

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Ethan Pearce

Issue Date: November 28, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 45

Page: 1

Articles:

“Maltese To Read Own Work”: Francis Ebejer, a Maltese novelist and playwright, will read his own excerpts at the Union Alumni Lounge. Part of his unpublished play, “Summer Holidays”, will be read by theatre students. Brewster Ghiselin of the English department will be featured in the next meeting. Bob Browning, editor at “Pen”, says the purpose is to show writers connected to the University’s work to students.

“Young Republicans”: Lawrence Burton, Governor George D. Clyde’s assistant, will talk to the Young Republicans tonight. There will be a social afterward. All invited, free of charge. John McDonald and John Gaskill are Co-chairmen of the Young Republicans.

““Lone Cat” Plans U Blues Concert”: Blues artist Jesse Fuller will perform in the Union Ballroom. He made his own one man band ten years ago. University Extension Division and the Intermountain Folk Music council sponsored the event.

“Ute Males Acquiring Growth” by Jackie Back: Male members of the fraternity Pi Kappa Alpha are growing beards. There will be a Bowery at the Old Mill. This trend is coming back around strong again.

“Union Board Concerned Over Financial Needs” by Ernest Ford: Dr. J.D. Williams, associate professor of political science, says that a bigger cafeteria, air conditioning, and new carpet are essential needs. The board also discussed a policy change to allow East High School more than one dance per year. A photo is included depicting board members Dean Koefed and Douglas Woodruff discussing.

“Many Desks Change In Bowles Wake” by Gardner L. Bridge: President Kennedy is changing foreign policy leaders. Chester Bowles is being replaced as the No. 2 man in the State Department. Bowles will not accept a new job as roving ambassador.

“Ute Playbox Sets ‘Bell, Book, Candle’”: John Van Druten’s play, “Bell, Book, Candle”, will open Thursday. Dr. Ralph E. Margetts directed it, starring, JoAileen Sjorberg, London Green, Richard Matthews, and Mary Nielson. The play discusses human selfishness.

“Ethiopians Take Kindu; U.N. To Probe Killings: The U.N. has taken control of Kindu and will investigate the slaughter of 13 Italian airmen. The Army tested a missile. A chimpanzee will be the subject of an experiment on the effect of orbital flight on astronauts. The Soviet Union is trying to hide slavery. An Air Force missile test was called off due to technical problems.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 28, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 45

Page: 2

Articles:

“Autonomy”: With college enrollment growing, the University of Utah will need to expand its campus. It questionable whether the government will be able to afford giving money to the university to construct new facilities.

“From Chronicle Files of Long Ago”: This article reviews a publication from 25 years ago. The following was in the news in 1936: The Apportionment Board granted more money to many councils. Physics looks to quiet noise in libraries. Athletics wants to crack down on drunkenness in the stands during football games. People keep missing when they try to throw their waste in the trash cans during lunch in the Park Building. Engineers decorated city streets for Thanksgiving. Students should not skip class around Thanksgiving to extend their vacation. Women's Athletics is selling red and white merchandise at the Thanksgiving game. The University of Iowa starts the first University-Run nightclub in the U.S.A.

“This Week We Honor” by Jane Beecher: This article is honoring Ralph Marsh, an excelling senior at the University. He is a member of many fraternities. He is the co-chairman of Greek Week. He is on the tennis team, Hello Week Committee, and Men's Chorus. He will graduate in civil engineering with a 3.5 GPA through four years. It includes a picture of Marsh

“BYU “Bubbles Over” in Soap”: Pranksters put soap in the fountains at Brigham Young University. The pipes had to be closed for cleaning and repairs.

“Letters To The Editor” by Jeannie Potter: The writer is concerned about discrimination in ads. They call the advertisers “skimpy in their tolerance of others”.

“You, Too, Can Act!” by Kim Braithewaite: This Letter to the Editor gives quick suggestions on what students can do to stop the nuclear arms race.

List of Advertisements:

Classified Advertisements: Ads for things like jobs, things for sale, and rent

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 28, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 45

Page: 3

Articles:

“Girls In Slacks: Men Approve” by Sally Coltrin: This article discusses the movement of girls wanting to wear slacks rather than dresses to stay warm in the winter months. Many students and professors offer opinions on the matter. Most agree it should be left up to the girls, but some say it isn’t feminine enough. An image of Janice Lyman and Kathie Hansen asking Robert Larsen his opinion on slacks is included.

