

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle
Prepared by Martin Kuprianowicz

Issue Date: May 10th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 136

Page: 1

Articles: 9

“U Board of Regents Okehs Canning, Wormuth Posts”: At Monday’s meeting of the board of regents, two appointments were approved and a resignation was accepted. Appointed was assistant dean of the College of Letters and Science, Dr. Ray R. Canning. He will replace Dr. J Boyer Jarvis, who has recently been appointed to serve as confidential assistant to U.S. education Commissioner Sterling M. McMurrin in Washington D.C.

“Revue Will Climax U Days Festivities”: “Promenade,” the showcase event in this year’s U Days celebration, will be presented on Thursday at 12 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. in Kingsbury Hall. The production was written and directed by University Students and is co-chaired by Ronald Daum and John Lattin. Daum is the author and producer of the musical, and Ann Marie Boyde is the director. University Students and the public are invited to attend the performances.

“AMS Awards to be Presented Tuesday Night”: The fourth annual Associated Men Students award night will be held Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the Union Ballroom. The event was started 4 years ago when the AMS Executive Council felt that the male students who excelled in various fields should be recognized for their achievements. Several awards and scholarships will be handed out at the event as well as intramural awards.

“Deadline Today”: At the time of this publication the deadline for submitting entries in the Pen writing contest was today. It said that manuscripts should be left at the Pen office, Union 232 and that prizes of $25 and $10 would be given out in the following categories: fiction, non-fiction, and poetry.

“Primary Votes Will be Cast by ‘U’ Today”: Primary voting will begin today and continue through Thursday. All voters are required to bring in their ID and activity cards. Voting booths will be set up in the main hallway of the Union and on the ground floor of the main library.

“Honor Banquet Gives Awards to Active Utes”: On Tuesday evening an awards banquet honoring Utes who have been outstanding in ASU activity throughout the year was held in the Union Panorama Room.

“AWS Council Positions Open”: Positions on the AWS executive council are now open. Application blanks can be found at the Union information desk and must be turned in by 3 p.m. on Thursday. AWS president Roselyn Colombo stressed the importance of the event and invited all interested women to apply for council positions.

“Utah’s Image’ to Speak Discussion”: University librarian L.H. Kirkpatrick will speak on “Utah’s Image in the Eyes of the Nation” today at 2:30 p.m. in the Union Auerbach Room. The speech is over the progress of the nation’s respect for Utah since its resettlement. Kirkpatrick is the president of the Utah Library association and the Mountain Plains Library Association.

“Summer Schoolees to Note Addresses”: Utes planning to enroll at the University fall quarter of 1961 who have different summer addresses from their local address submitted at spring quarter registration must inform the controller's office. The deadline for submission is July 31st.

List of Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 10th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 136

Page: 2

Articles: 2

“We Get Letters from Our Readers”: An Arabic student has voiced the dissatisfaction on behalf of other Arabic students of the newly appointed foreign student advisor, Gamal Arafa. He claims that Arafa’s disposition towards foreigners is unsavory despite a contradictory surface appearance. With his letter to the editor, he aims to remove this obstacle and improve foreign-American student relations on campus.

“The White Paper”: The article describes the current situation and U.S. involvement in Laos. A month prior, President Kennedy issued a statement that the U.S. was ready to use force if the soviets refused to negotiate a deal on a neutral and independent Laos. At this point, there is still no effective truce agreement.

List of Advertisements:

1. A showing of Ingmar Bergman’s “The Virgin Spring” at the Tower Theaters is advertised. The slogan is “EXPLOSIVE! An ending that like a blow!”
2. A sale on wedding bands is advertised.
3. There is a list of classified ads.
4. Schreyer’s Precision Typewriters is advertised

List of Cartoons and Art:

There is an artistic rendering of a typewriter for the Schreyer’s Precision Typewriters advertisement.

Issue Date: May 10th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 136

Page: 3

Articles: 2

“Governor Clyde to Address Engie Banquet”: Governor George D. Clyde will be the guest speaker at the civil engineering awards banquet Friday at 7 p.m. in the Union Panorama A dinner and dance will be held.

