

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Brooklyn Lancaster

Issue Date: May 23, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 149

Page: 1

Articles:

“Sporty Coeds To Attend Spring Spread” This Thursday the Spring Spread will be held in Fairmont Park. Sport teams and individual athletes will be receiving trophies and awards for the events they have won this quarter. Tickets can be purchased at the Union for 50 cents and rides to Fairmont park are available.

“University Gets $39,000 Grant” President A. Ray Olpin announced on Friday that the University had received a grant from the National Defense Education Act for $39,000. The money is to be used for a middle eastern language and area center. Utah is one of 31 colleges to receive grants from the NDEA. All of the grants have been used to build language education facilities.

“Under Milk Wood”

“Interviews Slated”

“Union Committees to Choose Memberships” Andrea Foote, the Program Council chairman announced that eighteen different Union committees are now accepting member applications. For any questions about the committees go to the Program office, room Union 315. Some of the committees are Art Exhibitions, Crafts, Dance, Movies, and Square Dance.

“The Cherry Orchard’ Set for Playbox Production” The University’s advanced acting class is putting on ‘The Cherry Orchard’ a play depicting life in Russia at the turn of the century. The play goes Wednesday through Saturday. The play starts at 8:30 p.m. and tickets can be purchased at the door for 50 cents.

“Phi Kappa Phi Honorary To Hold Initiation Meet” Initiation ceremonies for the Phi Kappa Phi will take place today in the Union. Phi Kappa Phi is a national scholastic honor society for seniors and graduate students with a 3.5 gpa or higher. After the initiation ceremonies there will be a breakfast banquet to celebrate the new initiates.

“Newton Minow Address Set For Broadcast”

“Lecture Lists A.F. Program” The Officer Training Program will be discussed Wednesday at one p.m. at the Placement Bureau. Captain Carey Springer, a Boston University graduate, will be on campus to discuss the program with students interested in joining the AirForce after graduation. Before joining the AirForce, Captain Springer was a public school music supervisor.

“Tau Beta Pi Elects”

“Spur of Year’ Named” Marion Hassell has been named the Spur of the Year. She is a junior majoring in English. Marion Hassell is also the Spurs evaluation chairman and the ASUU senator.

List of Advertisements: None

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 23, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 149

Page: 2

Articles:

“This Week We Honor” This week we honor Dick Aamodt. He is an East High graduate and the Utonian editor. He is a member of the Intercollegiate Knights as well as a member of the Sigma Pi fraternity. He is graduating this year with a degree in psychology.

“What Do You Believe” Operation Abolition is a film filled with inaccuracies. One of the inaccuracies was that the students protesting were communists as well as violent. There was actually no violence on the part of the protestors, only that the police did use violence to break up the protest.

“Letters To The Editor” M. Namoos wrote a letter to the editor about the Middle East and how it was depicted in a recent article. Ahamad Hashad wrote a letter to the editor discussing the Middle East and its diverse religious population. The last letter to the editor was written by Sal Dajani. In his letter he wrote about the differences between anti-western and anti-colonists.

List of Advertisements: None

Classified Advertisements:

For Sale: Batteries, Ford Truck, Motorscooter, Ford Convertible, Two Man Raft

For Rent: Two Bedroom Apartment, Furnished Two Bedroom Apartment, “Cozy” Apartment, Three Room Apartment, Three Room Apartment, Rooms for Gentleman, Three Room Unfurnished Apartment, Room for Summer Rent

Help Wanted: Circulation Work, Cosmetic Line, Salesman, Telemarketer, Salesman

Services: Typists, “Excellent” Typist, “Quality” Typist, TV Repair

Found: Sweater, Child’s Doll

Transportation: Rider to New York, Rider to Philadelphia, Female Rider to Seattle, Rider to New York

Diamonds: Celestial Diamonds

Lost: Green Looseleaf Notebook with Notes from entire semester

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 23, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 149

Page: 3

Articles:

“Songsters Work Out”

“Ute Orientation Committee Taking Forms”

“Honor Business Students Receive Recognition Keys” The University’s honor business students were presented with fellowships, scholarships, and awards at the annual College of Business Banquet on Friday. Twelve of the students were inducted into Beta Gamma Sigma. Approximately 50 awards were given out throughout the night.

