

Finding aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Ann Reich

Issue Date: January 15th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 62

Page: 1

Articles:

“Symphony Plans Modern Music”:

The Third Annual Contemporary Music Festival will be held at Kingsbury Hall with two concert dates in the next month. “Histoire Du Soldat” and “Octette For Winds” by Stravinsky, “Overture on Jewish Themes” by Prokofiev, “Night Soliloquy for Flute and Strings” by Kent Kennan, and “Bachinas Basirerlias” by Vill-Lobos will be performed by various Utah Symphony members.

“Press Freedom To Top Next Great Issues Forum”:

Orson Spencer Hall will host a forum discussing Freedom of the Press. Neal A. Maxwell, political science instructor and assistant to the president, is scheduled to speak on the topic followed by Hays Gorey and William B. Smart editors of the Salt Lake Tribune and Deseret news, respectively. Cahrvs H. Monson, Jr. will be the Chairman of the program.

“Ute Fellowship Takes Over Book Drive”:

The Campus Christian Fellowship House took over the Book Drive. All textbooks donated will be dispersed in the Middle East Technical University in Turkey and various universities in Nigeria.

“Indonesians Establish Guerrillas In New Guinea”:

Small boats with guerrilla units landed across the Dutch-held West New Guinea. These small islands were reported to be quiet during the day, but active with acts of liberation from the Indonesian military by night. The India Times claim the U.S. is the force holding back President Sukarno from declaring war.

“Robins Tie One On With Ripe Berries”:

In Los Altos, California flocks of robins have been stuffing themselves with the pyracantha bushes’ red berries. These berries can contain alcohol and many birds have had drunk-like symptoms.

“Senate Swells Ranks By Two”:

Ingela Burglan from Sweden and B.R. Reddy from India were elected as members of ASUU. This election was to promote positive relations between American and foreign students.

List of Advertisements:

1. No ID Photos

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 15th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 62

Page: 2

Articles:Letters To The Editor, “Scholastic Fan” By Willard R. Bishop:

This letter agrees with the recent decision from the NCAA to suspend the University. He suggests taking the money from the athletic department and putting it towards scholars.

Letters To The Editor, “Small Sin?” By William W. Thackery:

This letter says that letting one person or organization get away with breaking the rules, then you might as well not have them. This is referencing the U’s suspension from the NCAA.

Letters To The Editor, “Mandatory Waste” By Rickell James:

This letter is asking for a reform of the general education class. Currently, James claims that this class is full of only busy work.

Letters To The Editor, “Parking Complaint” By Ann Bergeson:

This letter is about the lack of freshman parking and includes some possible solutions.

“This Week We Honor,” By Jane Beecher:

Nancy Richards, a senior political science major, was highlighted this week. She was a recipient of the Dean’s Meritorious Scholarship and a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Spurs and Cwean, Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, Model U.N. Committee, Snow Carnival, U Days, Spotlight on the Orient Committees, and Chi Omega.

List of Advertisements:

1. “Choose Chrony Classifieds”
2. The Utah Daily Chronicle is advertising a list containing for rent, help wanted, for sale, wanted, found, lost, services, personals, transportation ads. The slogan is “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus. Picture of a student at the freshman adviser's office saying, "Enroll me at 8 o'clock classes every morning, or I'll never be able to find a parking place!"

Issue Date: January 15th, 1962Volume: 71*Number: 62*Page: 3*Articles:*"Alpiners Plan Films Of Canyon, River Adventures":

Films of Mrs. Georgia White made by the Ute Alpin Club will be shown in the Union Ballroom. The films feature Mrs. White rafting many different rivers.

"Goodyear Wins Quarterly Cwean Prize""WRA To Explain Function At Freshman Coed Tea":

The Women's Recreation Association and president, Joyce Richards, are going to be at the Union to give information and answer questions about women's sports.

