation to two forums. One is “Money as the Measure of all Things” by Rev. Thomas, and J. Maloney Boulder. The second one is a free mind form by Rev. John Wade. The image above shows the estimated savings.
4. The ad on KWIC Refreshing Radio which has nine different kinds of genres.
5. The ad on sale of used musical instruments. The Slogan is “Cleanup Sale”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 21, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 120

Page: 5

Articles:

“Kurswengen,” by Owen L. Saunders: Three different events to enjoy Spring are introduced. The first one is Costume Race, which is an annual event at Mt. Millicent Costume couple race. The second one is called Jumpers to Fly which is directed by The Intermountain Ski Association. The last one is Ski Storage. Some directions to enjoy proper skiing are described. Congratulations on the Utah Ski team under Coach Press Summerhays for successful results from the season.

“Redskin Nine to Meet Weber In Ogden Double Bill Today”: The Utah baseball team “The Utah Redskins” are playing against Weber College baseball at John Affleck Park in Oregon. The probable starting pitchers are Harold Warfle and Bruce Parry. Coach Summerhays is satisfied with the team's season condition. The Utah team will need to watch out for the opposite team's Norm Elliott. Our hitters include Gary Anderson, Bob Swiller, and Dennis Bonny. The leading catcher is Tom Lovat. The image shows Bob Swiller's practice.

List of Advertisements:

1. The ad on hamburger restaurant called Hired Drive-In. The slogan is "Good Food Buyers Drive to Hires"
2. The ad of a place called Saratoga. The slogan is "Plan a Party & Swim"
3. The ad of French Bicycles
4. The ad of formal clothing shop called Mullett Kelly Co. The slogan is "Tailored vibrant sport coats and slacks in the Renior Palette by Worsted-Tex"

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 21, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 120

Page: 6

Articles:

"Ute Gridders Shaping Up": The Utah football team's backfield went into an intensive tackle drill. The head coach Ray Nagel emphasized the importance of backfield defense when offensive drills were ended. The quarterbacks are Gary Hertzfeld, Bill Cravens, Dennis McLaughlin, Dennis Brown and Rich Hafen. The captain is Rich Ruffle. The image shows Ute backs clash in heavy tackle on the last game.

"BYU Invitational Highlight Weekend": Brigham Young University held the 48th annual invitational track and field meet. It was snowing and raining but the sky was clear. On Saturday, high school and junior college track and field fries are held. There is going to be the flag-raising ceremony at noon.

List of Advertisements:

1. The ad on "Three Brave Men," a film starring Ernest Borgnine, Ray Milland, and Nina Foch.
2. The ad on tailor shop called "The Ivy Shop." The slogan is "Gant of New Haven knows how a college gentleman likes his shirts and tailors them that way"
3. The ad of a pizza shop called "House of Pizza"

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. The cartoon shows a confused face of a female student in between a conversation of two men. It says "I understand your class started dissecting cats over in lad to-day."

Issue Date: April 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 121

Page: 1

Articles:

“University Announces Beehive Members”: Eleven University seniors have been selected as members of Beehive, the top University activities honor society. They are John Bennion, Gary Brockbank, Myrna Labrum Burningham, Jane Watson Hales, Martha Hales, Karolyn Hinman, Bonnie McKay, Jim Rhead, Betty Lou Sine, and Mary McEntire Wirthlin. This year’s Beehive students have overall 3.16 GPA average. They were chosen by the Beehive selection committee consisting of Professor Parry Sorenson, Professor Steve Brockbank, Ed Maryon, Ruth Noall and Theron S. Parelee. There are the images of each member on the left.

“Spring Blood Drive Starts on Wednesday”: The annual spring Blood Drive will be on Wednesday directed by the Army and Air Force sponsors. Students who are over 18 can donate. An attending physician will determine the donating students.

“Christian Fellowships of Utah, Idaho to Convene”: Student Christian Fellowship will join with other church groups from other campuses. They will send a spring conference at the Mountain Spa near Heber City. Student who want to participate can make a reservation at the Fellowship House. The conference will handle the issues regarding churches’ abroad duties.