“U.S. Companies Seek Graduates For Foreign Trade Careers” Companies are in need of International trade graduates. The American Institute for Foreign Trade, a post-grad school in Arizona, has had 3,000 graduates in the last fifteen years. The program at the American Institute typically lasts two semesters and has about 250 men graduating every year.

“Language Dept. Sets Annual Party Today”

“Names in the News” Dr. William Mulder was one of twelve historians that were awarded a grant. Mrs. Shirley Ririe and Mrs. Joan Woodbury will be dancing as guest artists in the dance concert at the University of Arizona. Karlynn Hinman, Donald W. Hanson, and Thomas W. Madron, political science students have been awarded fellowships.

“Local News”

List of Advertisements: Robbins Travel, Sid THE “SNID”, Hygeia Swimland, French Bicycles, AAA Service

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 23, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 149

Page: 4

Articles:

“Phi Delts Win I-M Track Finals; Keep Championship” Phi Delta Theta won their second straight I-M track championship Monday at the Utah Stadium. Sigma Chi came in second place with Cinders coming in third. Even with coming in second Sigma Chi looks likely to be winning their fourth straight intramural championship.

“Skyline Split Expected, but Surprises May Come” by W. Nick Harrison Six Universities have split from the Skyline conference. The Presidents from Utah, BYU, New Mexico, Wyoming, Arizona, and Arizona State made the announcement on Saturday about the new conference. It is expected that the University of Oregon and Oregon State will apply for membership sometime over the summer.

“Utes Rally Too Late in BYU Baseball Battle” Utah’s baseball team lost to BYU. 11-9 was the ending score for the game. This win made for a perfect season for BYU.

“Say, Lady, You’re a Good Sport!” University “X” Utah’s rival school has just added its first woman journalist. Miss Marilyn Curtis is writing for the sports page. Her first article was called “Universe Associate Sports Editor.”

List of Advertisements: Georgia Day Inc., Glenwood Lounge, U.S. Air Force, Tower Theatres

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 150

Page: 1

Articles:

“Senior Class Gift Divided to Benefit University, Campus” Senior class president Bob Sperry, made the announcement on Tuesday that the senior gift would be three different parts this year. A contribution to the Doug Bingham Fund, a donation to a scholarship fund, and four three-dimensional campus signs. The signs for campus will be over five feet tall and will have maps of the campus as well as a campus listing.

“Gowns Available”

“Senior Officers Get Thanks and Well Wish” By Bobbie Jo Worthen Senior class president Bob Sperry, graduates this spring along with Fred Moreton, senior vice president, and Jane Thody, the senior secretary. Sperry plans to go into managerial training with the telephone company once he has graduated. Moreton is getting married and then joining the Navy. Thody is also getting married and then plans to teach.

“Graduation Schedule List Senior Events” Multiple events to celebrate the graduating class will take place at the beginning of June. On June third the annual senior supper dance will be held in the Union Ballroom. The graduation reception will take place at the Olpin residence on June fourth and on June fifth the senior luncheon will take place at noon in the Union Ballroom.

“Friday Issue Marks Year’s Last Chrony”

“Excusals Listed” The list of students that were excused from classes due to University approved activities on May 12, April 26, and April 30.

“Ute Residence Halls Set Hawaiian Dinner”

“ASUU Awards Now Available”

“Senior Class Reveals Link” Richard Lacher, an architecture major designed the senior class link this year. The design for the link this year is a modern one, made to look like a rocket. It stands upright on a walnut base and is gold-plated with the ‘61 on its side.

List of Advertisements: None

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 150

Page: 2

Articles:

“It’s Almost Over” Graduation should be considered a happy time. A time of celebration. But it is also a time of great change in students lives which can make graduation a very frightening time for them.