“U Intercollegiate Knights Announce ’61-62 Officers”: The Scalper Chapter of Intercollegiate Knights announced its officers for the coming year.

List of Advertisements:

There is one advertisement for events being held on campus this week.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: May 10th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 136

Page: 4

Articles: 2

“Spring Sports Squad Prepare for ‘Big Week’ on Track Field”: Ute spring sports will be having games in baseball, tennis, and track. A “big week,” for college sports. The Utes are second place in baseball. Two undefeated tennis teams will battle BYU later this week for the Western Division lead.

“‘a Fine Fray,’ Says Nagel”: Redskins were drilling this week for the annual Utah Varsity-Alumni football game Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Ute Stadium.

List of Advertisements:

1. Minuteman INS. Agency listed an advertisement for Motor scooter/cycle insurance.
2. Salt Lake Costume Tuxedo Rental listed an advertisement for tuxedo rental. Slogan: “Every woman wants... an escort she can be proud of... in a dinner jacket.”
3. A classified advertisement for the Business Planning Department is listed.
4. There is an advertisement for Anne McDonnel as Sophomore Treasurer.
5. Joe Nielson is advertised as Senior President of the Leadership Initiative Dependability.
6. Mikado House – a Japanese restaurant – is advertised.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Mikado house has an oriental-style artistic rendering.

2. There is a drawing of a man in a tuxedo on the Salt Lake Costume Tuxedo Rental Advertisement.

Issue Date: May 11th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 137

Page: 1

Articles: 9

“Promenade’ Program”: The U Revue presents “Promenade,” a musical sketch. The article lists the production staff, the cast, and scenario.

“Officer Finalists Selected Today”: Officer finalists will be selected today. Primary election balloting concludes today. Voting booths are located in the main hallway of the Union and on the ground floor of the main library. Students will be required to present their ID and identity cards to be able to vote.

“‘Promenade’ Set for Both Noon ‘N’ Night”: “Promenade,” is premiering today. The show is a student-written, student-directed, student-cast musical comedy. It will be presented today at noon and at 8:30 p.m. The noon presentation is exclusively for students and the night presentation is open to the public.

“Music Sorority to Present Annual Concert”: Mu Phi Epsilon, a national professional music sorority, will present its annual Emma Lucy Gates Bowen Scholarship Concert tonight at 8 p.m. in the University Ward, 160 University Street. Talent presentations will be given by members of the musical sorority campus branch.

“Applications Due”: Applications for Homecoming committee positions are due Friday in the ASSU office.

“AWS Deadline”: Applications for membership on the Associated Women’s Student Executive Council are due by 4 p.m. at the Union information desk.

“Consul to Speak”: Anthony G. Menses – the consul general from India – will speak tonight at 8 p.m. to the Indian student’s association.

“Iran Econ Problems Set for I-R Club Talk”: Contemporary Economic Problems in Iran and Turkey will be discussed by Prof. Ernest W. Rauda at 7:30 p.m. in the Union Den.

“Applicants for Three ASUU Groups Called”: Eight ASUU committees are now seeking chairmen, according to Linda da LeCheminant, the ASUU personal coordinator. Application forms are available in the ASUU offices. The deadline to submit the applications is Tuesday.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: May 11th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 137

Page: 2

Articles: 4

“Closer Knit”: The University of Utah is a commuter campus and problems of it being one are addressed. For the commuter student, the university is for classes whilst home is for study and social life. However, the spirit of campus life is missing. Something must be done to contribute to a better more social atmosphere on campus encouraging commuter students to engage in social activities here.

“Letters to the Editor”: A reorganization of the student body is necessary. Awareness must be raised to see that members of the student government are effectively understanding the present student attitudes and opinions of current issues. This is their duty. These members of student government have the responsibility of providing for students the best possible program of Cultural, Social, and Academic Facilities that are available.