List of Advertisements:

1. Zion's Bookstore is advertising that they have over 5,000 books in stock in paper bound editions. The slogan is, "Come in and browse."
2. The Tower Theatres is announcing two different shows: "Call me Genius" and "It Happened in Broad Daylight."
3. "Choose Chrony Classifieds"
4. The Twilite Lounge is advertising relaxing music, college atmosphere, fine food, dancing until 1 a.m., and free evening parking.
5. Old Spice is advertising men's stick deodorant. The slogan is "Here's deodorant protection you can trust!"
6. Calling U gives a list of events coming up on campus

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Image of Louis Armstrong and Trummy Young playing on stage at the Military Ball.

Issue Date: January 15th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 62

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utes Decision Lobos, 72-65”:

The Utes increased their winning-streak by three during the Skyline Conference. They played New Mexico in Albuquerque. Billy McGill lead the scoring with 36 points. Ed Rowe scored 18 points.

“I-M Basketball Begins Tonight”

“Meet The Redskins”:

Tom Farrell became a new starting guard for the U after transferring from Hancock Junior College.

“Utes-Faculty Battle Today”:

The Faculty and students will bowl against each other. Students are needed for the Union Bowling Team. The wrestling team beat Mesa Junior College on Saturday.

“Papooses Drop Hill Air Base In 91-69 Game”:

The Papooses beat Hill Air Base. Jerry Pimm was the Papooses coach. Notable Papooses players were Roy Walker and Steve McDonough. Notable Hill Air Base players were Dave Germann and John Wright.

List of Advertisements:

1. Delta Phi Fraternity is announcing an Open House for returned missionaries.
2. Tampico Dinner House is advertising Mexican and American dishes.
3. Fitch Leading Man’s Shampoo is advertising dandruff shampoo for men. The slogan is “doing it the hard way.”
4. United Airlines is looking for stewardesses.
5. “Choose Chrony Classifieds”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 16th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 63

Page: 1

Articles:

“New Unity Achieved By ECM,” By J. M. Roberts:

This story highlights the new steps taken by the six members of the European Common Market. They have added agricultural interests into their discussion. New trade agreements have also been made between the United States and ECM.

“Union Board Outlines New Financial Program,” By Jim Cook:

The Union Board’s financial program would make long-term and immediate fixes to the Union. The immediate problems would cost around $60,000 and the long-term would be around $1 million. A Brazilian Festival was also discussed during the Union Board’s meeting.

“Press Security To Theme Great Issues”:

The Chronicle announced that Neal A. Maxwell would speak on “Freedom of the Press vs. National security.” William B. Smart and Hays Gorey from Deseret News and the Salt Lake Tribune, respectively, will discuss Maxwell’s paper, “Is Freedom of the Press Compatible with National Security?”

“WUS Goal: Cooperative Aid”:

This story announced that Peter Luppman, regional executive of the World University Service, would be on campus for the Campus Chest Drive. All of the funds WUS get are from students who donate during this Drive. The funds are dispersed to help students around the world in four main categories: health, lodging and living, educational facilities, and individual emergency aid.

World in Brief, “Scientist Celebrates 87th”:

Dr. Albert Schweitzer celebrated his 87th birthday.

World in Brief, “Reds in Cambodia Flayed”:

Prince Norodom Sihanouk in Cambodia denounced the Communist Party.

World in Brief, “Washington”:

President Kennedy recommended a $6 billion budget for the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

World in Brief, “Washington”:

U.S. officials announced that naval vessels between the Dutch and Indonesians clashed off the coast of New Guinea in the fight for the island.

World in Brief, “United Nations, N.Y”:

Soviet Bloc countries proposed that the U.N. refer to the Security Council regarding what steps should be taken against Portugal.

World in Brief, “Chicago”:

A snowstorm hit Chicago.

“Publications Meet Draws Two From Uteville”:

The Chronicle announced that Bruce Zenger, ASUU financial adviser, and Milton Hollstein, associate professor of journalism would be attending the Pacific Coast Publication Managers Meeting.

List of Advertisements:

1. No ID Photos

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 16th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 63

Page: 2

Articles:To Freshman, “Be Grateful For Favors”:

This was a letter to freshman to not overthink the restriction on parking. Freshmen were not allowed to park on campus, but the reasoning from the university is that no one can escape being a freshman and the next year, they would be able to drive to campus.