“Student Thespians Stage Productions for Utes”: Kingsbury Hall will host two student directed comedies, “The Seven Year Itch” directed by Roger Watson, and “A Phoenix Too Frequent” directed by Richard Matthews. Free tutoring is available to Engineering majors. Applications for a Student Advisor position in Uintah Hall are now accepted.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Saturday Evening Post is advertised. Slogan is “Tanganyika – another “Congo”?”
2. Advertisement for a sales job
3. Advertisement for a job at Leyson Pearsall Jewelers. Shows girls finding quality diamonds there.
4. Calling U, list of events happening that day

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 28, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 45

Page: 4

Articles:

“Nosin’ Around” by Joe Ribotto: Recap of the Utes’ football season. Discusses wins and losses, fulfillment of expectations for the year. There is a proposal for a new conference titled the Northwest Conference, made up of 11 teams. Emphasis placed on basketball within the conference.

“McGill Tanks 50 Points as Utes Whip Frosh 150-126” by Joe Ribotto: The varsity team spotted the freshman team 50 points and still won in an exhibition match. Bill McGill scored 50 points. The rest of the team played well, and the Utes are good so far.

“All-Conference Redskins Name Opponents” by Ernie Witucki: The Skyline Conference has named its All-Conference team. Out of the teams Utah played this year, five players from Utah State and Wyoming made the team, and BYU had one player.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Saturday Evening Post is advertised. Slogan is “Pres. Kennedy’s war exploits”
2. Advertisement for Bennion’s Boyd Park diamonds
3. Men’s shoes are advertised at the Oxford Shop
4. Books for Sale at the Midwest Book Center
5. Final week for yearbook class portraits taken by Ecker Studios
6. Help wanted for salesgirls in a part-time Christmas job
7. Show at the Tower Theatres; Bill Travers in “Invasion Quartet”
8. The Saturday Evening Post is advertised. Slogan is “TV’s offbeat hit: “The Flintstones””

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 29, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 46

Page: 1

Articles:

“Spivakovsky Guest Artist With Utah Sympony”: Tossy Spivakovsky, a Russian violinist, will play at the Tabernacle tonight with the Utah Symphony and Maestro Maurice Abravanel. The music is inspired by the landscape of Utah. A photo of Spivakovsky is included.

“Criminology Institute Scheduled”: Donal E. J. MacNamara, dean of New York Institute of Criminology will have a lecture. Students can obtain credit hours by attending lectures.

“Burton Talks To Young Republicans”: Lawrence J. Burton, assistant to the Governor, spoke to the Young Republicans. He advocated for “dynamic Americanism”.

“Senate Meet”

“Sounding Board To Meet Today” by Bill Finlayson: The student-faculty discussion group will meet today in the Union building. Approximately 25 members will be there. They want to discuss problems with each other and find solutions.

“Kennedy Tells Russians Of U.S. Viewpoint” by Preston Grover: President Kennedy tells the Russians that no one will invade the Soviet Union. He states that world peace will come if they stop trying to “communize the world”.

“Chances Dim For Son, Governor Says” by Associated Press: Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller concedes that his son likely died in the New Guinea jungle. Living costs are up in Washington. The U.S. and Britain reject the Soviets nuclear test ban proposal. Dominicans go on strike. Alabama arrests a juror. Chinese communists support Albania. President Kennedy wants to cut tariffs down.

“Awareness, Leadership Stressed as NSA Goals”: Patricia Anderson, west coast office director of the USNSA-ETI, visits the NSA to speak about goals for the program. She emphasizes raising awareness about the program and leading the student body. A photo of Anderson is included.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 29, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 46

Page: 2

Articles:

“For The Student Body? . . . “: The writer is concerned that the new Sounding Board isn't representing the student body. They think that it closes the gap between student representatives and faculty, but that the representatives aren't doing a good job of representing the student body.

“Hithhiking Through Europe” by Ralph P. Vanderheide: He is covering what happened on a hitchhiking trip through Europe. He discusses the culture there. A drawing of a man hitchhiking is included.

“Letters To The Editor” by Andrew F. Gabrysh: The writer thinks that The Chronicle focuses too heavily on big name celebrities. They bring up Miss Nola Dee McKee as a little name celebrity to focus on. She is a great secretary and has done many good things in her time at the University.

“The White Paper” by Dennis White: The U.N. voted 97-0 to speed up the end of colonialism. It was unanimous and was notable for the U.S.A. and Soviet Union voting together.

“Aye, It's a “Wale” Of a Name, Laddie!”:

Llanfairpwllgwyllgoferychwywrndrobwlllantysiliogogoch, the longest town name in Wales, had it's sign stolen. Police blamed the schoolboys.