“Rusk, Gromyko Prepare for Switzerland Confabs”: The U.S. Secretary of State Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko are both in Geneva, Switzerland to prepare for a 14-nation conference in Laos. Rusk is reiterating the American position that negotiations should not be held until a ceasefire has been verified in Laos. Vice President Johnson flew to southeast Asia to view the situation first hand and is offering $40 million in aid to South Vietnam.

“Applications Due”: Applications are now available for positions on the Handbook, Summer School, and Orientation Committees. If interested, students may obtain applications in the ASUU office. The deadline for applications submissions is May 19th.

List of Advertisements:

1. Classified advertisements are listed.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A cartoon called “Little Man on Campus” is shown depicting a professor giving a failing student bad grades and telling him “We’re going to miss you next term.”

Issue Date: May 11th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 137

Page: 3

Articles: 4

“Riding Club to Meet”: The University Riding club will hold a meeting in Union 319 at noon. Plans to meet and ride will be made at the meeting.

“Promenade’ Shows Fine Form in Dress Rehearsal”: The Promenade musical is an artistic production worthy of student support. Many hours of hard work, rehearsals, and preparation have gone into the original musical comedy.

“Aprons Are on Sale by Junior Honorary”: Junior women’s honorary Linda Erickson Cwean is sponsoring an apron sale from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. today and Friday. The aprons are hand-made by Cweans and a wide variety of styles will be available.

“Crawley to Address Psych Club Today”: Professor of psychology Dr. Crawley is addressing the psychology club in meeting today at noon in Union 321. He will speak on the opportunities of psychology as a profession and discuss courses for psychology majors.

List of Advertisements:

1. An advertisement for Mutual Trust Life Insurance Company is provided.
2. An advertisement for on campus club meetings for the week is provided. It is called “Calling ‘U’.”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None.

Issue Date: May 11th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 137

Page: 4

Articles: 3

“Both Utes, Montana Share ‘Less than Optimistic’ Track Views”: With unoptimistic expectations for both teams, Utah’s track team will face the Montana Grizzlies in a college-high school combination contest Saturday in Ute Stadium. Both teams have already lost dual meets to BYU and Utah State. Ute Track mentor Marv Hess said the Utes have fallen down badly in the weight events themselves in all their meets this year.

“Coach Nagel ‘Hopeful’ as Alum-Varsity Game Nears”: Ray Nagel, Varsity Coach, said today that he has his best football squad since coming to Utah. He was quoted saying that ‘his boys’ have gone all out and are the best he’s coached since his arrival to Utah. He is confident about the results of the game this Friday.

“Senate Seat Okehed”: The ASUU Student Senate approved a bill to establish a Union Program Council representative to the Senate on Wednesday.

List of Advertisements:

1. Golf lessons at Oak Hills Golf Driving Range is advertised.
2. A May Bowling Special is advertised.
3. A 2 for 1 special at the Glenwood Lounge is advertised.

4. Motor scooter/cycle insurance is advertised by Minuteman Insurance Agency.
5. Tower Theaters is advertising the premier of "The Virgin Spring."
6. Ashtonian has an advertisement with the slogan "Home of the Big Scheoner"
7. Bennion's Boyd Park is advertising diamonds that they're selling.
8. Anne McDonnel is advertised for Sophomore Treasurer.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. There is drawing of a golfer mid-swing for the Oak Hills Golf Range advertisement.

Issue Date: May 12th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 138

Page: 1

Articles: 9

"Women's Week Will Dock 'Late Daters'": Women's Week begins Saturday night. It will continue through Thursday with many women-friendly events. Campus dorms and houses will remain open until 2 a.m. For every minute past 1 a.m. that a girl remains out she will be fined 1 cent. The maximum fine will be 60 cents.

"21 Graduating Seniors Named Phi Beta Kappa": Last Tuesday 21 graduating seniors were elected to the University Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. Formal Initiation will be held on June 4th.

"Colorado U Invites U": The University of Colorado at Boulder announces that students may still be admitted to its ten-week summer school sessions. The program begins June 16th.