Letters To The Editor, “Fieldhouse Blues”:

This lists five suggested improvements that could be made to the student section in the fieldhouse.

Letters To The Editor, “A Leviathan,” John Haman:

This letter argues the need to lower prices at the campus bookstore.

Letters To The Editor, “Half Cocked??” Hyde Merrill:

This letter suggests that some articles published in the previous edition were too hasty in judging the prices of the bookstore.

Letters To The Editor, “On The Other Foot,” Ross Pearson:

This letter complains about discrimination in an advertisement for a secretary.

List of Advertisements:

1. “Choose Chrony Classifieds”
2. Use Chronicle Classifieds Ads

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus. Picture of a car on a cliff with the caption, “Are you sure this is what they meant by higher education?”

Issue Date: January 16th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 63

Page: 3

Articles:“University, Symphony Join For Modern Program”:

The Chronicle announced the union of the Utah Symphony and the University for the Festival of Contemporary Music. Price for the concert is $3 and there are student discounts available, as well. Soloists include: Harold Wolfe, Jean Preston, and Eugene Foster, and Martin Zwick.

“Names In The News”:

The names of the people mentioned are Kay Winston, Mary Jean Barnard, Newell Bringhurst, and Dr. Henry Eyring.

“Deadline Nears For Rush”:

This was announcing the last day to sign up for the Winter Rush. It also mentioned Wednesday was the last day to withdraw from classes without a penalty.

“Mu Phi Sets Rush”List of Advertisements:

1. The Saturday Evening Post is advertising news on the Arab world.
2. The Tower Theatres is announcing two different shows: “Call me Genius” and “It Happened in Broad Daylight.”
3. The Twilite Lounge is advertising relaxing music, college atmosphere, fine food, dancing until 1 a.m., and free evening parking.

4. Viggo's Toggery is advertising a clearance sale for clothes.
5. Calling U gives a list of events coming up on campus

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 16th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 63

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utes Take Skyline Lead”:

This story announced Utah's upcoming game against the Montana Grizzlies. Utah was the only undefeated team this season so far.

“Nosin' Around,” By Joe Ribottot:

Ribottot mentions previous “Letters to the Editor” regarding the suspension from the NCAA. His view is that athletes and universities must comply to the rules no matter what.

“Skyline Summary”

List of Advertisements:

1. The Saturday Evening Post is advertising news on Washington and basketball players.
2. The Chronicle is advertising “Swingin' Affair” after the BYU vs. Utah game.
3. Bennion's Boyd Park is advertising diamonds.
4. The Chronicle is advertising a discount on junior prom tickets for people in groups.
5. “Choose Chrony Classifieds”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Image of the Women's Ski Team. Their first meet would be on Feb. 9th.

Issue Date: January 17th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 64

Page: 1

Articles:

“One-Month Limit Set On Faculty Books”:

This story announced that with a special slip from the library, students can claim faculties' overdue books. Librarian, L.H. Kirkpatrick, said the new policy is an experiment done by the committee.

“Maxwell, Newsman Set Examination Of Press” By Jackie Back:

The Chronicle announced the third season of “Great Issues Forum” being held at Orson Spencer Hall Auditorium. The speakers include Neal A. Maxwell, Hays Gorey, and William B. Smart. Photos of the men are included.

“JFK May Issue Racial Bans In U.S. Housing” By Associated Press:

President Kennedy announced he would prohibit racial bans in federally assisted housing. Two Republican congressmen, Clifford Case and Kenneth B. Keating, claimed that the president was not doing enough to advance civil rights.

World In Brief, “K. Urges Old Age Work” By Associated Press

World In Brief, “Congo Deposes Red Leader” By Associated Press

“Minority Ideas To Be Heard On Campus”:

Representatives from different minority groups will discuss minority rights on campus through the Panel of Americans.

“8,000 Cars, 5,000 Stalls That’s A Parking Problem” By Jim Cook:

Students complained that there are not enough spots. Most freshmen have to park blocks away. The University responded by suggesting to students to take the bus. The writer reminds students that parking at the University is free while at other universities, it is not.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 17th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 64

Page: 2

Articles:

Great Issues Forum, “Press Freedom’s Future”:

The Chronicle speaks about “freedom of the press” that would be the topic that evening for the Great Issues Forum.

