

Finding Aid for the Daily Utah Chronicle; prepared by Michelle Saucedo

Issue Date: January 29, 1962
Volume: 71
Number: 72
Page: 1

Articles:

“Greeks Begin Festivities”: The University of Utah prepares festivities for the upcoming Greek Week on campus. The events include a talent show, a dinner exchange among sororities and fraternities involved such as Pi Kappa Alpha and Delta Delta Delta. The talent Extravagnaza will be hosted by Dr. Charles Seashore, staff assistant in the Dean of Students. In the same week other events will be presented such as a stag dance by Jeff Moffat’s Quartet, a lyceum featuring Dean Jack H. Adamson, and a beef banquet where the president of University of Dallas, Robert Morris will speak.

“Orson Spencer Halls Springs Leak due to Bad Weather,” by Sally Coltrin: Orson Spencer Hall Building on campus suffered a leaking caused by extreme cold weather. The leak was considered by superintendent Mr. Robert Jones as a situation that “could happen to any building.” The leaking was caused by water and all damage caused will be replaced.

“U.S. Spacecraft Misses Target; Orbits Sun,” by Associated Press Cape Canaveral: Scientists explain the “Ranger Third” spacecraft when it passed the moon and into orbit. They mention the images captured were not worthwhile and that it unfortunately did not keep an antenna pointing toward the earth causing signals on earth to be weaker.

“Moscow”

“Moscow”

“Sorority Pledges Plan Wednesday 1890’s Activities”: Nine sororities will gather in Carpenter Union Hall for a Junior Panhellenic party. The event will be presented with dinner, games and entertainment. Gene Thuli Jr., Panhellenic member mentioned they will have an 1890 theme. The event is expecting around 200 people.

“Chrony Opens Posts for Application”: Applications are being accepted to fulfill positions at the Chronicle staff. Students that are interested are encouraged to apply and provide previous experience and a statement for the position applied for.

“Got a Freedom Question? See Dodd Talk”: Senator, Thomas J. Dodd who served in the House of Representatives for six years will held a talk at Orson Spencer Hall auditorium answering questions from students and faculty. He will also speak in the Prudential Building.

“Ute Goblins on the Prowl: Sig Ep’s Door Vanishes,” by Ernest Ford: After the red door at Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity was reported missing, the Chronicle was informed through an anonymous tip about the location of the door, which was seen in South Temple. The Chronicle reported the information to the fraternity which had them contact the police. The red door is constantly targeted for pranks.

List of Advertisements:

1. The University of Utah advertises Prom Tickets for Junior Prom.
2. Announcement to inform that ID Cards are available for students.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of Mary Ann Baster, inside Orson Spencer Hall walking through the leak.
2. A photo of Senator Thomas J. Dodd.
3. A photo of the red door of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity in South Temple and 11th East.

Issue Date: January 29, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 72

Page: 2

Articles:

“Letters to the Editor, Whose Responsibility?,” by Royden G. Derrick: An overview of the editorial published by the Chronicle on January 19, 1962. Royden G. Derrick, the Chairman of the Board of Regents at the University of Utah shares his disappointment of the issue to the editor in regard to the lack of facts presented with the ban for political speakers on campus.

“Letters to the Editor, An Axion,” by Richard S. Newman: An overview of an article published in the January 25, 1962 issue by the Chronicle, Richard S. Newman appreciates the writer Johannes Kinfu, who wrote about racial encounters in the community. Richard emphasizes the importance of the article in American society.

“Letters to the Editor, Gripes Against Greeks,” by Joyce Carter: University of Utah student, Joyce Carter writes in regard to the complain of independent students who are not involved in Greek organizations such as sororities and fraternities, and that complain about not being able to affiliate to a central body on campus.

“This Week We Honor,” by THIS WEEK WE HONOR COMMITTEE: A piece that honors student and soon to be graduate at the University of Utah, Colleen Kelly. She is expecting to graduate with a major in speech corrections and will be attending another year to complete an elementary teaching certificate.