"Chairman Posts, Group Memberships Are Open": Committee posts are seeking Ute applications. Personal coordinator Linda LeCheminant said that eight chairman posts are open and many committees are now seeking members.

"Cheerleaders for next Year to Meet": Utah students interested in becoming cheerleaders next year should attend a meeting Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Union. The meeting will give prospective cheerleaders information about the program and will organize tryouts.

"Sallenberger to Speak Today": Dr. Howard E. Sollenberger will be giving a lecture called "Languages and World Problems" in the Orson Spensor Hall auditorium on Monday at noon.

"News Society Elects New Ute Members": Top students from the Journalism department have been selected to the Utah News society.

"Sophs to Test Match Skills": Freshman and sophomore mathematics students are invited to test their knowledge competitively in the annual Gibson Sophomore Prize Examination on Saturday at 8 a.m. in Math Hall 212. First prize will get $25.

"Class Election Finalists and Stats Revealed": 30 candidates for class offices reached the finals on Thursday. 880 total votes were cast during the two-day election period.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: May 12th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 138

Page: 2

Articles: 4

“A Wiser Choice”: The senior class has finally made a decision as to what gift it will leave the University in order to make the class immortal. They have decided to gift the University with 3-dimensional signs placed over the campus so that people can know where each building or place of interest is located.

“They Breed”: President Kennedy’s Peace Corps proposal was denied by students. The campus will remain conservative when faced with progressivism as many students are not in favor of a liberal agenda.

“Letters to the Editor”: Dr. James M. Hepworth addresses the “unwarranted attack” against the foreign student counselor by Mr. Dajani in Wednesday’s Chronicle and he wishes to make a few clarifying statements in his defense. He assures Mr. Dajani that there is no one on campus who is more kindly disposed towards foreign guests than the current foreign student counselor.

“Procrastination”: As the spring semester nears its end, the issue of procrastination by students is addressed.

List of Advertisements:

1. There is a classified advertisements section on this page.
2. The Utah Chronicle has an advertisement for itself on this page.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: May 12th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 138

Page: 3

Articles: 4

“Prospects for Laos Talks Dimming”: The actuality of a ceasefire in Laos is diminishing as the Friday opening of the 14-nation conference on Laos looms. Russian newspapers are claiming that “American imperialists” are igniting a Laotian civil war.

“Editorial Published”: An editorial that appeared in the Chronicle on October 20th, 1960, has been reprinted in “The Publisher’s Auxiliary,” which is a national weekly newspaper.

“Ute Marching Band Spots, Tryouts Set”: Director of bands, Dr. Forrest Stoll, is now accepting applications for admission to next year’s marching band. Tryouts will be held on May 20th at 1 p.m.

List of Advertisements:

1. A May bowling special on campus is advertised.
2. The Union Movies Committee is advertising “A Hatful of Rain.” Tickets are 25 cents.
3. An advertisement for a used car dealership named “Bennet Ford” is provided.
4. Bennion’s Boyd Park is advertising jewelry.
5. ZCMI is advertising men’s suits.
6. An advertisement of Hughes Burdett Floral is provided advertising Mother’s Day flowers.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. There is a drawing of a flower bouquet on the Hughes Burdett Floral advertisement.
2. The ZCMI advertisement has a drawing of a smiling man in a suit.

Issue Date: May 12th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 138

Page: 4

Articles: 3

“Eleven Student Headed Plays Set for Stage”: Professor Robert Hyde Wilson, director and instructor in the speech department, said that eleven University of Utah students will be given a chance to display their talents as drama directors beginning Monday. The student directors will demonstrate their abilities in a series of plays beginning with “Angel Street” on Monday at 8 p.m.

“D.G.’S, Alpha Chi’s, 3 D’s Slate Weekend Parties”: The Delta Gamma Spring Formal will be held tonight. The Alpha Chi Omega Spring Formal will start on Saturday at 9 a.m.

“Librarian Says U.S. Image of Utah is Bright”: L.H. Kirkpatrick, University Librarian, spoke Wednesday afternoon in a lecture about the early image of the Mormon pioneers. He said they were depicted in an ugly and suspicious manner at first and were subject to much misinterpretation.