“The White Paper” By Dennis White:

White writes about the Fog Index that measures the comprehensibility of newspapers. In the latest survey, the Chronicle got a level 12 which was higher than expected by the editors.

Letters To The Editor, “Study Shortage” By Chris Dalglish:

This student writes that there is a lack of study space on upper campus. He suggests making quiet areas with study equipment somewhere in the Union.

Letters To The Editor, “Brown Bag Overflow” By Frank O. Cooper:

This student writes on the amount of leisure space there is for students to lounge, eat, or study. He asks that seating be placed around campus for the “brown bag” lunch students so the cafeteria would not be so crowded.

“Fashion School Announces Fellowships”:

Tobe-Coburn school announced new fellowships that include four full tuition scholarships for women interested in a fashion career.

“University Receives Grant In Chemistry”:

DuPont Co. announced that the U will receive a grant. The universities receiving this grant will get $1.6 million.

List of Advertisements:

1. “Choosy Chrony”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 17th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 64

Page: 3

Articles:

“Uteville Hums with Bulletins, News of Campus Life”:

IFC rush chairman, Paul Keller, announced a meeting for all rush chairmen involved in the winter quarter rush. After a basketball game there will be a "Swingin' Affair" in the Union. There is a business meet, swim tryouts, Wednesday was the last day to register for classes.

"Chrony Posts Now Available":

Publications Council Chairman, Philip C. Sturges, will be taking applications for editor-in-chief, managing editor, and business manager.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Chronicle is advertising "Swingin' Affair" after the BYU vs. Utah game.
2. Brighton Ski Resort is announcing a bobsleigh party with a European Buffet Supper.
3. The Lawrence Radiation Laboratory will be on campus to interview students.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 17th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 64

Page: 4

Articles:

"Residence Hall To Present Basketball Film":

A film about the Redskins' season sponsored by the Residence Halls Association will be shown Ballif Hall.

"Utah Grapplers Face Oregon State Tonight":

Utah with coach Marv Hess will face their toughest opponents, OSU Beavers. Jerry Perez will move up a class to join Larry Nielson as the only upperclassmen. Bob Brown and Zane Parker are both undefeated.

"Meet The Redskins":

Sophomore and defensive player, George Pitts, was a top player as a sophomore and can be expected to do great things in his second year.

"Track Meeting"

List of Advertisements:

1. Brighton is announced the "Remember College Night" at Mount Majestic Manor.

2. The Tower Theatres is announcing two different shows: "Call me Genius" and "It Happened in Broad Daylight."
3. The Twilite Lounge is advertising relaxing music, college atmosphere, fine food, dancing until 1 a.m., and free evening parking.
4. Zion's Bookstore is advertising that they have over 5,000 books in stock in paper bound editions. The slogan is, "Come in and browse."
5. Jet Propulsion Laboratory will be on campus to interview students.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 18th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 65

Page: 1

Articles:

"University Hosts Surgeons, Large Medical Display":

The Utah Chapter of the American College of Surgeons held their annual scientific meeting, including medical displays, in the Union. These displays included a modern doctor's office and new surgical tools, while doctors and surgeons stood by to answer students' questions.

"Faculty Newsletter"

"Cuba President To Attend OAS Confab" By George Arfeld:

The Chronicle announced that Cuban president, Osvaldo Dorticos, and Carlos Rafael Rodriguez would attend the Inter-American Conference in Uruguay. Originally, Foreign Minister Raul Roa was supposed to head the meeting for Cuba. The change was speculated to be because Fidel Castro wants to do everything in his power to keep communism in Cuba.

World In Brief, "Formula For U.S. Vicory: 'Repeal The Goof-Off Age'" By Associated Press

"Great Issues Airs Free Press In U.S." By Ernest Ford:

At the Great Issues Forum, Neal A. Maxwell that freedom of the press is necessary for the national security to exist. Hays Gorey said that without free press, there would be no America. William B. Smart thought that the press did a good job in reporting national security issues.