List of Advertisements:

1. A segment to present The Daily Utah Chronicle staff and publication dates.
2. Classified advertisements for Rent, Services, Personals, Lost and Wanted, and For sale titled “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of Colleen Kelly.
2. A cartoon about sorority girls titled "Little Man on Campus."

Issue Date: January 29, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 72

Page: 3

Articles:"Sound Off"

"Frosh Coed With a Brain? Smartee Party's For You": Party sponsored by Alpha Lambda Delta and Mortor Board will be held in the Home Living Center. The "Smartee Party" is focused on obtaining new freshmen women's scholastic honorary. Invitations were sued to coeds who meet the requirements and Miss Myrtle Austin and Miss Madelyn Helfrey will speak at the party.

"Prof Reads Paper": "Energy Transfer to Non-Newtonian Fluids in Laminar Flow" Paper written by Dr. E. B. Christiansen, head of the department of chemical engineering and Gordon E. Jensen, was presented by Dr. E. B. Christiansen at Princteon University during the second symposium on thermophysical properties.

"Iran Medicine Topic In Nursing Talk": Miss Virginia Webb, a nurse who has been in Iran for the past eight years, will talk about the cultural differences in Iran in regard to public health problems at the College of Nursing.

"AFROTC Tells New Leaders": Air Force ROTC cadets, Cadet Colonel Lawrence L. Bell, group commander and Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Ronald L. Schill, deputy group commander, were chosen to lead the cadet corps and enter flight training with the newest supersonic jet aircraft.

List of Advertisements:

1. University of Utah promotes events and meetings at the Union Building, announcement is titled as "Calling U."
2. Advertisement for Mexican and American Dishes.
3. Advertisement promoting Tower Theatres.
4. Zion's Bookstore invites students to location.
5. "Valentine Dance" tribute by the Union Dance Committee.
6. Coupon offer for Colonial Catering.
7. Advertisement for "Wildroot Hair Dressing."

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of Colonel Bell.

2. A photo of Carol Rees, Margo Thurman and Gene Thuli discussing poster for Greek Week.
3. A photo of LT. Col. Schill.

Issue Date: January 29, 1962
Volume: 71
Number: 72
Page: 4

Articles:

“Power from below”

“Ags, Denver Grab Skyline Wins”: An overview of the wins of The Utah State Aggies, Colorado State, BYU, Denver, New Mexico and the Utes. The Utes are expected to play the cowboys and the Rams next, as the “Utah Cagers” are giving back a to game road trip to Wyoming and Colorado State.

“Ute Grapplers Pin Aggies by 23-16 Margin”: Results of the wrestling team from Utah University. Which captured its third victory in six out of the 10 matches and there was one draw. The loss was the sixth straight for the Aggies.

“Denver Topples Utah Swimmers In Dual Meet”

“New Zealander Sets World Mile Record”

List of Advertisements:

1. Utonian advertisement for picture schedule on campus.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Power from below photo representing the levels underneath the surface.
2. Sigma Chi photo winning the 1962 “A” division intramural volleyball championship.

Issue Date: January 30, 1962
Volume: 71
Number: 73
Page: 1

Articles:

“Talent Show Kicks off Annual Greek Week,” by Charlotte Garff: Greek Week event talent extravaganza was held by Dr. Charles M. Seashore, dean of students staff member, who presented acts by Michele Money, Barbara Huber, Shirley Huber, Linda Davis, the Alpha Phi quartet, and other sororities and fraternities.

“U.S. In Conflict With Reds-Dodd,” by Ernest Ford: Sponsored by the Newman Club, Senator Thomas J. Dodd spoke about a foreign policy which will win the world for democracy in a speech at the University of Utah.

“Debaters Score Perfection In Tournament”: University debate winners won at a tournament for freshmen and sophomores held at the Union. The winners defeated Utah State, Weber, Carbon and College of Southern Utah. Five University debaters won superior ratings.