“I Ask You” What do you expect your life to be after you graduate? A family, secure job, and home. That is how most of the students answered the question. But are these things realistic with the current mess the world is.

“The White Paper” by Dennis White President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev are meeting in Vienna, Austria on June 2. The conference is billed as a get to know you meeting between the two world leaders. Most believe this meeting to be meeting to be rather useless and a waste of time.

“Degrees Listed”

“Message from Class Officers” A letter from the senior class officers Bob Sperry, Fred Moreton, and Jane Thody. They thanked the student body for the opportunities they had been given in representing the senior class as well as congratulated the graduating class for their achievements over the last few years.

List of Advertisements: None

Classified Advertisements:

For Sale: Batteries, Vespa, For Convertible, Two Man Raft, 1955 Plymouth, “Playboy” tux, T-Bird, ‘56 Ford, ‘56 Portia, Outboard Water Skiing Boat, Water Skiers

For Rent: Two Bedroom Apartment, Furnished Two Bedroom Apartment, “Cozy” Apartment, Three Room Apartment, Three Room Apartment, Rooms for Gentleman, Three Room Unfurnished Apartment, Room for Summer Rent

Help Wanted: Circulation Work, Cosmetic Line, Salesman, Telemarketer, Salesman

Services: Typists, “Excellent” Typist, “Quality” Typist, TV Repair

Found: Sweater, Child’s Doll

Transportation: Rider to New York, Rider to Philadelphia, Female Rider to Seattle, Rider to New York

Diamonds: Celestial Diamonds

Lost: Black Geography Notebook, Green Looseleaf Notebook Containing Notes from whole Semester

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 150

Page: 3

Articles:

“Graduating Seniors Eye Commencement Follow Ups” by Lucy Rae Wilkins The senior classes plans for after graduation. Some have job opportunities lined up. Others have plans to travel before starting their careers. While a few have plans for marriage.

“Orchestra, Chorus to Concert in Music Hall” The University Symphony Orchestra and Chorus is giving a free concert tonight at eight p.m. at the Music Hall concert room. Some of the song on the program tonight include “Serenade to Music” and “The Dens of Yarrow”. The director of the chorus is Dr. David A. Shand and the director of the Orchestra is Dr. Leroy.

“Cherry Orchard Play Opens in U Playbox” “The Cherry Orchard” will be opening at 8:30 p.m. tonight in the Playbox, admission is fifty cents. “The Cherry Orchard” tells the story of the dissolution of the Russian aristocracy and is considered by many to be one of the finest plays ever written.

“Chrony Picks Staff Editors” The Chronical’s editing staff was announced for the following year on Tuesday. Linda Covey is the new editor-in-chief while Meg Rampton will be the new managing editor. Some of the other new editors include Lance Gudmundsen, as the new sports editor, and Barbara Pizza as the new copy editor.

“Movements of Beethoven Concertos Set”

List of Advertisements: Robbins Travel, NoDoz, Georgia Day, Inc., Greyhound, Tower Theaters

Classified Advertisements: Make sure to register your change of address with the registrar office.

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 24, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 150

Page: 4

Articles:

“60-61 Sports Summary Gives Impressive Records, Major Contributions of Graduating Ute Athletes” by Jim Rhead The Universities’ football team won the Western Division crown this year as well as taking second place in the entire conference. The Basketball team on the other hand didn’t so as amazing. They lost five of their best players when they graduated the previous year and weren’t expected to do to amazing.

“Ute Grid Trio Plays in Annual Shrine Contest” The Shrine Games is a national competition that takes the best athletes from the senior class and creates sports teams out of them and then has them compete. The University had several of its athletes play in the Shrine Games this year. One of the University’s athletes was Tony Polychronis, an excellent football player, who did very well in the games.