“U Days Songfest Practice to Begin”: Sororities and fraternities began practicing for the Songfest. The songfest, one of the biggest event at the University, is planned to be held at May 4. The U Days Queen will receive the crown during the event. There are three candidates: Carolyn Murdock, Sue Griffin, and Candy Snow. There will a student directed musical comedy titled ‘Promenade’ too.

“Check Lists”

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 121

Page: 2

Articles:

“Archeology Projects”: Marva Johnson says that the Geology department is planning and working on three major projects. One of them is the Cooperative Dinosaur Project, which supports other colleges and museums with dinosaur skeletons. Professor W. L. Stokes is the head director of the project. Another project is production of a new geologic map of Utah. The project is sponsored by the College of Mines and Mineral Industries. It is estimated to last six weeks. Other professors such as Prof. D. J. Jones and Richard L. Threet oversee the specific aspects of the project too.

“Letters to the Editor”: Morton D. Mendelsohn, Mohit Kumar Mou, and Mohamed Smir are suggesting an idea as foreign students. They would want to see the international Collegiate Forum where students from different places can discuss about segregation and culture. M. Reed Hunter asks to see the literature written by Lance Gudmundson. The person agreed with the writer after reading that Thursday Chronicle. He or she points about some controversies within the conflict among executive student council. Lois Beaudoin, Bob Clark, Linda Ericsson, and Dennis White expresses their appreciation for the election committee due to the succeed of the recent election. Newell Kimball discusses about the fallacy about arguments. “Does an argument contain fallacy because there is opposition to the argument?” he asks.

“This Week We Honor”: The article honors Carri Bjorkman, a junior at the University. She has shown great developments in community affairs, Bountiful pep club, and many associations. She was a member of Alpha Chi Omega and became the first vice president.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisements for the students to use the Chronicle to leave their advertisements for sale or personal messages. The Slogan is “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 121

Page: 3

Articles:

“Names in the News”: Dr. San McLaughlin, head of the department of education, attending the meetings led by the National Council of the American Association of University Professors in Boston. Major General Frederick R. Zierath, recently visited the University ROTC. Dr. Kenneth L. Cook, a geophysics professor, recently published his paper titled “Lateral Inhomogeneity of the Uppermost Part of the Earth’s Mantle.” Andrew W. Halpin, director of the Bureau of Educational Research attend a conference on “Research on Dimensions of Stimulus Situations Which Account for Behaviour Variance.”

“Utes Represent Chapter in ‘Eta’ Conversation”: The Eta province of Kappa Kappa Gamma held a convention. There are delegates from many different places such as Boulder, Fort Collins, and Colorado Springs. Our representatives were Janet MacGregor and Colleen Kelly. Ann Caldwell was an active marshall.

“Check Out Forms Due Today”: To withdraw a class, the deadline for the process is coming. Students can get the withdrawal slips at Park 110. Students need approved reasons to drop a class. The image shows the office workers Mabel J. Waller and David Falkman working.

“Calling ‘U’”

“Trophy With Wanderlust Walks in Display Shelf,” by Susan Coltrin: There is the mystery of one of the trophies at the Union north wing. The silver replica of a softball mounted on the top shelf keeps moving to the front. Dr. Robert said it was related with the principle of cosmic propulsion on a small scale. Another theory of Russell Mandeles is just that somebody touched it. The image shows the before and after of the trophy.

“Steve Swindle Made G.I. Joe”

List of Advertisements:

1. Ad of minuteman Ins. Agency. The slogan is “Can’t get auto insurance?”
2. Ad for the Chronicle. The slogan is “Your Best Buy”
3. Ad of United States Rubber, shoes company. The slogan is “Get that great kids feeling.”
The image shows the back side of young couple.
4. Ad of Eight Day Book Gallery. The slogan is “A book lover’s holiday”
5. Ad of an abroad program. It suggests the round-trip flights to Europe for 320 dollars.
6. Ingmar Bergman’s “The Virgin Spring” presented at the Tower Theatres

Lists of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 121

Page: 4

Articles:

“Of Course I’d Help Campaign,” by Karolyn Hitman: There is the discussion on which behavior is proper to confront candidates. Some friends fully support but some friends ignore. Some people are questioning the reason why we need to support only one candidate. The image shows Dave Wood, looking at derelict ASUU election posters.