“U Days Events Headed By Subchairmen”: “U Days” activity for the spring quarter will be the highlight of the season, Chairman, Tony Middleton stated. Students are encouraged to apply for positions available at the ASUU office.

“Russia Claims Credit In Cuba,” by Associated Press: An overview of the relation between Cuba and Russia by addressing events that were published in Moscow, London, Washington, and New York, by the Associated Press.

“CCUN Delegate To Head For New York”: The ASUU committee and the CCUN, both organizations at the University of Utah, will be attending separate events for the United Nations in San Diego. 2nd Vice President, of ASUU will also be attending a Collegiate Council in New York.

List of Advertisements:

None

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of PI BETA PHI Sereta Welch and Ray Carlisle performing in Greek Week.

Issue Date: January 30, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 73

Page: 2

Articles:

“Valid Possibility”: Students and Faculty members discussed teacher evaluation at a meeting of Sounding Board. Which focused on the feedback by students involving strong and weak points addressed to professors. Faculty members also expressed concerns in regard to the evaluation.

“Letters to the Editor, Self Education” by Leonard Worth: Student Leonard Worth writes to the editor concerning the opinions and readers by the Chronicle in regard to school committees that portray the University of Utah’s racial and community stands.

“Letters to the Editor, The West’s Valuable Weapon” by Jack Dryden: Jack Dryden writes addressing a comment by Madeline S. Moore who wrote a letter to the Denver Post editor, which Dryden comments and writes to the editor in regard to the United States affairs with the wars in Congo and its involvement in shortening three wars between 1949 and 1956.

List of Advertisements:

1. Classified advertisements for Rent, Services, Personals, Lost and Wanted, and For sale titled "Use Chronicle Classified Ads!"
2. A segment to present The Daily Utah Chronicle staff and publication dates.

List of Cartoons and Art:

None.

Issue Date: January 30, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 73

Page: 3

Articles:

"Jr. Panhellenic To Attend Buffet Dinner"

"Demos Plan Political Program": An Evening of Practical Politics event will be sponsored by Young Democrats and held at the Union Little Theater. Dr. J.D. Williams associate professor of political science will be moderator. And Frank Wilkins, Democratic state chairman and Lucy Redd, Democratic National Committeewoman will be discussing questions to get involved.

"ASUU Applications": Applications with requirements for chairman of Homecoming Senior Day and Summer School committees' positions are in the deadline submission. Applications can be obtained in the Union.

"IK Pledges"

"Cosmo Program": Ski lessons will be provided for Cosmopolitan Club members and Utes. The lessons will be provided to students interested in learning the spot. Dinner, dance, songs and games will be included in the $2-dollar fee.

"Initiation"

"LDS Speaker"

"Deadline Nears For Chrony Applications"

List of Advertisements:

1. University of Utah promotes events and meetings at the Union Building, announcement is titled as "Calling U."

2. Utonian advertisement for picture schedule on campus.
3. Advertisement promoting Tower Theatres.
4. "Valentine Dance" tribute by the Union Dance Committee.
5. Union Movies advertisement for The Great Train Robbery.
6. Super Smooth Shave advertisement by Old Spice.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of Carol Rees, Margo Thurman and Gene Thuli making posters for Greek Week.

Issue Date: January 30, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 73

Page: 4

Articles:

"I-M Grapplers Begin Training For Matches"

"Utah Faces CSU In Showdown": Utah will be facing CSU to obtain victory in the race for the conference crown. All Skyline clubs will meet in the conference position. Wyoming, Montana, Denver and New Mexico are among the opponents.

List of Advertisements:

1. Advertisement by BOEING, to give information on space-age careers to students.
2. Classified advertisements for Transportation, Held Wanted, for sale, Services, and Personals.
3. "Got the Girl?" advertisement by Diamond Headquarters.
4. Baseball Meet announcement.
5. Skyline Summary results and schedule.