List of Advertisements:

1. KWIC is advertising its radio station. Its slogan is “Refreshing Radio.”
2. There is an advertisement for the performance of Mel Hall and his Jazz Sextet at Lagoon, an amusement park.

3. Mullet Kelly Company is advertising men's suits.
4. Minuteman Insurance Agency has an ad for auto insurance.
5. There is a 'Calling U' advertisement for on campus club meetings this week.

List of Cartoons and art:

1. The advertisement for Mel Hall's performance at Lagoon is drawn out to be in the shape of a rollercoaster.
2. There is a drawing of the profile of a man in a suit for the Mullet Kelly Company advertisement.

Issue Date: May 12th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 138

Page: 5

Articles: 3

“Bowlers Set for ‘Rumble’ on Ute Lanes at Headpin Meet”: The Headpin Bowling tournament begins on May 20th on the Union lanes. Students and faculty are invited to enter the tourney. Both men and women are eligible and prizes will be given to first, second, and 5th place finishers. It starts at 9 a.m. on Saturday and again on Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

“Nagel Reveals Starters for Alum Varsity Clash in Stadium Tonight”: There is a football game on Friday night at Ute stadium. It is the Fourth Annual Alumni-Varsity Football game run by Coach Ray Nagel. Kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m. Coach Nagel said on Thursday that he would go with sophomore Gary Herzfeld at quarterback.

“Pigskin Cinema”: “Football Highlights of 1960,” a 35-minute sound film, will be shown again today at noon in the Little Theater. Students, faculty, and the public will be emitted free of charge.

List of Advertisements:

1. Tower Theaters is advertising two movie premiers: “Days of Thrills and Laughter” and “Up the Creek.”
2. There is an advertisement for Saratoga Resort in Lehi.
3. Hire's Drive-In has placed an advertisement with the slogan “Good Food Buyers Drive to Hires.”
4. Hibbs has an advertisement for swimwear.

List of Cartoons and art:

1. There is a cartoon depicting a lady by the name of Mary Worth giving information on crippled children and calling upon the public to provide donations for their treatments.
2. There is a picture of a lady in a swimsuit for the Saratoga Resort in Lehi advertisement.
3. There is a picture of a man in a swimsuit for the Hibbs swimwear advertisement.

Issue Date: May 12th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 138

Page: 6

Articles: 3

“Sports Cars Warming up as Road Race Date Nears”: The 5th running of the Great Salt Lake Road Race will be held May 20th and 21st, presented by the Utah Region of the Sports Car club of America. It will be held at Airport No. 2 in Midvale.

“Sports Silhouettes”: There is a track meet at the Ute stadium on Saturday, as well as the annual Alumni-Varsity football game. The events will begin at 10 a.m.

“Archery Entrant Deadline Today”: The deadline for the Intramural Archery tournament is today. The tournament starts at 2 p.m. on Cummings Field.

List of Advertisements:

1. An advertisement for Ranch “42” Lanes is provided. It is a recreation center with a dining room and coffee shop.
2. Oak Hills Driving Range has placed an advertisement for golf lessons.
3. Mutual Trust Life Insurance Company has an advertisement for life insurance policies.
4. House of Pizza has placed an advertisement for their restaurant.
5. French Bicycles has an advertisement.
6. Southwest Teachers Agency placed an advertisement for their agency.
7. Mennen Spray deodorant placed an advertisement for their men’s line of deodorant.
8. Collins Country Squire, a clothing company, placed an advertisement.

List of Cartoons and art:

1. There is a drawing a pitcher throwing a baseball in the “Sports Silhouettes” article box.
2. A picture is provided of a man and a woman bowling in the Rancho “42” Lanes advertisement.
3. There is drawing of a golfer mid-swing for the Oak Hills Golf Range advertisement.
4. The House of Pizza advertisement has a drawing of a house around their name and a chef with a moustache holding a pizza next to it.
5. The Collins Country Squire advertisement has a drawing of a man in fine clothing.
6. The Mennen Spray deodorant advertisement has provided images of their product juxtaposed next to a generic deodorant made to seem inferior to their product.