“Ute Nine Takes Two from Weber; Redskin ‘Reds’ Win Scrimmage”: The baseball match against Weber College brought a huge success. The university barely edged the Wildcats in the nightcap, 2-1. Harold Warfle was the pitcher.

“Grid Redshirts Take 19-13 Contest”: Utah’s varsity football team went through its first scrimmage. White shirted team was defeated by the red shirted team. Halfback Gordy Lee was outstanding even though he was injured.

“Hive Happenings”: The Salt Lake Bees dropped their first meeting for the pacific Coast League season. The game against Portland is canceled due to weather. There are charts and tables regarding the numbers of victory and lose among different states.

“Campus Leadership Workshop Slated”: The ASUU Leadership committee will sponsor a campus-wide workshop at Peruvian Lodge. The trainers at the workshop will be Martin Ericsson, assistant Union director, and Dr. Charles Seashore, dean of students’ staff. Students who want to participate need to pay $5 partial payment.

List of Advertisements:

1. Ad on All Makes Typewriter. The slogan is “Buy Your Olympia”
2. Ad on Mexican restaurant called Tampico dinner house. They can take home orders. The slogan is “Served with true Mexican Hospitality.”
3. Ad of Diamond Import & Brokerage Company. The slogan is “Save the Sales Commission” and “An acre of Diamonds to choose from...” The chart above estimates the saving goal.
4. The ad of Old Spice, a after shave lotion brand. The slogan is “Food for your face!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 25, 1961
Volume: 70
Number: 122
Page: 1

Articles:

“Spring Blood Call Sounds for U Today”: The annual spring drive for blood will begin. It is held about Red Cross. The purpose is to gather the blood physicians and surgeons need. Betty Lou Sine actively encouraged students to participate. If you want to donate your blood, your age must be over 18.

“Dan Will Hail Christy, Zentner”: June Christy and Si Zentner will be the name attractions at the U Days dance. June Christy is a singer who started her career at the age of 13. Si Zentner is a band leader who started his career with violin at the age of four. To go to the Dance, the cost is $3 per couple. The image shows the smiling face of June Christy.

“Housing Board Sets 1961-62 Hall Rates”: The University announced the decided housing rates for the academic year 1961-1962. There are various rooms such as Wasatch, Douglas, etc. The rates increased by $25 than previous year. The reason was to take care of the rising costs of operation and to prevent the additional small fees for necessary services such as telephone.

“Grossest Chosen as Graduation Speaker”: Mr. Grossett was chosen to give a speech during the baccalaureate at the 92nd annual commencement. He graduated the University of Utah in 1925. He became the corporate finance and litigation expert. Currently he is the life trustee of Columbia University and the chairman of the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation.

“New Position Open”

“Annual Awards for Journalists Slated on May 5”: Kappa Tau Alpha, national honorary scholastic journalism fraternity for students will hold its annual award ceremony. The guest speaker is Jack Anderson, a Washington D.C. journalist. If you want to attend, you need to reserve through the journalism department.

“Ref Cressey Sets Lecture”

“7 Campsites to Attend RHA Meet”: Seven members of the University’s Residence Halls Association are going to the Association of College University Residence Halls convention at Oklahoma State University. The members were selected by the Residence Advisory committee. They are Monte Smith, Shirleen Shields, Ned Byrnes, Allen Larson, Dan Raven, and Nick Pappas. The image shows five of the students paying attention to something.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: April 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 122

Page: 2

Articles:

“One Cork Room...”: Every year, there is the tradition that graduating seniors prepare some gifts for the school. This year, they chose to purchase a $350 grant to the Doug Bingham fund. But they still have some budget so the article suggests an idea. Students want a student lounge on the fourth floor of the Union. They hope seniors can give a concrete, durable, and worthwhile present.