List of Cartoons and Art:

6. PI KAPPA ALPHA photo.
7. Cartoon by Caplan "Engineer? Scientist!"

Issue Date: January 31, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 74

Page: 1

Articles:

"Adamson To Initiate Greek Lyceum Fare": Graduate of Harvard University and Dean of the College of Letters and Science, Dr. Jack H. Adamson will speak at the Union Little Theater about Federal Aid to Education and problems in balance between science and humanities and teaching and research.

“Union Readies Program of Jazz Music”: The Jazz Showcase will hold their first appearance at the Union Panorama Room. Larry Jackstein and his Jazz Quartet will initiate regular live jazz presentations. If the series is met with a successful response, a Union-sponsored Jazz festival could be in result.

“Panel Plans Culture Discussion”: The Panel of Americans group will hold a discussion group to improve human relations in the Orson Spencer Hall Auditorium. Students from Utah State University with different social backgrounds will discuss problems and opportunities of communicating between different groups.

“Attache Appoints Arab Student to UAR Meet,” by Elaine Krans: Ahmad Hashad a graduate student in minerology was selected by 15 delegates at the University of Utah with Dr. M Shakaa, United Arab Republic cultural attache, who was on campus to elect the student for the graduate student at the National Convention.

“House Stops Legislation To Honor Ex-Presidents”, by Associated Press: In Washington, house members donned white carnations to commemorate the birthday of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

“United Nations, N.Y.”

“Icy Cold Snap Sweeps Through Nation,” by Associated Press: Temperatures well below zero were spread from Texas to New England. Which brought low temperatures all over North Dakota to upper Michigan. And in Northern New England, snow packed the ski hills.

List of Advertisements:

1. Silent Film today movie announcement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of Dean Adamson, Greek Week Speaker.
2. Panel of Americans members photo.
3. Photos of Ahmad Hashad and Dr. M. Shakaa.

Issue Date: January 31, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 74

Page: 2

Articles:

“Progressing or Declining?”: The Greek system and its group are heading to a questionable purpose of its system by education university administrators and many students who are focusing on obtaining a higher education without the organization.

“The White Paper,” by Dennis White: Dennis White writes about Senator’s Thomas J. Dodd’s visit to campus in Orson Spencer Hall auditorium and the discussion about communism and how the United States has dealt with communism.

“Letters to the Editor, Both Feet,” by Leslie Stevenson, Jr.: Leslie Stevenson writes to the editor in response to the letter written by Mr. Leonard Worth addressing the representation of a community. This response expands on the idea of different views of how minority groups have the same rights as majority groups.

“Letters to the Editor, Union Haze,” by Paul Marshal: Paul Marshal addresses the issue of the “No Smoking” signs posted on campus. The issue stands concerning that actions to keep the campus clean and pleasant for students will improve the campus and its community.

List of Advertisements:

1. Classified advertisements for Transportation, Held Wanted, for sale, Services, and Personals.
2. A segment to present The Daily Utah Chronicle staff and publication dates.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. “Little Man on Campus” cartoon.

Issue Date: January 31, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 74

Page: 3

Articles:

“Pi Phis Elect New President”

“Press Initiation”

“Science Seminar”: discussing the “research potentials at Yellowstone Park” Dr. Vincent J. Schaefer will member of the Atmospheric Sciences Research center, will presented his field research on campus addressing all parts of the study.

“NDEA Grant”

“Chivalry Meant ‘Formality’ Now It’s Only ‘Formal’”: The University of Utah’s annual Prom (1962) will focus on the “Reign of Chivalry” which emphasizes the contrast from today’s comfortable and functional clothes comparing to the Middle Ages. In the Middle Ages, the nobility of the French Renaissance were the individuals that worn most of the ornate costumes. Which will be the theme for the year.