Issue Date: May 15th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 144

Page: 1

Articles: 8

“Burningham, Bunderson to Speak at Graduation”: Two graduating seniors, Myrna Labrum Burningham and C. Victor Bunderson, will speak at the baccalaureate services June 4th as part of their 92nd annual commencement. They will speak with vice president of the Ford Company, William T. Gossett, who will give the baccalaureate address.

“Dutty Prepares AMS Awards Banquet Talk”: President of Westminster College, Dr. Frank Dutty, will be the guest speaker at the Associated Men Students fourth annual awards night which will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

“C.E.’S Receive Fellowships at U Banquet”: The University student chapter of the American society of Civil Engineers and the civil engineering department held its annual awards banquet Friday night in the Union Panorama Room. Several students were given various awards and Gov. George D. Clyde was the guest speaker.

“Chastity Outdated?”: “Is Chastity Outdated?” will be the topic of discussion at the last Sound Off meeting this year. The discussion will be led by Dian Schleckman, the Sound Off chairman.

“Covey, Rampton elected to Chronicle Editorships”: Dr. Grant Calder, Publications Council chairman, announced that two chronicle coeds gained top positions for the 1961-62 paper staff on Friday. The two coeds were Linda Covey and Meg Rampton. Covey was named as next year’s Chrony chief and Rampton was selected as managing editor.

“Win Blood Drive”: Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity, Central Hall, and the Airforce ROTC will be awarded first place trophies this week for the recent spring blood drive.

“Birch Society’ Theme Will be Discussed”: “The John Birch Society” will be the topic of discussion for Coign of Coze’s last presentation of the year. The event will be held in the Union Auerbach Room on Wednesday at 3 p.m. Dr. Franz B. Shick of the political science department will be the guest speaker.

“Women’s Week Make up Symposium Set”: A makeup and hairstyling symposium called “Make Up Magic” will be held at 2 p.m. today in the Union Alumni Lounge. The symposium is a program of Women’s Week and a consultant from ZCMI as well as a hair stylist from the Hollywood Beauty College will be presenting beauty tips.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and art:

None

Issue Date: May 15th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 144

Page: 2

Articles: 2

“Security Minded?” College students of today tend to make security and comfort their goals in life. An editorial from the Colorado Daily at the University of Colorado examines this philosophy.

“Letters to the Editor”: It is the role of the American college to deepen the sensibility of students and to irritate to sensitize them to the vital economic and social problems facing us all. Universities must equip students with the beginnings of the ideational and emotional tools to face these issues.

List of Advertisements:

1. A list of Classified advertisements is provided.

List of Cartoons:

1. There is a “Little Man on Campus” cartoon provided in a box. It depicts a professor with arrows stuck through his clothing and a caption that states “The very same students flunking my classes are out there fooling away their time on the archery field.”

Issue Date: May 15th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 144

Page: 3

Articles: 4

“Potion Brewers to Unite in U Convention Friday”: The 7th annual convention of the University student branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association will be held Friday in the Union Little Theater. Student research papers will be presented in morning and afternoon sessions.

“U Cheerleaders Needed for '61-62 Year”: Prospective cheerleaders for the 1961-62 school year will be meeting on Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Union IK Room in order to gain general information about the cheerleading programs and tryouts.

“Sollenberger to Speak in OSH”: Dr. Howard E. Sollenberger, director of the language division of the Foreign Service division of the Foreign Service Institute, will give a lecture today at noon called “Languages and World Problems” in the Orson Spencer Hall auditorium.

“Band Positions Open”: Applications are being accepted for drum majors in next year’s University Marching band. Tryouts will be held on May 20th at 1 p.m. in the Music Hall.