"Nationalism To Theme Arab Lecture":

Dr. Fayez A. Sayegh would speak at Orson Spencer Hall to discuss Arab nationalism. Dr. Sayegh was a former Arab official of United Nations.

“Musical Festival Sets 14th Annual Show”:

On Monday Quintetto Boccherini, a famous Italian String ensemble, will play at the 14th annual Chamber Festival. The Festival will begin on Sunday and is directed by Professor Louis Booth.

“Bureau Readies Film On Alcoholism”:

A film titled, “For Those Who Drink” will be shown at Orson Spencer Hall. The film will feature the specialist on alcohol and alcoholism, Dr. Gordon Ball.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 18th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 65

Page: 2

Articles:

Guest Editorial, “Silent Partner In Segregation” By The Washington Post:

The Post claims Congress did little to help the Civil Rights Movement. This article is written in the midst of the federal housing projects.

“Hitchhiking Through Europe” By Ralph P. Vanderheide:

This article is a continuation of a student’s trip through Europe. This section is about Vanderheide’s time travelling around Spain.

Letters To The Editor, “Change For The Better” By Mike Cox and Jim Neilson:

This letter’s purpose is to inform students about the IK Book Exchange in the Union. Students can leave their old books here to be sold. Compared to the University Bookstore, Cox and Neilson claim it is a better choice.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus. Picture of two students talking holding a rope with a girl in a rope trap behind them. "Let's plan a little earlier next time! I hate this trying to get a date at the very last minute."

Issue Date: January 18th, 1962Volume: 71*Number: 65*Page: 3*Articles:*Ute Briefs, "U. Starts Traffic Crackdown":

Students parking illegally will now begin to get parking tickets up to $25. The Chronicle announced an LDS dance, record bop, and "Swingin' Affair," and business speech all going on that week. Dr. and Mrs. Grant H. Calder will be giving speeches at the University Dinner Club regarding their trip through Eastern European countries.

"Ute ROTC Unsung, Unseen In Flag-Raising Efforts" By Sally Coltrin

Coltrin brings notice to the University flag raisers. The ROTC cadets raise the flag at 7:30 a.m. and return to take it down at 5:00 p.m. everyday.

"U.S. Foreign Program Set By ASUU":

The "Brother and Sister Program," headed by Dave Pollei was created to help foreign students transition into American life and University life.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Chronicle is advertising "Swingin' Affair" on January 20th.
2. The Tower Theatres is announcing two different shows: "Call me Genius" and "It Happened in Broad Daylight."
3. Ashtonian is advertising a bar. The slogan is, "Home of the big Scooner."
4. Mikado Suki-Yaki House is advertising the "most exciting of all Japanese restaurants."
5. The Union Movies announced "Third Man on the Mountain."
6. Calling U gives a list of events coming up on campus

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 18th, 1962Volume: 71

Number: 65

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utes Tackle Montana Tonight; Return For Cougars Saturday” By Joe Ribotto:

Montana is known as being one of the hardest teams. For the Utes, Billy McGill has the best scoring average.

“Papooses, Kittens Battle Saturday”:

The Ute’s freshman team will play the BYU Kittens before the varsity game begins. The top scorer for BYU is Bob Quinney.

“Meet The Redskins”:

The highlighted Redskin in forward Danny Hawes. The Sophomore is 6’5” and averaged 6.7 points last season. He is also a good defenseman.

McGill Way Ahead, “Utes, Colorado State Take Early Lead In Skyline Stats”:

The Utes and CSU are way ahead of all of the other teams. The Utes average 12.3 points more than other teams per game, according to Commissioner Paul W. Brechler. For Utah, Bill “the hill” McGill is leading the scoring with an average of 39.7 points per game.