List of Advertisements:

Classified Advertisements: Ads for jobs, rent, lost items, transportation, and items for sale.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 29, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 46

Page: 3

Articles:

“Weber Professor To Talk To U History Fraternity”: Dr. Dello G. Dayton will speak at a lecture in the Union Building. He is the chairman of social sciences at Weber College. A photo of Dr. Dayton is included.

“Club Panorama Features Dinner, Mell Hall Combo”: There will be dinner and dancing in the Union, organized by Club Panorama.

“‘Bag’ Crowded At Beta’s Annual Party”

“Chilean Fulbright Prof To Speak To Campsites”: Dr. Ricardo Benevides will speak to the International Relations club. Captain Ernestine Neuhart will be on campus to make appointments for special training in Air Force related fields. Traffic court says that parking stickers need to be displayed.

“Four Utes Conquer Vertical ‘Ship Rock’”

“Local News”: A photo of AFROTC Royalty. Shauna Deal, Kathy Holley, and Ann McKendrick are pictured.

List of Advertisements:

1. Calling U, list of activities and meetings for the day
2. Sales job ad
3. Twilite Lounge
4. Tower Theatres

5. The Junior Prom

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 29, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 46

Page: 4

Articles:

“Nineteen Records Broken During 1961 Skyline Play”: Gives lists of 19 records that were broken in the Skyline Conference during the 1961 football season.

“I-M Tennis Finals Played Today”: Alan Reeder and Vic Wylie won in intramural tennis and will face Dick Christensen and Dave Pahnke for the championship. Volleyball final playoffs are tonight.

“WRA Swimmers Hit The Water Tomorrow”: Women’s swim is having a meet on Thursday and all are invited to attend.

“Bulletin”

“Carpone Rides Again”: A photo of Tony Capone and his brother Dave, some gangsters, along with two friends, hanging out. Another photo of campus police arresting them.

“Final Skyline Standings, 1961”: Table of Skyline Conference final football standings.

List of Advertisements:

1. Club Panorama

2. Zion's Bookstore
3. Fox Theaters
4. Christian Science Monitor
5. Jesse Fuller
6. Café Potpourri

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 30, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 47

Page: 1

Articles:

“U.S. Tabs Marine For Space”: John Herschel Glenn Jr. was named as the first astronaut to go into orbit. Other astronauts were named to help with the mission as well.

“Minnesota History Prof. Accepts U Visiting Post”: Dr. Herbert Heaton will be a visiting professor in the winter. He has worked at many other high-class institutions. A photo of Dr. Heaton is included.

“1 Man Band, Jesse Fuller, To Give Folksong Concert”: Jesse Fuller, a blues singer, will give a concert tonight in the Union Ballroom. A photo of Fuller is included.

“Senate Protests Foreign Student Discrimination: Game Seating Change Impossible” by Anne McDonnel: Last week, Johannes Kinfu was refused service at a restaurant because she was colored. Students are trying to change this. They also pushed for even seating at games for students and faculty because they pay the same amount.

“Sounding Board Airs Chrony, Poor Teachers”: The Sounding Board discusses the pay of teachers. President A. Ray Olpin states it is a common problem among universities.

“Bell, Book And Candle’ Opens At Ute Playbox”: The theatre department opens a new play directed by Dr. Ralph Margetts and written by John Van Druten.

“Court To Hear Sigma Nu Case”

List of Advertisements:

1. Junior Prom

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 30, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 47

Page: 2

Articles:

“New Strength for Weak Court”: The Student Court is having an important landmark case. It is the first appellate case to be in the Student Court. This will be an important one for the future.

“Letters To the Editor”: A writer argues that the nation is not “sick” as a professor suggested. Another compares writers to dodos and saber-toothed tigers.

“Six-Day Phone Conversation Only a Dime” by Associated Press: At the University of Illinois, there was a phone call going on for 95 hours straight which only cost a dime. People took turns talking.

List of Advertisements:

Classified Advertisements: Ads for services, rent, lost items, help wanted, items for sale, and found items.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. “Little Man on Campus” – A man talking to a woman holding a bugle. Caption is “Well, then, if you’re not a music major – what’s th’ bugle for?”

Issue Date: November 30, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 47

Page: 3

Articles:

“Antarctica Ice Build-Up Increases Seismism” by James Cook: Earthquakes are becoming more common due to more ice in Antarctica. Dr. Melvin Cook thinks this could account for it.

“Ute Orchestra Presents Fund Concert”: Dr. David A. Shand directs a Fund Concert. It is open to the public and accepts donations. Includes a photo of some performers.

“Auditions Held For Ute Play”: Auditions for “Stampede” close today. “Mademoiselle” magazine offers a fiction contest for college writers. “Summer of Decision” will be shown in the Union Little Theatre. There is an opera recital in the Recital Hall. Club Panorama meets.