List of Advertisements: Major League Batting Range, Mikado, Business Planning Department, Minuteman Insurance Agency, Old Spice

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 151

Page: 1

Articles:

“Literary Mag of Campus is on Presses”

“ASUU Election Committee Releases Official Results” The official results from the class elections were released by the ASUU Election Committee. The senior class officers are Leon Peterson as president, Jim McFarland as Vice president, Marion Daynes as secretary, Jon Carpenter as treasurer, and Jane Norton as personnel director.

“Spring Spread Set Today”

“Playbox Stage to Present ‘Milk Wood’” “Under Milk Wood” will be performed by the Readers’ Theater on Tuesday at the Playbox. Dr. Joseph Catmull, the director of the play, is with the speech department. The play has been critically acclaimed and a huge success.

“Perfume Film Slated Today” A lecture on “How French Perfumes are Made,” will be held today in the Orson Spencer Hall auditorium. The lecture is free of charge and will discuss the history of the perfume industry, job opportunities in the industry, as well as the materials used in perfume. A short film will also be played.

“Yearbook Late: ‘Technical Difficulties’”

“University Accepted in Forensic Group” The University of Utah has been accepted to be a member of the Southern California Forensic Association. This acceptance will allow the debate team the opportunity to participate in twelve different forensic tournaments held in California. The University of Utah is one of only three other schools to be accepted into the Association while not being located in California.

“Controversial ‘Operation Abolition’ Film Set for U” The controversial film Operation Abolition will be shown tonight at eight in the Orson Spencer Hall auditorium. The film is about the student demonstrations that took place in San Francisco last year. The public is welcome as well and the film will be shown free of charge.

“Committee Open”

List of Advertisements: None

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 151

Page: 2

Articles:

“Accomplishments” The Class officers have achieved much this year. They have managed to implement a new system of class officers that eliminates any duplication of officer duties. This has made each officer more effective at their job. While this year’s student body officers have done much to reform their is still more to be done.

“Letters to the Editor” David H. Wood wrote a letter to the editor about the senior gifts this year. He was disgusted that most of the budget was going to a sign stating “Class Gift of 1961”. Kim Kichuen also wrote a letter to the editor. She wrote about her appreciation to Dr. Streadbeck, the foreign student advisor.

“Appetite Appeasing” A letter to the editor about Fidel Castro’s ransom demands for the 1200 captive Cuban rebels. Castro demanded five hundred bulldozers which would cost around 27 million dollars, for the release of the captives. The current export laws would not allow a shipment of this magnitude to Cuba but the State Department indicated that it would loosen the restrictions for the bulldozers.

“This Week We Honor” by This Week We Honor Committee This week they honored Theron S. Parmelee, the retiring tennis coach. He has worked for the University for over forty years and before that he actually attended the school as well. Besides being the tennis coach he has also worked as the manager of student activities.

List of Advertisements: Advertisement for the Chronicle with its print schedule.

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: Comic depicting a professor using a female students desk to rest his feet.

Issue Date: May 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 151

Page: 3

Articles:

“University Offers Summer Course in Criminology” by Gaye Dalebout The sociology department announced today that a basic course in criminology will be held during the summer. The class has no prerequisites and is worth three credit hours. It will be taught by Dr. A. S. Cannon.

“What is That Bedraggled Creature? A Night Editor?” by Sally Coltrin The night editor of the Chronicle works until about three in the morning getting the paper ready for print. They edit every article and make sure the layout is complete. They also only get paid fifteen cents an hour. They tend to go through night editors rather fast because of the demands of the job for minimal glory.

“Students of Jenkins, Folland to Perform” The piano students of Mrs. Mabel Borg Jenking and Mrs. Helen B. Folland will be performed on Thursday and Friday. The performance will take place in the Recital Room in the Music Hall and will have eighteen students performing. The spotlight goes to Paul Pollei who will be performing on Thursday at eight.

“Hawaiian Luau Sets RHA Dinner Tonight”

“Pre-Med Honorary Lists Officer Slate”

List of Advertisements: University BookStore, Sid The “SNID”, Eighth Day Book Gallery, Tower Theaters, Georgia Day, Inc., Mr. Jackson International Firm

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 25, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 151

Page: 4

Articles:

“Ute Golfers Underdogs in New Mexico Skyline Meet” The Ute gold team is on their way to New Mexico to compete in the Skyline championship. They are considered to be the underdogs in this competition. However, the coach still believes that the team could triumph.