“MacNamara to Highlight Sociology Crime Institute”: Donal E. J. MacNamara, dean of the New York Institute of Criminology will conduct at the Kingsbury Hall, the Institute of Crime, Delinquency and Law Enforcement seminar. For students interested in taking and receiving credit for the seminar are required to write an essay based on one of the seminar topics in order to receive a graduate credit.

“Delta Sigma Pi Names Queen”

List of Advertisements:

1. University of Utah promotes events and meetings at the Union Building, announcement is titled as “Calling U.”
2. “How to avoid nuclear war” by the Saturday Evening Post.
3. Pilots and Students advertisement.
4. “Valentine Dance” and “The Bill Link Combo” dance advertisement.
5. Zion’s Bookstore advertisement.
6. Young Democrats event “An Evening of Practical Politics.”
7. A Plan of Survival by the Saturday Evening Post.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Reign of Chivalry photo with Judie Alder and Neal Hansen.
2. Stephanie Fish photo of the “Rose of Delta Sig.”

Issue Date: January 31, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 74

Page: 4

Articles:

“Buckeyes Top AP Rankings”: This week’s AP rankings going from Ohio State for college basketball. Along with Kentucky, with 333 points. The Wildcats vs. Cincinnati. And Kansas State, remained on fourth with 274 points, Utah was the only Skyline team receiving votes.

“Utes Receive Grid Awards”: 21 senior Redskin athletes received awards at the Ambassador Athletic Club awards, as Ex-Ute football mentor, Jack Curtice predicted. The award banquet annually awards “U” blankets to graduating senior lettermen of the University.

List of Advertisements:

1. Redskin Statistics advertisement.

2. Too Many Babies Die by the Saturday Evening Post.
3. "The Week of the new Greek Autocrat" by Barry Moore's review advertisement.
4. IBM Will Interview February 6 advertisement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Union Team photo at bowling location.

Issue Date: February 1, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 75

Page: 1

Articles:

"Racial, Religious Problems Aired": Six panel members of the Panel of Americans group discussed racial prejudice and religious bigotry in Orson Spencer Auditorium. The panel focused on sharing and opening a door of communication among one another with a few questions addressing the background of these topics.

"Brazilians, Students Begin Preparations for Spotlight": The exhibit for the "Spotlight on Brazil" by the team of Brazilian Specialists will be held at the Union. It will provide a 10-day event to display culture and products of Brazil. Such as art, and speeches from Brazilian artist will be presented, and a keynote address by Roberto de Oliveria Campos, will be performed at the opening.

"Mostofi to Key Greek's Noon Lecture": Dr. Khosrow Mostofi will be the speaker for the "United States and World Affairs" at the lyceum in the Union Little Theater sponsored by the Greek Week. Dr. Khosrow specializes in American Foreign Policy and will be addressing the subject to students arguing whether or not the policies are important to protection of national interests.

"Rockin' Feet to Theme Snow Carnival": The snow Carnival will be held in February with the "Rock n' Roll Beat of Frantic Feet Crunching Snow" theme of the year. The festival will highlight winter quarter sports, snow sculpture and "twisting" rock n'roll dance. The event will be at the Union Ballroom, the Women's Recreation Association will sponsor the festival with booths of all organizations.

"Chrony Names New Staffers"

"Aid Here to Stay, Dean Claims," by Charlotte Garff: Federal Aid is becoming an important part to complete college education. Dr. Jack H. Adamson, dean of the college of Letters and Sciences, presented this idea at the Union Little Theater through the lyceum program of the Greek Week. The Dean commented on the importance of having the program available for the University.

“OSH Scence of Fire; No Damage”: New radiation room under construction at the Orson Spencer Hall was involved in an accident. A worker was performing construction duties and a fire started and licked up to the edges of the doorway. The campus police worked on extinguishing the fire with a fire extinguisher and the situation was under control.

“German Papers Vote Secrecy for Refugees,” by the Associated Press

List of Advertisements:

1. Demo Program, event “An Evening of Practical Politics” announcement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Brazilian Exhibit photo from the Union Ballroom set up.