“Felix Greene To Lecture On Red China”: Felix Greene will speak on China in the Union Ballroom. He has spent a lot of time in China learning the situation. Admission is $1.

List of Advertisements:

1. Calling U: events happening that day

2. Tower Theatres
3. Ashtonian
4. Union Movies
5. Century Marine Corporation

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: November 30, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 47

Page: 4

Articles:

“Pi Kaps Snare I-M Victory” by Joe Ribotto: Vic Wylie and Alan Reeder of the Pi Kap fraternity won the I-M tennis tournament.

“East Stars Dominate All-American Selection”: Lists the players on the All-American first team in football. The eastern U.S. had the majority of players and the only Utahn was Merlin Olsen of Utah State. A photo of Bill McGill on the basketball team is included.

“Basketball Fixer Pleads Guilty”: Aaron Wagman pleads guilty to fixing basketball games to win bets.

“Meet The Redskins”: Spotlight on Ed Rowe, a guard for the basketball team. A photo of Rowe is included.

“Utah Teams Face Busy Weekend”: Gives the schedule of basketball games for the weekend, which is busy for the Skyline Conference.

List of Advertisements:

1. Fox Intermountain Theatres
2. Newhouse Hotel Religious Ad
3. Twilite Lounge
4. Jesse Fuller
5. Mount Majestic Manor

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 1, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 48

Page: 1

Articles:

“Sigma Nu Case Heard By Court” by Linda Covey: A case was heard by the Student Court regarding Sigma Nu breaking university rules by initiating 3 members without permission. A photo of the court is included.

“Yale Campsites Ready Polaris ‘Victory Walk’”: Yale will walk for the YAF. Syria closed its border with Lebanon. Goodwin J. Knight is battling illness in the California 1962 election.

“Can’t Prosecute Stupidity, Attorney Says” by Ernest Ford: Jay Banks, an attorney, says Mayor J. Bracken Lee can’t indict people for making human errors.

“Audubon Film To Show Puerto Rico”: Fran William Hall will present his film on Puerto Rico.

“Jazz History Program Planned”: Dr. William Fowler will direct a program highlighting the history of Jazz. It is free of charge. A photo of Dr. Fowler is included.

“Felix Green To Report On Red China”: Felix Greene will speak on China in the Union Ballroom. He has spent a lot of time in China learning the situation.

“Execs Treat Civil Rights Reserved Student Seats”: The ASUU Executive Council is looking at cases of civil liberties infringements. They reviewed cases of seating at basketball games and restaurants denying patrons based on race.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 1, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 48

Page: 2

Articles:

“Challenge to Courage”: ASUU is trying to help prevent racial discrimination; people don’t realize it is happening because of the low number of minorities in the state.

“Uteville’s Robertson Wins Applause For Concerto” by George Butsikares: In a review of a concert featuring Tossy Spivakovsky and Leroy Robertson, the writer says the concert was very successful and the performers bowed multiple times.

“The Round Table” by Chuck Akerlow: The writer expresses that we should teach communism in every class so we better know how to beat the communists. A photo of James S. Copley, a newspaper publisher, is included.

“Redskins Flee; Olpin Gives Okay”

“Traveling Talent”

“Letters To The Editor”

List of Advertisements:

Classified Advertisements: Ads for services, rent, lost and found, items for sale, help wanted.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 1, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 48

Page: 3

Articles:

“Symphony, Ute Chorus To Present ‘King David’”: The Utah Symphony and University Mixed Chorus are performing together in the Tabernacle. Directed by Maurice Abravanel and Ardean Watts.

“History Dept. To Offer Added Courses”: Crusades, Ancient Civilizations, and Medieval and Early Modern Economic and Social History will be added to the course schedule. A photo of a Club Panorama dance routine is included.

“IK’s Select Breinholt As Duchess”

“U Receives Rock, Ore Collection”: A large collection of minerals and ores was donated to the University by Mrs. H. R. Waldo. Arthur Inglesby

List of Advertisements:

1. Mikado
2. The Terrace
3. ZCMI

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A drawing of a woman in plaid as part of the ZCMI ad

Issue Date: December 1, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 48

Page: 4

Articles:

“Civil Engineers To Offer Refresher Courses”: Engineering courses will be offered as prep for the state exam. There will be a conference on advanced placement. A Christmas Bazaar will be held. There is a talent show performance.

“AWS Chooses Archibald as Prince Charming”: A photo of Bob Archibald, chosen as Prince Charming by the Associated Women Students.