“Tidbits from the Chronicle files of Long, long Ago,” by Lance Gudmundsen: The Article goes through interesting news from a long time ago. These are some examples. On April 26, 1929, it was in the middle of ASUU primary elections. The faculty committee members were Dr. Authur L. Beeley, Dr. J. B. Bearnson, and Dr. Hearbert M. Maw. The Paris Cooperation advertised “Town Hall.” On April 23, 1936, a special event to greet Gov. Henry Blood was prepared. On April 23, 1942, the University was waiting for the initiation of Dr. LeRoy E. Cowles as new president.

“Letters to the Editor”: Pete Kaiser says that the Chronicle has made a lot of tiny grammatical and spelling mistakes. The person mentions three words that could not be understood. The editor’s note explains the meanings.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisements for the students to use the Chronicle to leave their advertisements for sale or personal messages. The Slogan is “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. The cartoon shows a man who is jumping up to the height of second floor of the dormitory. He looks at the females through the window. The slogan is “Little man on campus” The female students look terrified.

Issue Date: April 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 122

Page: 3

Articles:

“U Will Issue 3 Honorary Law Degrees at Graduation”: There are three nationally known graduates of the University of Utah who will be awarded honorary doctor of law degrees at the commencement. They are Sterling M. McMurrin, Simon Ramo, and William T. Grossett. Dr. McMurrin is currently national commissioner of education, Dr. Ramo is known for his work in microwaves, and Dr. Grossett is the vice president of the Ford Motor Cooperation. The images show Dr. McMurrin and Dr. Ramo.

“Oakland Navy AF Team To Explain Student Plan”: The Naval aviation information team form Oakland is coming the the campus to explain about naval career programs that are available to college men. Lt. Commanders Walt Mcgreevy, Bethel Hulme, and Glen Strokes will have interviews. The two-year college people are eligible for the aviation cadet program.

“‘Vibrational Spectra’ To Theme Institute”

“Workshop Scheduled”

“Calling ‘u’”

List of Advertisements:

1. Ad on Lavoris oral spray. The slogan is “kiss mist.” The image shows the intimacy between a man and woman.

List of Cartoons and Art

1. “Little Man on Campus” shows a professor with bunch of papers and a student smoking next to him. He says that “Might poor students this term, these papers are so bad I can’t adapt a single one for the book I’m writing!”

Issue Date: April 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 122

Page: 4

Articles:

“Ute Thinclads Meet Cougars Today”: Last year, Brigham Young University defeated the Utah tricksters by 109-22. The Redskin was waiting for the match for so long. They had hard workouts and practices. The high jumper is Blaine Davis and the sprinters are Taylor Williams, Dailey Oliver, and Joh Zoolakis. The image shows Neil Schmitt who is ready for the revenge against BYU and Blaine lindgren, a skyline champion hurdler.

“Hive Happenings”

“Redskin Golfers Win Over Ages 3-6-9 Pin Scores Announced”: The record for Redskin golfers is still unbeaten. The team is consisted of Jim Ellsworth, Bob Droz, Rave Benbo, and Ellsworth Stowe. On the side of bowling, Jim Maclean won the 3-6-9 Bowling Tournament. Jim also owns the highest pin count ever record in the Union which is 279. Steve Davies, chairman of Union Games committee was satisfied with the event.

“Sooner Players to Compete Against USU”

“Ever hear of a Think Factory?”

List of Advertisements:

1. Ad for French Bicycles
2. Ad for Inspection deadline (May 31)
3. The ad of Ingmar Bergman’s “The Virgin Spring” show at the Tower Theatres.
4. Ad for Hygeia Swampland, a new Olympic size pool. The slogan is “For Swimming Fun.”
5. Ad of Glenwood Lounge. There is 2 for 1 special event.
6. Ad of an abroad program. It is the round-trip flights to Europe during summer for $320

7. Ad of American Cancer Society. Arthur Godfrey encourages to pay attention to American Cancer Society. The image shows his face.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None