Issue Date: February 1, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 75

Page: 2

Articles:

“Chronicle Change-Over,” by Linda Kathleen Covey: The Chronicle newspaper editor, Linda Kathleen Covey addresses the experience of being editor of the Chronicle and the opportunities and unattractive moments as the leader of the team she experienced.

“Letters to the Editor, Cleanliness Next to?,” by Students: Students address previous letter published to the editor by Paul Marshal. Addressing that the change to campus by the non-smoking policy should be contributed by all members, being staff and students.

“Letters to the Editor, Smokescreen” by Daryl Rasmussen

“Letters to the Editor, Out of Print?,” by O. Dabbagh”: Student O. Dabbagh addresses concern about Chronicle Columnists and their proficiency with writing about Dennis White and Chuck Akerlo and their ideologies about the world’s political future.

“Letters to the Editor, Broad Minded,” by Jay Bodine: Student Jay Bodline addresses a concern with the University student body and their importance of philosophy of life. Jay mentions the failing of not addressing basic issues to the student community.

List of Advertisements:

1. Excuses! Announcement to present students that will miss class by president A. Ray Olpin.
2. A segment to present The Daily Utah Chronicle staff and publication dates.
3. Classified advertisements for Rent, Services, Personals, Lost and Wanted, and For sale titled “Use Chronicle Classified Ads!”

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. Little Man on Campus Cartoon.

Issue Date: February 1, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 75

Page: 3

Articles:“Regional Official Visits Ute Mortar Board”

“Foreign Student Groups Ready Travel Program”: Foreign students will be part of the Utah State University’s International Days activities. The Cosmopolitan Club and the ASUU Students from Abroad Tour Sub-committee are sponsoring the program.

“Preview Film”“RHA HOP”“MAT Dance”“Business Talk”*“Union Jazz Show”*List of Advertisements:

1. University of Utah promotes events and meetings at the Union Building, announcement is titled as “Calling U.”
2. College night “Mount Majestic Manor” event advertisement.
3. Zion’s Bookstore advertisement.
4. “Play it Smart” advertisement by Bennion’s Boyd Park.
5. The Perfect Wedding at Crestwood Villa advertisement.
6. Ashtonian advertisement.
7. Tower Theatres advertisement.
8. Send a Valentine advertisement by the University Book Store.
9. Meet “Bill the Pirate advertisement.
10. Announcement of Bobsleigh Party.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of the Mortar Board by Dean Virginia P. Frobess, Karen Rosenbaum, and Helen Snyder.

Issue Date: February 1, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 75

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utes Lead Skyline Statistics”: Overview of the leadership of Utah team at the Skyline conference statistics. Bill “The Hill” McGill Utah’s All-America center candidate is scoring and rebounding leadership.

“Nosin’ Around,” by Joe Riboto

“Utah Paddlers Meet Utags”

List of Advertisements:

1. The Young Lions advertisement.
2. Snow Carnival Participants advertisement.
3. Twist Contest at Black Hawk advertisement.
4. Graduating with Ph.D’s, MS’s and BSEE’s advertisement at Sylvania.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of THETA TAU.

Issue Date: February 2, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 76

Page: 1

Articles:

“NSA Schedules Student Affairs Conference”: Students from the University of Tehran rioted in protest to Iranian government policies. Students will have the opportunity to meet and attend the National Student Association’s Regional International Students Affair Seminar to understand the issue at hand.

“Bridge Tournament”

“Greeks Not Just For Fun; Charity’s Important Too,” by Sally Coltrin: The importance of community work by the Greek Groups such as Alpha Phi and SAEs server throughout the year. They perform community work with children. The stereotype that the Greek Groups only have interests in life and social encounters addressed.

“Greeks Climax Week’s Activities; Maxwell, Morris Slated To Speak”: The last lyceum will be held at the Union Little Theater and it will have as speaker, Neal A. Maxwell, assistant to the president and he will address the “Individual and Democracy” stresses in today as a form of government.