List of Advertisements:

1. Tampico dinner house has an advertisement for “Superb Mexican and American Dishes.”
2. There is an advertisement for Vaseline Hair Tonic with a sweepstakes to win a yachting holiday in the Bahamas.
3. ‘Calling U’ has an advertisement for on campus club meetings this week.
4. Minuteman Insurance Agency has an advertisement for Motor scooter/cycle insurance.
5. Capitol Finance has an advertisement for financed motorcycles/motor scooters.
6. Tower Theater’s is advertising the premiers of two films: “Days of Thrills and Laughter” and “Up the Creek.”
7. There is an advertisement provided for Hamilton watches with the slogan “One watch sets you apart.”

List of Cartoons and art:

1. Tampico dinner house has an artistic rendering of their name in a box with squiggly lines.
2. Vaseline Hair Tonic has provided an image of a woman placing a captain’s hat onto a man’s head.
3. The Hamilton watch company has placed drawings of a men’s and women’s watch placed next to each other below a series of black polka dots.

Issue Date: May 15th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 144

Page: 4

Articles: 2

“Utes Eke out 15-12 Win”: The Utah Varsity football team beat the alumni team 15-12 at Ute Stadium last Friday.

“Netters, Baseballers Win, Tracksters Take Defeat”: Utah’s tennis and baseball teams had victories over the weekend while the Utah track team suffered a loss to Montana University.

List of Advertisements:

1. There is a jewelry advertisement for Bennion’s Boyd Park.
2. There is an advertisement for Diamond Import advertising diamonds.
3. There is an advertisement for the performance of Mel Hall and his Jazz Sextet at Lagoon, an amusement park.
4. The Business Planning Department has a classified advertisement for a new employee.
5. Provided is an advertisement for Olympia Typewriters.
6. Old Spice is advertising a shaving cream.

List of Cartoons and art:

1. The Bennion’s Boyd Park advertisement has a drawing of a man in a suit.
2. The Diamond Import Advertisement has a drawing of a shiny diamond.

3. The advertisement for Mel Hall's performance at Lagoon is drawn out to be in the shape of a rollercoaster.
4. There is a drawing of a typewriter.
5. There is an image of the shaving cream product by Old Spice.

Issue Date: May 16th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 145

Page: 1

Articles: 8

“Schick Slates Lecture on Americanism”: Dr. Franz B. Schick, University political science professor, will be discussing “The John Birch Society” Wednesday at 3 p.m. in the Union Auerbach Room. He will be discussing the society's present significance in our culture.

“AMS Banquet Tonight Honors Top Ute Men”: The AMS is presenting its fourth annual Awards Night tonight at 8 in the Union Ballroom. Outstanding male students will be recognized for their achievements. Dr. Frank E. Duddy Jr, president of Westminster College, will be the guest speaker.

“Applications due for Eight Committee Chairmanships”: 8 ASUU committees are seeking chairmanship applications. The deadline is at 5 p.m. today. The applications are available in ASUU offices.

“Summer School Fees Not due in Advance”: No advance payment of fees for the summer quarter will be accepted. Students will be able to pay their fees starting June 26th.

“Openings for Writer's Meet”: The New York City Writer's conference will hold its annual meet at Wagner College in New York from July 11th until July 21st. Students that are interested should apply as early as possible.

“College of Law Announces Summer Signup”: The College of Law has announced registration for the first session of Summer School, which will run from June 12th to June 19th. The post session will run from July 20th to August 25th.

“Chrony Offers Paid Spots for 1961-62”: Paid positions on the Chronicle staff for next fall are now open. The deadline for application letters is Friday. Letters should be turned in to the Chronicle office in Union 238 and should include the applicant's name, class, previous journalistic experience, and a statement of his understanding of the position for which he or she is applying.

“Ute Army Cadets Laude Honor Military Students”: Army ROTC cadets paid honor to the graduating senior class at its final drill review and award presentation ceremonies last Friday afternoon in the Orson Spencer Hall auditorium.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons:

None

Issue Date: May 16th, 1961Volume: 70*Number: 145*Page: 2*Articles: 3

“Honest and Fair?”: Kay Wonderlic, vice president of the Northwestern Student Senate, announced the formation of an organization dedicated to fight for reform within the USNSA. Wonderlic is a journalism school senior from Northfield, Illinois and was named to head the new non-partisan group which calls itself “Students Committed to Accurate National Representation.”