“Sigma Chi Takes Fourth Ute I-M Title; PKA, Betas Runners-Up” by Joe Ribotto Sigma Chi won their fourth straight intramural championship on Wednesday. Their final score came to 1708 points with Pi Kappa Alpha coming in with 1629 points. Beta Theta came in third and Phi Delta Theta came in fourth.

“Ten Take Trophies at Ute Rifles, Pistol Event” During the Rifle and Pistol Club’s annual inter-club meet Clare Van Ausdel came in first in the pistol division. Larry Kimball won the rifle division and Carvell Stander came in first for the high marksman rifle division. There was also a separate women’s competition as well.

List of Advertisements: Arrow, Ashtonian, Minuteman Insurance Agency, Business Planning Department, Glenwood Lounge, Petty Ford

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 152

Page: 1

Articles:

“School is Out After Finals” by Richard J. Rosenbaum Finals are this week. After school is out the students will scatter all over the country to travel, work, or simply to return home. Besides it simply being the end of classes it is also the final week for the elected officials as well as organization heads.

“Special Class Scheduled for Summer” The sociology department announced today that a basic course in criminology will be held during the summer. The class has no prerequisites and is worth three credit hours. It will be taught by Dr. A. S. Cannon.

“Conference Set on Child Literature” The Intermountain Conference on Children’s Literature will be June fifth through the tenth. The conference will feature Frances Clark Sayers as a guest lecture and will also have original children’s book drawings on display. This is the first ever conference of its kind and it being chaired by Dr. Elliot D. Landeau.

“Landrum-Griffin Bill Topic of Special Law Program” The “Landrum-Griffin, The Record and the Future” is a program that will be presented in the Union building on Saturday. It will have a panel of lawyers present to answer questions as well as make a presentation as well. The event will take place from nine in the morning until three in the afternoon.

“Bills due Today”

“Officers Listed” The Cwean officers have been named for next year. Meg Rampton, an Alpha Chi Omega, was selected as the Cwean head. She is also happens to be the Chronicle managing editor. Karen Rosenbaum, a member of Pi Beta Phi, was made the Mortar Board President.

“Applications Due”

“Cweans to Meet”

“Summer School Slates Shearing Jazz Workshop” George Shearing will be a faculty member for the Summer Jazz Workshop. The Workshop will be held at the University July 17 through July 21. Other members of the Shearing Quintet will also be guest faculty members for the summer.

“Pay Traffic Fines”

“Senior Supper Dance Listed for Saturday” The annual Senior Supper dance will take place on June 3 in the Union Ballroom. Dinner will be served at 7 and 8 with dancing starting at 8:30. Music will be provided by Mel Hall and his Jazz sextet.

“Nursing College Ceremony Speaker Set”

“Picnic Scheduled” The Universities Sociological department will be holding a spring picnic today at Liberty Park. Seniors are admitted free but the cost to everyone else will be fifty cents. Food and games will be provided.

List of Advertisements: The finals testing schedule for the end of the semester.

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 152

Page: 2

Articles:

“A Problem” The art screens have been placed back in the Union lounge. They aren’t the same as before. They are smaller, portable, and easily accessed. The art screens have been a point of contention between the student body and the faculty for the last year.

“Letter to the Editor” The Lorraine Press wrote a letter to the editor stating that the current editors and staff of the Chronicle had done a very good job. They also stated that they looked forward to continuing the relationship between The Lorraine Press and the Chronicle for many years to come.

“Thanks” by Ernie Ford The editor-in-chief wrote a thank you to his staff and loyal readers. He also thanked those who caused any controversies on campus so that he would have something to write about. It was also his farewell to the Chronicle and University since he was graduating this year.