“Disarmament Could Hurt U.S. Economy, Prof Says,” by Ernest Ford: Dr. Khosrow Mostofi addresses concerns about U.S economy at Greek Week lyceum. The effect of disarmament on the community is something Dr. Khosrow address and highlights as concerning.

“Greek Awards Planned for Banquet”: The end of the Greek Week will be held at the Union Ballroom for the banquet climaxing the activities. Dr. Robert Morris, president of the University of Dallas, will be the guest speaker at the banquet and will speak on communism.

“ JFK Readies Message on Defense,” by Associated Press

“Washington”

“Bari, Italy”

“Chicago”

List of Advertisements:

None.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of Neal A. Maxwell.
2. A photo of PHI DELTA THETA.
3. A photo of Dr. Khosrow Mostofi.
4. A photo of Robert Morris.

Issue Date: February 2, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 76

Page: 2

Articles:

“A Part of Education”: House cleaning duties were performed at the Chronicle Office to make a change to emphasize the ending of the previous editor team and start with a turnover of new staff and have them follow Chronicle policies and practices for the rest of the year.

“The Round Table,” by Chuck Akerlow: Chuck Akerlow overviews the previous editor at the Chronicle and address concerns in regard to social and basic issues that were portrayed wrongfully at the newspaper. Addresses the importance of having editorial responsibility for the campus community.

“Letter to the Editor,” by Darrow Richardson

List of Advertisements:

1. A segment to present The Daily Utah Chronicle staff and publication dates.
2. Classified advertisements for Rent, Services, Personals, Lost and Wanted, and For sale titled "Use Chronicle Classified Ads!"
3. The Villagers Quartet in Person at Glenwood Lounge advertisement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. The Little Man on Campus Cartoon.

Issue Date: February 2, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 76

Page: 3

Articles:

"Civil Service"

"Greeks Help Underprivileged": Continued contribution about Greeks groups on campus. Sorority and fraternities work on helping projects to support foundations as well as writers and musicians who study at Colony's Studio. Which is part of the MacDowell Colony program.

List of Advertisements:

1. University of Utah promotes events and meetings at the Union Building, announcement is titled as "Calling U."
2. KWIC Refreshing Radio advertisement.
3. French Bicycles advertisement.
4. Ice Skate Winters Swim Summers at HYGEIA advertisement.
5. Remember College Night at Mount Majestic Manor advertisement.
6. Meet Bill the Pirate advertisement.
7. Bavarian at the Busy Bee Café advertisement.
8. The Dance that's SWEEPING the country advertisement.
9. Zion's bookstore advertisement.
10. Young Drivers insurance advertisement.
11. An Age of Kings historical play advertisement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of ALPHA CHI OMEGA.

Issue Date: February 2, 1962

Volume: 71

Number: 76

Page: 4

Articles:

“Utah Tankers Meet Aggies”: Aggies are ranked as the finest team in their history. The Utes lost to Denver in their last outing. The Ute tank squad is scheduled to meet Utah State team at Clearfield pool for the first Western Division meet of the season.

“Redskins Battle CSU Saturday,” by Dave Smith: Facing the Skyline supremacy, Coach Gardner’s Redskins will face Wyoming’s Cowboys, the second-ranking Colorado State on a road trip. The Redskins have downed the Cowboys in every outing come through.

“Ski Report”

List of Advertisements:

1. Daily Horse-Drawn Bobsleigh Party advertisement.
2. “Good Food Buyers Drive To Hires” advertisement.
3. Falcons are going for Peanuts at Bennet Ford advertisement.
4. Twist Contest at the Black Hawk advertisement.
5. House of the Pizza advertisement.
6. Tower Theaters advertisement.
7. Mikado House advertisement.

List of Cartoons and Art:

1. A photo of Larry Zechiel.