List of Advertisements:

1. Summer jobs in Europe are being advertised by The American Student Information Service.
2. Brighton is announced the “Remember College Night” at Mount Majestic Manor.
3. Bennion’s Boyd Park is advertising diamonds.
4. The Twilite Lounge is advertising relaxing music, college atmosphere, fine food, dancing until 1 a.m., and free evening parking.
5. Brighton Ski Resort is announcing a bobsleigh party with a European Buffet Supper.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 19th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 66

Page: 1

Articles:

“Dr. Olpin Flays Liberties Action” By Ernest Ford:

The U’s President, Dr. Olpin thought that ASUU had increased the civil rights issue. The Executive Committee has increased focus on the discrimination of foreign students that goes on in Salt Lake City. This committee heard of an incident of racism in a restaurant downtown and investigated. Dr. Olpin said this was going too far.

World In Brief, “U.N. Stops Red Threat In Congo, Rusk Asserts” By Associated Press:

The Secretary of State, Dean Rusk, said the U.N. stopped the Soviet Union from taking over the Congo. Without this intervention, Rusk said there would be chaos and fighting.

World In Brief, “Geneva”:

Three Princes in Laos met for a meeting that was longer than an hour.

World In Brief, “Amman, Jordan”

World In Brief, “Saigon, South Vietnam”

“Campus Groups To Sponsor Arab Speaker”:

Dr. Faye A. Sayegh will speak about Arab nationalism and the problems, accomplishments, and aspirations of the Arab nation.

“Greeks Ready Education For Banquet Talk”:

During “Greek Week” Robert Morris, president of the University of Dallas, will come to speak on communism. A picture of Morris is included.

“Chrony Calls Candidates For Top Editor Positions”:

Dr. Philip C. Sturges is accepting applications for the following Chronicle positions: editor-in-chief, managing editor, and business editor.

“Michie Named To Frosh Post; Jones In Office”:

Faculty members will now be admitted to athletic events in the same way students are. Colleen Makin, Spur president, announced a tentative date for the Campus Chest drive.

“Graphic Art On Display At Art Center”:

The New York Art Directors Club is sponsoring the new display at the Art Center. Artists include: Jacob Landau, Tomi Ungerer, Saul Bass, Lionel Kalish, Rudolph de Harak, Morgan Kane, David Stone Martin, Richard Avedon, Donald Silverstein, Saul Leiter, and Harry Hamburg.

“These Men Join The Navy - Then They Learn To Fly” By Sally Coltrin:

NROTC runs a flight program that teaches men in the navy to fly a plane. This method is to give special training to the men landing planes on ships instead of land.

List of Advertisements:

1. Chrony Pictures

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 19th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 66

Page: 2

Articles:

“The Round Table” By Chuck Akerlow:

Akerlow speaks about an early morning class that discusses Communism. The class is taught by Cleon Skousen.

Letters To The Editor, “Cheat - Whose Fault?” By Dianna Davis:

This letter discusses the problem of cheating within the university. She claims students cheat for a number of reasons: the classes only assign busy work, bad students have to cheat, and boring teachers.

“Campus Political Outlook”:

This article is criticizing the Board of Regents committee for not allowing a professor a leave of absence to run for the office. It claims that the University is the best place to get educated people into politics.

“Student Absences Get Official Okay”:

This is a list of students that got absences waived because they were at University-approved activities.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 19th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 66

Page: 3

Articles:

“Coed Wins Fans From Turkey” By Meg Rampton:

Joan Nelson, a political science student who is a fifth Turkish, received multiple letters from fans in Turkey. The Deseret News had published her picture and then a paper in Turkey circulated it also. The information along with the photograph mentioned that Nelson was the only female student in her class out of 26.

“Ute Professors Research Merit System For State”:

Working with the Utah State Public Employees Association, Dr. J.D. Williams, Dr. Oakley Gordon, and Dr. Reed Richardson are trying to figure out if Utah needs a single “merit system for state personnel recruitment.”

“Want A Grant? Set Forms In Park Bldg”:

The U is now accepting scholarship. Students with GPA higher than 3.0 can apply for scholarships. Students with lower than 3.0 can apply for grants.

Names In The News:

The list of names includes: Parry D. Sorenson, FLoyd A. Meldrum, Paul A. Thorn, Robert E. Helbling, and Andree M. L. Barnett.

Image:

This is a photograph of Pioneer Memorial Theatre. The Chronicle announced that the construction is almost complete.