List of Advertisements: None

Classified Advertisements: For Sale: Batteries, Vespa, For Convertible, Two Man Raft, 1955 Plymouth, “Playboy” tux, T-Bird, ‘56 Ford, ‘56 Portia, Outboard Water Skiing Boat, Water Skiers

For Rent: Two Bedroom Apartment, Furnished Two Bedroom Apartment, “Cozy” Apartment, Three Room Apartment, Three Room Apartment, Rooms for Gentleman, Three Room Unfurnished Apartment, Room for Summer Rent

Help Wanted: Circulation Work, Cosmetic Line, Salesman, Telemarketer, Salesman

Services: Typists, “Excellent” Typist, “Quality” Typist, TV Repair

Found: Sweater, Child’s Doll

Transportation: Rider to New York, Rider to Philadelphia, Female Rider to Seattle, Rider to New York

Diamonds: Celestial Diamonds

Lost: Black Geography Notebook, Green Looseleaf Notebook Containing Notes from whole Semester

List of Cartoons and Art: A cartoon depicting a nervous student sitting at his desk while the professors discuss flunking him.

Issue Date: May 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 152

Page: 3

Articles:

“Tired of Long Vacations? Try Your Hand at a Job” Many job opportunities are open to college students for the summer. These jobs range from submarine operator to store clerks and parking lot attendants. There are even jobs available abroad as a foreign service secretary.

“Rebecca Woodward Fund to Aid Needy in Tuition” The dedication of the Rebecca Woodward Memorial Fund will be held at Holladay community church, Sunday at three. The funds from the memorial will be given to the students in the School for Mentally Handicapped Children. The memorial fund was set up by Rebecca Woodward’s parents after their daughter, a freshman at the University, died in a plane crash.

“Sigma Xi Initiates”

“Dotti Duncan Named as Month’s Spur” Dotti Duncan was named Spur of the Month for April. Duncan is currently the rush chairman for Chi Omega and has also been active with the Spurs all year. She ran the Spur rummage sale and has been in charge of the breakfast the morning of tapping.

“Two Juniors to Head Student Participation”

“Frosh Sponsors”

List of Advertisements: Lagoon, Business Planning Department, Tower Theaters, Mr. Jackson’s International Firm, Bennett Ford, Cafe Paprika, Collins

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 152

Page: 4

Articles:

“Year in Review” This year was spent mainly studying but the students still managed to have some fun through many parties. One of the parties Sigma Nu hosted was a western themed one, which was a big hit. One of the more important moments during the year was the retirement of Theron S. Parmelee after many years working at the University.

List of Advertisements: None

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 152

Page: 5

List of Advertisements: None

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 152

Page: 6

Articles:

“University Opera Stars Present Tuneful Time” The University’s Opera Workshop is performing “An Evening of Opera” featuring music from Gounod, Verdi, and Menotti. The performance takes place tonight in the Music Hall Concert Room. Ardean Watts is the musical director and H. E. D. Redford is the dramatic director for the performance.

“Ute Social Whirl Precedes Finals” by Sue Scofield Take a break from finals tonight to attend the annual Beta Spring Formal. The dance will take place at the Fort Douglas Country Club at 8:30 and will be hosted by the Beta Theta Pi’s. On Saturday another formal will take place. This time at the Homestead Resort, hosted by the Pi Kappa Alphas.

“Music Department Slates June 3, 7, 11, Vocal Recitals” Vocal recitals will take place on June 3, 7, and 11 at the Musical Hall Recital Room. The students of Edna Evans Johnson will be on the third while Margaret Summerhays’ students will perform on the seventh and John Marlowe Nielson’s students will be performing on the eleventh. Admission is free and the public is invited.

“Applications Taken”

“Utes Receive Red Cross Award” The Salt Lake County Chapter of the American Red Cross presented the University with an award for its contribution in a recent blood drive. Harlan Walker, chairman of the SLC Chapter of the Red Cross was the one to present the award to President A. Ray Olpin. Angel Flight and the Army ROTC were also commended for their help in sponsoring the blood drive.