List of Advertisements:

1. Zion’s Bookstore
2. Bennett Ford
3. Standard Optical Company
4. Twilite Lounge
5. Calling U

6. Social Calendar

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 1, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 48

Page: 5

Articles:

“Union Decorations”

“Utes View Student Court Power” by Sally Coltrin: Interviews on whether Student Court should have more power, those interviewed are pictured.

“Wool Growers Hold Contest”: Applications are being accepted for “Miss Wool of Utah”

“Rev. Reissig To Lecture On Cold War”: Herman F. Reissig, field secretary for the American Committee for the Council of Churches will speak on the Cold War.

List of Advertisements:

1. Oxford Shop
2. Fox Intermountain Theatre
3. Want ad for drivers
4. Glenwood Lounge
5. First Unitarian Society
6. Hygeia
7. Tower Theatres
8. KWIC
9. Photo of bearded Pi Kaps

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 1, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 48

Page: 6

Articles:

“Ags Pace Chrony All-Star Team” by Joe Ribotto: Utah State has the most players on the All-Conference team. Bill McGill is pictured. A photo of the names of the All-Conference team is included.

“Redskins Face Arizona In Tonight’s Season Opener” by Allen Holmes: A preview of tonight’s basketball game vs. the University of Arizona.

“Meet the Redskins”: Profile on Bill McGill, senior center on the basketball team.

List of Advertisements:

1. Hires Drive-In
2. House of Pizza
3. Union Movies
4. Bowyer’s
5. French Bicycles

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 4, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 49

Page: 1

Articles:

“Committee Formed To Protest Discrimination”: ASUU forms a committee to protest racial discrimination in Utah, sparked by a restaurant kicking someone out based on race.

“British Journalist Reports On Red China Conditions”: Felix Greene is visiting to speak on China in the Union Ballroom. Greene is pictured.

“U Symphony, Chorus Plan ‘King David’”: The Utah Symphony and University Mixed Chorus are performing together in the Tabernacle. Directed by Maurice Abravanel and Ardean Watts.

“Chrony Staff Pix”

“Union Gets ‘Spruced Up’ With Colored Trees” by Sally Coltrin: Christmas trees throughout the Union building will be different colors. A photo of a tree is included.

“Audubon Show To Feature Puerto Rico”: Fran William Hall will present his film on Puerto Rico.

“Jet Crashes In Italy, 11 Crewmen Die” by Associated Press

“U.S. Blasts Small Bomb; Reds Issue Test Warning”

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 4, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 49

Page: 2

Articles:

“Presents A Challenge”: Discusses Red China and its image in the world today.

“Letters To The Editor”: Letters on racial equality, Utah Senate, and cheers for Ethel Hale.

“Middle East Book-Buying Trip Results in 11,000 Volumes for Utah” by James Cook: The University Library obtained a lot of books from towns in the Middle East.

List of Advertisements:

Classified Advertisements: Ads for services, rent, transportation, wanted, items for sale, and personals.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus – shows a man getting his shoes shined and talking to another man. Caption reads “I said, don’t worry too much about flunking – (hurry it up, kid) – when it gets to that point we’ll work something out.”

Issue Date: December 4, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 49

Page: 4

Articles:

“Colored, Painted Trees? ‘Nope,’ Says Chrony Staffer”: Ernie Ford, news editor, says he will spray paint trees back to green. A photo of him adding pine smell to trees is included.

“Rev. Reissig To Speak On Communism”: Herman F. Reissig, field secretary for the American Committee for the Council of Churches will speak on the Cold War.

“Scholarship Applications Now Available”: The National Science Foundation is accepting scholarship applications.

“I.B.M. Offers Research Fellowships”

“Angel Flight To Sponsor ‘Sub For Santa’ Drive”: AFROTC Angel Flight is organizing a service to provide Christmas for a needy family. A photo of them planning it is included.

“Names In The News”

“Sell Fruitcakes”

List of Advertisements:

1. Zion’s Bookstore
2. The Baha’i Assemblies of Utah
3. Career Sales

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: December 4, 1961

Volume: 71

Number: 49

Page: 6

Articles:

“Redskins Win One, Then Lose One”: Recap of two games against Arizona, one win and one loss. Ed Rowe is pictured.

“Meet The Redskins”: Profile on Bo Crain, a forward on the basketball team. Crain is pictured.

“Utah State, BYU Pick Up Two Wins Over Weekend”: Recap of BYU and Utah State’s basketball games that happened over the weekend.

“Saturday’s Cage Results”: Basketball scores from the weekend.

List of Advertisements:

1. United Church of Christ
2. Tower Theatres
3. Twilite Lounge
4. Tampico Dinner House
5. Fred Waring
6. Fox Intermountain Theatres

List of Cartoons and Art:

None