List of Advertisements:

1. Hygela is advertising their facilities for swimming and ice skating.
2. National Education Television is advertising a new historical documentary, “An Age of Kings.”
3. ZCMI is advertising a new dress with ruffles.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 19th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 66

Page: 4

Articles:

“I.K Goat Week Called Fun - Now It’s Over” By Charlotte Garff:

The Intercollegiate Knights’ “goats” had multiple tasks they had to do for “goat week.”

“Italian Group To Highlight Chamber Music Festival”:

On Monday Quinitteto Boccherini, a famous Italian String ensemble, will play at the 14th annual Chamber Festival. The Festival will begin on Sunday and is directed by Professor Louis Booth. The department of music paired with the musicians performance trust funds and Local 104 of the American Federation of Musicians to make the festival happen.

“Game Dance Set”:

The “Swingin’ Affair” will take place after the game on Saturday. The Beta Theta Pi Quartet will be intermission entertainment.

“Daily Readings Feature Noted Author”:

KUER has begun readings from the author, J.D. Salinger. The “Chapter A Day” reader, Gene Pack, is scheduled to read Salinger’s, “Glass Family Saga.”

“Tours On Deck For Collegiates”:

The American Express Travel Service is offering 32 to 60 day tours for students. There are five different locations and pricing begins at $1,000.

“Coeds To Sign For Rushing: Jan. 22 - Feb. 26”:

For $5, coeds can now sign up for the Winter Rush. Sorority Houses then can invite the rushees to activities.

List of Advertisements:

1. The Glenwood Lounge is advertising the George Brent Quartet.
2. The Rural Electrification Administration (REA) is looking for new employees.
3. The Standard Optical Company is advertising lifetime contact lenses. Slogan is, “for the best in sight.”

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 19th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 66

Page: 5

Articles:

“Utes-Cougars Resume Cage War Saturday” By Joe Ribotto:

The previous year with this match-up, BYU won against the odds. This year BYU has neither Dave Eastis nor Gary Earnest. Both of these players pushed BYU to the win the year previous. The Ute, Bill “the hill” McGill, is pictured in the article and in the season, so far, has a scoring average of 37.4 points.

List of Advertisements:

1. The First Unitarian Society is advertising Sunday worship. The slogan is, “A proverb and a correction.”
2. The Terrace is advertising “Tomorrow Only Brothers Four.”
3. Rex B. Lybbert is advertising, “up to 60% lower insurance rates for young drivers.”
4. Marvin Melville is advertising French Bicycles.
5. The Tower Theatres is announcing two different shows: “Call me Genius” and “The Cheaters.”
6. Brighton is announced the “Remember College Night” at Mount Majestic Manor.
7. The Twilite Lounge is advertising relaxing music, college atmosphere, fine food, dancing until 1 a.m., and free evening parking.
8. Zion’s Bookstore is advertising that they have over 5,000 books in stock in paper bound editions. The slogan is, “Come in and browse.”
9. “Choose Chrony Classifieds”
10. Bennett Ford is advertising a ‘52 Chevrolet four-door sedan for students at a special price.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None

Issue Date: January 19th, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 66

Page: 6

Articles:

“OSU Wrestlers Drop Utes, 26-6” By Ernie Witucki:

Last year’s fourth place winners, OSU, defeated the Utes. A list of the wrestlers’ results is given.

“Bulletin”:

The Redskins beat Montana 68-66, coming back from a 12 point deficit. Scoring leaders for the Utes are, Bill McGill, Bo Crain, and John Allen.

“Meet The Redskins”:

The player highlighted is Rick Hanson. The sophomore is a guard and left-hander.

“Papooses Face Tough Game”

List of Advertisements:

1. KWIC Refreshing Radio is advertising their music station.
2. Busy Bee Cafe is advertising their, “Bavarian Dark Lager Beer.”
3. Hires Drive-In is advertising their food. The slogan is, “good food buyers drive to Hires.”
4. Luigi’s Restaurant is advertising the types of food they have. The slogan is, “House of Pizza.”
5. The Union Dance Committee is advertising the “Swingin’ Affair.”
6. Brighton Ski Resort is announcing a bobsleigh party with a European Buffet Supper.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None