“Chem Awards Slated for Sharp Utes” The awards ceremony for outstanding students in the field of chemistry will take place today at four. The event will take place in the Chemistry building. Many students are being awarded and honored. While some are even receiving grants for their work.

“Israel Native to Teach” The new Hebrew teacher for next year is from Tel Aviv, Israel. The new professors name is Mrs. Silberstein and she is an alumni of the University, as is her husband. Besides Hebrew several other new languages are going to be taught next year.

“Education Tests Set”

“Banquet Will Honor Peel” The new head of the social science division at California Lutheran College is Dr. Roy V. Peel. A banquet will be held in his honor on Saturday at six in the West Union Ballroom. Currently Dr. Peel is the head of the political science department at the University but will be retiring.

“This Week We Honor” by This Week We Honor Committee Mary Warnick, a senior in the Nursing program, is the chosen honoree this week. Warnick, a member of Phi Kappa Phi, has a GPA of 3.5 and is in the top ten percent of the graduating class. She also is a member of the Spurs and several other sororities.

List of Advertisements: Saratoga Resort, Continental Agency Co., Minuteman Insurance Agency, Union Building Barber Shop

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 152

Page: 7

Recitals:

“Phi Deltis First in Frat Grades” Nineteen students have been inducted into the Eta Kappa Nu, the electrical engineering honorary. To become eligible for this honor you must be in the top third of your class.

“Names in the News” Mrs. Wanda Clayton Thomas was elected president of the Women of the University Faculty. Gerald E. Peterson is receiving the J. L. Gibson Senior Mathematical Award. Karen Rosenbaum received the Edward F. Chapman award.

“Architecture Scholarships, Prizes Awarded” At the annual Utah Chapter of the American Institute of Architecture department dinner many University students received scholarships and awards. Seven scholarships of $800 dollars were given out throughout the night as well as three awards, including two medals. One such medal was given to Lawrence H. Mason for service to the department.

“Bullock to Retire” Mrs. Elizabeth Bullock is retiring from being head resident of Carlson hall. She has worked there for five and a half years. In the years Bullock was head resident Carlson Hall has gone from having 75 women to 135.

“President Elected”

List of Advertisements: Union Movie Committee, Romig's, Petty Ford, House of Pizza, Hibbs

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None

Issue Date: May 26, 1961

Volume: 70

Number: 152

Page: 8

Articles:

“Cinder Men Can’t Win Skyline Crown... but Watch Individuals” While the track team can’t win a Skyline championship some of the individual competitors have a chance at winning. Blaine Lindgren a member of the University’s track team is expected to set several new records today in the high and low hurdles race. The meet is taking place today and tomorrow in Provo.

“Ute Tennis Men Face Stiff Matches at Skyline Finale” The Redskin tennis team leave today for Provo in the hope of winning their sixth consecutive Skyline win. This is the last match for the Utes Coach Theron Parmelee who is retiring after this match. In his 36 years of coaching he has won 29 of the Division titles.

“Admission Easy for Athletes, Story Says” Thomas Affinto, an NYU graduate, conducted an experiment where he wrote to eleven different colleges pretending to be a high school basketball player trying to get accepted. Several of the colleges offered full or partial scholarships to him before they did any checking of his credentials. Only one college even tried to check to see if he really was a basketball player.

“Air ROTC Wins Athletic Title” William Swiler, the coordinator of the Inter-ROTC athletic department, announced the winners of the ROTC athletic championships today. The Air Force ROTC was the winner, with 48 points. The Navy ROTC came in second with 42 points and the Army ROTC came in last with 38 points.

“In New Mexico” The Ute Golfers are in Albuquerque, New Mexico, for the two-day Skyline championships. The Utes are considered to be the underdogs to New Mexico. However, the Utah Coach Vinnie McGuire believes his team to be able to beat the other teams.

List of Advertisements: Hires Drive-In, French Bicycles, Rancho “42” Lanes, KWIC, Eighth Day Book Gallery

Classified Advertisements: None

List of Cartoons and Art: None