“Letters to the Editor”: National issues not discussed by The Daily Chronicle are asked to be brought to the attention of student readers in the latest “Letter to the Editor.” The Federal government has proposed the building of federal power lines from the Flaming Gorge Dam project to several cities of Utah, which will cost taxpayers a “tremendous sum” of money. Also, the letter describes the discontent with the misunderstanding of Mr. Gamal Arafa’s comments on the treatment of foreign students.

“This Week We Honor”: Utah student Bobbie Jo Wirthlin is being honored as an outstanding senior on campus. She has a major in German and a minor in English. She is an active member of Lambda Delta Sigma, has served as vice president of Psi chapter, and is a “loyal friend” to all of her associates.

List of Advertisements:

1. A list of classified advertisements is provided.

List of Cartoons and art:

None

Issue Date: May 16th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 145

Page: 3

Articles: 5

“Grad Business Utes Attend P. & L. Meeting”: Graduate students in the Masters Business Administration Program attended the annual shareholders meeting of the Utah Power and Light Company at the Motor Lodge Auditorium on Monday. Jitendra B. Shah expressed her interest that the company would publicly reveal so many of its plans.

“‘Push’ Em Back, ‘They Shout in U Cheerleader Tryout”: A meeting for all persons interested in trying out to be cheerleaders will be held today at 3 p.m. in the Union IK Room.

“Frazier Recital Set”: Ivan Frazier, a music student, will present a piano recital tonight at 8:15 p.m. in the Music Hall.

“U Talent Show Winner Visits Utah Aggies”: Sue Buehler, the winter of the University “Talent Extravaganza” held on campus last march, will dance tonight at Utah State University, representing the University of Utah.

“Navy Dance Held”: The Navy Midshipman battalion held its spring formal at the Fort Douglas Officers Mess on Friday.

List of Advertisements:

1. There is a “Talk to Sid” advertisement.
2. There is an advertisement for AAA service with the title “College Service.”
3. Hygeia Swimland is advertising a new Olympic size pool
4. There is an advertisement for Bennion’s Boyd Park, a jewelry retailer.
5. Provided is a “Calling U” advertisement for on-campus club meetings.

List of Cartoons and art:

None

Issue Date: May 16th, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 145

Page: 4

Articles: 5

“Pi Kappa Alpha Quint Walks off Links with Medal Trophy”: Pi Kappa Alpha won first place in the Intramural Medal Golf Tournament last week. Duncan Wallace and Craig Bullock both shot 78 to take away the victory.

“Linksters Bring Home ‘Fifth from Colorado’: The Utah golf team showed much talent despite unsavory weather conditions at the Broadmore Invitation Intercollegiate golf tournament this past week.

“‘it Was Hail’ on the Course”: Rain, hail, and sleet fell on the Broadmoor Invitation Golf Tournament last week.

“Betas, Pi Kaps Play in Finals”: Pi Kappa Alpha and Beta Theta Pi will play each other in an intramural softball game today at 5:20 p.m. on the field south of Carlson Hall.

“Tourney Slated”: The annual Headpin Bowling Tournament, sponsored by the Union Games Committee and consisting of four games, will be held on May 20th.

List of Advertisements:

1. “French Bicycles” has an advertisement.
2. Tower Theaters is advertising the premiers of 2 movies: “Days of Thrills and Laughter,” and “Up the Creek.”
3. The Business Planning department listed a classified ad looking in search of a new employee.
4. There is a Smokey the Bear advertisement aimed to prevent forest fires.
5. The Glenwood Lounge is advertising a 2 for 1 special.
6. Chevrolet has provided an advertisement for their sports car models.

List of Cartoons and art:

1. There is an artistic depiction of Smokey the Bear.
2. There are drawings of sports cars in the Chevrolet advertisement.